"Sticks & stones may break your bones," but a baseball bat will definitely do the job

A Loudon man faces aggravated assault and other charges after he allegedly went to a Loudon business and attacked another man with a baseball bat because he thought the man had been talking about his girlfriend and mother.

Jose Antonio Cisneros, 22, Church Street, Loudon was charged with aggravated assault, simple possession of schedule VI, and possession of drug paraphernalia.

According to reports, Sunday, at approximately 2:00 PM, Officer Bennie Houser, LPD was dispatched to the La Lupita for an assault call weekend of football or some other sport. Some folks look forward to this week for the extra time off work or because gun season opens and the rut should be in full swing. This is also one of only two times per year that many families take time to gather together for a meal and to put differences aside for a couple of hours.

What does Thanksgiving mean to you? Better yet, what do you have to be thankful for?

Angie and I are going to view Thanksgiving a little bit differently this year than many in the past. Although we are grateful for the rich American history in which this holiday was intended to represent, we have so much more thanks that is due to a risen Savior who gave His life for us on the cross of Calvary. We are grateful that even when we were living such sinful, ungodly lives, Jesus had mercy on us, forgave us, cleaned us up and informed us that He has plans for our lives.

What am I thankful for? I thank our Almighty God for the very breath that I woke up with this morning. I realize that it is only because He allows me to do so, that I am able to share these words with you. I am thankful that I was raised in a Christian family, surrounded by those who knew what thanksgiving was really all about. I will never forget the words my Papaw spoke to our family just days before he went to be with Jesus. He thanked God for the life that he had lived and the family that God had given him. He then said something like this; "I don't have an ought against nobody and I don't reckon anybody has an ought against me." What a powerful statement! My Papaw loved his neighbor as himself exactly like Jesus commanded all of us and I am thankful for the example he set for all of the Vittatoes that follow him. I am sure that God had a special place reserved for E.J. Vittatoc and I can't wait to see him again someday.

I am thankful to have healthy children that have not chosen the dreadful paths that I was choosing when I was their age. I am thankful that Jesus loved me enough to die for my sins and that when I cried out to Him, He answered and saved my soul from an eternity in hell. I'm thankful to have a job and a place to call home. My mind recreates a vivid picture of how families live in a small village called San Mateo just outside of Guatemala City. If you are warm and dry tonight with a full belly and a closet full of shoes, then you too have a lot to be thankful for.

1 Thessalonians 5:18 (KJV) In everything give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you.

Psalms 106:1 (KJV) Praise ye the LORD. O give thanks unto the LORD, for He is good, for His mercy endureth forever.

In a country that affords us so many riches compared to most of the world, it is the most simple things that we often take for granted. If you are reading these words then I am confident that you are not homeless. I dare say that you are not hungry and you most likely have enough clothes on your back to protect you against the November cold. I am also confident that you have someone in your family that loves you and would give you any of these items if you were lacking. This Thanksgiving please keep in mind that it is not like this everywhere, not everybody eats ham and turkey this week with all the "fixins".

A Special Challenge for Christians - If we have accepted Christ into our hearts and lives then we know that Jesus has commanded us to love our neighbor as ourselves. What if every Christian who reads these words would take a few moments and a few dollars to help someone else this week as we thank Jesus for all He has given to us.

I know times are tight, but Jesus gave it all! When you buy that turkey, why don't you buy two and give one to a family who doesn't have one. You don't know a family like that? When you leave the grocery store just stop in the parking lot and ask God to show you one! We serve the creator of the universe, surely He can show you a family that needs to see His love!

I encourage you to make it a personal quest and also to handle it yourself. Making a donation somewhere is fine for those who are physically unable but God wants us to love others "Hands on". If we personally get involved, get our family involved and love folks like Jesus loves us, then people will see Christ in our lives and God will draw them to Himself. Maybe the family God shows you is lost, maybe God wants to use you to be that example for Him.

My fellow Christian there is no better time than Thanksgiving to show the world that Jesus Christ loves them unconditionally and He wants to save them if only they will believe and ask. The reason many don't believe is because we live no different than they do. If you're truly thankful for the blessings in your life, then show God, share God. It is our responsibility to love our neighbor as ourselves. Lets go love like Jesus this week!

Visit or share with us at www.thegoodnews-dailyedition.com and thanks for reading. May God bless you and your family as He has mine.

Gun Season

Thanksgiving. However, sportsmen will find a major change this year with a continuous gun season which will run through Jan. 1, 2012.

The one continuous season replaces the previously two segmented hunting seasons. The Tennessee Wildlife Resources Commission established the season upon recommendation from the Tennessee Wildlife Resources Agency.

Tennessee is divided into three deer hunting units, A, B and L. Hunters may harvest one antlered buck per day until the statewide bag limit of three is reached, including those deer harvested during archery and muzzleloader seasons. An antlered buck is a buck with an antler at least three inches long.

For antlerless deer hunting in Units A and B during this season, refer to the list of hunts on page 30 of the 2011 Tennessee Hunting and Trapping Guide. All hunts listed are now non-quota. Each county listed on page 30 has its own bag limit. A hunter may harvest the bag limit of antlerless deer in any open Unit A or B county and then go to any other counties listed and take the antlerless bag limit there, also. The bag limit for antlerless deer in Unit L is three per day.

A Type 94 permit is required to harvest antlerless deer during this season on all non-quota hunts in Units A, B, & L, except for holders of an Annual Sportsman, Lifetime Sportsman, or Senior Citizen License Type 167 Permit.

TWRA personnel collected data at various check-in stations across the state Saturday on opening day. Antlered bucks were measured and aged for management purposes.

The second Young Sportsman Hunt will be held the weekend of Jan. 7-8, 2012.
