rage door at his grandmother's home when his aunt, Barbara Reynolds showed up at the property and they had an altercation.

The man started walking back to his truck when Ms. Reynolds blocked him from getting into his truck. After Ms. Reynolds moved, he got into his truck and was driving off when Reynolds began cussing him.

The victim reported he stopped his truck, got out, and was walking toward Ms. Reynolds, asking her why she was acting that way, when she pulled a tazer out and began pulling the trigger. Reynolds then proceeded to lunge repeatedly at her nephew with the tazer.

Reynolds turned herself in at the Loudon County Jail Tuesday around 10:30 a.m. and was taken into custody by Corporal Angi Martin, LCSO.

contact with a maroon Dodge Dakota matching the description in front of the Justice Center and watched it, noting it followed another vehicle with approximately 5 feet between them.

The Dakota passed the other vehicle on a double yellow line and almost struck another motorist in the rear.

Deputy Watkins activated his emergency equipment, but the vehicle continued on before finally stopping near Walt Williams car lot.

The driver, Mr. Gilreath, had a very strong odor of an alcoholic beverage about his person and slurred speech, and started to get out of the vehicle without putting it into park.

Mr. Gilreath performed poorly on all field sobriety tasks and was placed under arrest. He was read the implied consent law and agreed and was transported to Fort Loudoun ER for a blood alcohol test.

back High School.

Seymour, one of the school's standout football players and captain of the football team, and another of the victims were airlifted to UT Medical Center due to the seriousness of their injuries.

According to Tennessee Highway Patrol Sgt. Randy Huckeby, the four were driving south on Calderwood Highway near the 6-mile marker about 6 p.m. Monday when they came around a curve and the vehicle went off the right-hand edge of the road. The driver tried to get back onto the roadway but lost control. The vehicle flipped multiple times and landed on its wheels. None of the four in the SUV were wearing seat belts and all were thrown from the vehicle.

Seymour remained in critical condition at press time. Simpson and Roulette were serious but stable. Starritt was treated and released.

Greenback Principal Joey Breedlove said the school has collected hundreds of dollars in a love offering and a fund has been set up for the Seymour family at Regions Bank of Greenback. A chili supper benefit is slated for Saturday, Jan. 29 at the school beginning at 6 p.m.

The crash is under investigation.

Ms. Lawrence was taken into custody and duly charged.

Police Beat

Alisha Brooke Conner, 19, Kings Grant Road, Rockford, Tennessee was charged

Monday with driving on suspended license.

According to records, Deputy Rondel M. Branam, LCSO noticed a gold Saturn traveling at a high rate of speed on East Coast Tellico Parkway. Radar verified the Saturn's speed at 62 mph in the posted 45 mph zone.

The deputy stopped the vehicle at National Camp Ground Road and identified the driver as Alisha Brooke Conner.

A check of Ms. Conner's name and date of birth through NCIC revealed her license were suspended for failure to satisfy a citation out of Knox County. She was taken into custody and transported to the Loudon County Jail.

Donna Louise Posey, 28, Carters Valley Road, Church Hill, Tennessee was charged Tuesday with driving on revoked license.

According to records, Officer Brandon Gentry, LCPD stopped a maroon GMC Sierra pick-up for driving on the shoulder of the road and passing other vehicles to get on the interstate.

When he stopped the truck on Highway 321 at Interstate 75 he identified the driver as Donna Posey. NCIC revealed her license were revoked. Ms. Posey was placed under arrest and transported to the Loudon County Jail.

Robbery

4:35 PM, a white male came in wearing a black jacket and possibly a wig on his head. Underneath his black jacket, he wore a white jacket, which he pulled over the lower portion of his face.

The clerk advised the man weighed approximately 215 to 220 pounds and was 6' to 6'1" and when he came in he said it was "cold out there."

The clerk went behind the counter to take the man's order and that's when the man showed the clerk a black revolver and stated, "Be cool and calm and hand over the money." The clerk was instructed to place the money in a white plastic grocery bag.

The clerk placed $316 to $318 in the bag and the robber exited the store, telling the clerk not to call the police for 10 minutes.

The crime was turned over to a investigator.

Police Beat

Casey A. Bridges, 27, Joe Stephens Road, Morristown was charged with DUI 1st offense, violation of implied consent, and possession of drug paraphernalia.

According to reports, Saturday, at approximately 3:47 AM, Deputy Billy Hall, LCSO stopped a black Honda for speeding on Interstate 75 at the 73 mile marker. The driver was Casey Bridges.

Mr. Bridges spoke with a thick tongue and appeared drowsy. He was asked to exit the vehicle to do field sobriety tasks. When Bridges got out of the car he was unsteady on his feet. He was given several field sobriety tasks and he failed all of them.

Mr. Bridges told the deputy he'd consumed four alprazolams during that day. He was read the implied consent advisement and refused to give blood.

Deputy Hall deployed K9 Draga to sniff the Honda and she alerted in the area of the driver's side. During the search of the vehicle Deputy Hall uncovered a needle hidden in the door panel, several loose alprazolam pills, several pieces of cotton used to inject pills, a spoon with burn marks used to inject pills, a very small amount of marijuana, and two bottles of alprazolam. One bottle contained 5 pills and was prescribed to Bridges and the other bottle contained 25 pills and was unlabeled.

Deputy Rusty Bowman, LCSO was also on scene.

Police Beat

Christopher Edwin Kolwyck, 22, Lee Drive, Lenoir City was charged with simple possession of marijuana and possession of drug paraphernalia.

According to reports, Saturday, at approximately 4:57 AM, Deputy James R. Bowman, LCSO stopped a green Toyota on Grand Street at Poplar Street for the driver, Mr. Kolwyck, not wearing his seat belt.

When the officer made contact with Mr. Kolwyck he smelled the odor of marijuana coming from the vehicle.

Deputy Bowman asked for and received permission to search the Toyota. During that search he discovered a glass bowl used to smoke marijuana out of and a medicine bottle containing a green leaf like substance believed to be marijuana inside of it.

Mr. Kolwyck reportedly told the deputy he just got done smoking marijuana.

Charles Richard 'Ricky' Massey, 43, homeless was charged Tuesday with violation of probation out of McMinn County, and failure to appear x 2 out of Loudon County.

Deputy Mickey Patterson, LCSO made the arrest.
