Assault

City was charged with domestic assault.

According to reports, Officer Brandon Gentry, LCPD responded to a domestic call at McGhee Square Apartments Thursday. The victim stated she and Yeomans had an argument earlier and he left for a short time. When Mr. Yeomans came back home they began arguing again.

The victim further stated

Yeomans became extremely angry and threw a toy across the room, breaking it. She went on to say when she began to leave, he grabbed her phone and threw it on the ground, breaking it also.

Mr. Yeomans admitted to throwing the toy and her phone.

Yeomans' actions put the victim in fear for her safety and he was placed under arrest.

an unknown substance and drug paraphernalia. One of the women was charged when it was learned she was wanted for a violation in another county.

Misty Lee Belser, 36, Vale Street, Loudon was charged Friday with DUI 1st offense, possession of drug paraphernalia, and possession of a legend drug without a prescription.

Samantha Marie Stephens, 23, Old Midway Road, Lenoir City was charged with violation of probation out of Knox County.

According to reports, Sgt. Jerramie Bowen, LCSO witnessed a silver Ford Explorer cross the fog line several times, then swerve suddenly onto the shoulder. The sgt. made a traffic stop on the Explorer on Broadway at M Street. The driver was identified as Misty Belser. When asked for her license, she was very slow to give them to him and her speech was also very slow.

Sgt. Bowen asked Ms. Belser if she was taking any medication and she said no. She performed poorly on all field sobriety tasks.

The sgt. asked Ms.

Belser if she would give consent to a vehicle search and she gave verbal consent.

Sgt. Bowen and Deputy Michael Watkins, LCSO searched the Explorer and reported finding a red straw with a white powder inside. Also found in Ms. Belser's purse was a bottle with carisopodol on the outside. Inside the bottle were 17 small round white pills identified as seroquel 50 mg., along with the carisopodol.

There was also two bottles with an unknown liquid that was sent to the lab for identity.

The passenger in the Explorer was identified as Samantha Stephens. It was discovered Ms. Stephens had a warrant out of Knox County.

Both women were taken into custody transported to the Loudon County Jail.

Police Beat

Lisa T. Buckner, 43, 1st Avenue, Lenoir City, was charged Thursday with DUI 1st offense.

According to reports, Ms. Buckner ran off the shoulder of Shaw Ferry Road and got stuck in a ditch. Buckner was sitting in the driver's seat with the engine running when Sgt. Jimmy D. Whitt, THP arrived on the scene.

Trooper Whitt reported Ms. Buckner had a strong odor of an alcoholic beverage on her breath, her balance was unsteady and she was confused. She didn't know why she was in the ditch and she thought she was in Knoxville.

Ms. Buckner was uncooperative and stated she could not perform field sobriety tasks. She was arrested and transported to Fort Loudoun ER for a BAC.
