Director

of the laws of the State of Tennessee pertaining to the practice of pharmacy; the manufacture, distribution or sale of drugs; and the process of medication use, including but not limited to compounding, selection, preparation, dispensing, education and monitoring of drugs.

"Andrew is very well qualified for the position of director of the Board of Pharmacy. His education and professional pharmacy experience will be an asset to our Bureau of Health Licensure and Regulation," Health Commissioner John Dreyzehner, MD, MPH, said. "I would like to sincerely thank Dr. Terry Grindler for his excellent stewardship of the Board of Pharmacy during his service as acting director."

As director of the Board of Pharmacy, Holt will support the operations and administration of the board by advising and informing members and conducting studies and research. He will act as a consultant to the Bureau of Health Licensure and Regulation in its enforcement duties on behalf of the board. He will also be responsible for maintenance and operation of the Controlled Substance Monitoring Database.

"I look forward to working with the talented team we have in place in the Board of Pharmacy office," Holt shared. "Our mission of protecting, promoting and improving the health of all citizens in a respectful and caring manner is something I believe in very strongly. I am excited to have the opportunity to assist our dedicated and talented board members as they carry out their duties."

Holt comes to state government after working as a pharmacy manager for Target, where he was responsible for managing retail pharmacy daily operations and training pharmacists to counsel patients and providers on optimum and cost-effective drug utilization. He also managed a floating pharmacist pool for the company's Memphis and Nashville markets. Holt has also worked as a pharmacy manager for Walgreen's and as a nuclear pharmacist for GE Healthcare in Memphis.

Holt received his Doctor of Pharmacy degree from the University of Tennessee Health Science Center and completed his pre-professional curriculum at the University of Memphis. He is licensed as a pharmacist in Tennessee, Arkansas and Mississippi and holds certifications in immunizations and medication therapy management from the American Pharmacists Association. Holt is an assistant professor for both the Department of Pharmaceutical Sciences and Department of Clinical Pharmacy at the University of Tennessee College of Pharmacy. He has held memberships in the American Pharmacists Association and the Tennessee Pharmacists Association. He has served as a member of the UT National Alumni Association Board of Governors and has held several positions including a term as president of the Memphis-Shelby County Chapter of the UT Alumni Association Board of Directors.

responded to a fight in progress call Saturday on McCrary Street. On arrival, the corporal spoke with two witnesses and one victim.

One of the witnesses stated she went to get Johnson from the hospital around 12:30 PM, and during the trip home he threatened to get a knife and stab his brother.

The other witness stated a fight started when Johnson's brother asked him for a cigarette and he refused. His brother called Johnson some names and Johnson tried to throw a jar of beads at him.

The witness further stated, Johnson tried to throw a lamp, but the witness got between the two brothers and Johnson then went to a kitchen drawer and threw silverware at his brother.

The fight then went outside and according to the victim/brother, Johnson cut his left forearm with a knife during the fight.

Corporal McGinley noted in his report the victim had two cuts to the top of his left forearm about an inch below the wrist area and the man who got between the two brothers had a minor injury to the tip of his little finger as a result of trying to break up the fight.

Fugitive

Robert James Peterson, 40, homeless was charged with being a fugitive from justice.

According to records, Deputy T.J. Scarbrough, LCSO was dispatched to the TA Truck Stop on Watt Road Saturday, on an intoxicated person call. Scarbrough, along with Deputy Brandon Dixon made contact with Robert J. Peterson.

Mr. Peterson was unsteady on his feet, had slurred speech and bloodshot watery eyes. He was deemed a danger to himself and the public in his intoxicated state.

The manager of the TA complained that Mr. Peterson was bothering the customers and cursing at employees.

Peterson's information was run through NCIC and officials received a confirmed hit out of California that Peterson was a fugitive from justice. He was taken into custody and transported to the Loudon County Jail.

Jewelry

According to reports, the Executive Director of "The Neighborhood," 100 Chatuga Way, Loudon, told Deputy Mike Williams, LCSO some jewelry had been lost or stolen after a tenant told her she was missing a necklace and pendant from her room.

An extensive search of the room and facility by two departmental managers turned up nothing.

The victim reported

she kept the necklace and pendant inside a jewelry box on top of her dresser and several other pieces of jewelry had been left undisturbed inside the box.

The 91 year old victim stated she last wore the missing jewelry the previous Monday or Tuesday and thinks she put them back in the jewelry box when she took them off.

The jewelry was described as a gold ladies necklace and the pendant was a cameo face with gold trim, both valued at $2000. At the time of the report it was not known if the jewelry was lost or stolen. The case is under investigation.

Bad Role Models

46, Ridge Crest Drive, Madisonville was charged with disorderly conduct.

According to records, Tuesday, around 9:48 PM, while at a basketball game at Loudon High School, Officer J.

Kent Russell, LPD witnessed Rebecca Coon drop her shoulder and slam into a 16 year old juvenile member of the opposing basketball team.

After arresting Coon, the officer found an ink pen in her purse containing a white powdery substance believed to be a controlled substance near her medications.

Records indicate John W. Arden, Jr. became upset when his girlfriend, Rebecca Coon, was arrested and started yelling at Sgt. R.S Newman, LPD. The Sgt. asked him to calm down and go home, but instead, Arden turned and screamed at the lawman, which caused more of a scene. Arden was then paced under arrest as well.

Officer Kenny Ridings, LPD, was also on the scene.

ley Road, Decatur was charged with possession of schedule VI and possession of drug paraphernalia.

According to an affidavit; on November 28th, 2011, Agent Jeff Vittatoe, 9th DTF went to the Days Inn on Highway 321 in Lenoir City to speak to Andrea Miller. As he entered the hotel room, with her consent, he observed what he believed to be two half burnt, hand rolled cigarettes believed to contain marijuana.

Agent Vittatoe reported he also observed
