ficer Houser a female was trying to get money from him. Officer Houser then made contact with the driver of a silver Buick Regal and identified him as Mr. John S. Antrican.

Mr. Antrican advised they had been in Paint Rock and were on their way back to Knoxville and were trying to get some gas money. Antrican was sitting behind the wheel and the keys were in the ignition. He gave the officer an ID and after running it through the E911 Center the status came back suspended for failure to satisfy.

After arresting the driver, Officer Houser made contact with the back seat passenger, Ms. Alexandria E. Seier, and ran her name and date of birth and discovered there were four warrants for her arrest. Officer Houser placed her into custody and asked her if she had anything illegal on her person and she reported she had two syringes and an oxydone 30 stuffed inside her.

Officer Houser called Officer April Farmer, LPD to the scene and she retrieved the items. Knox County put a hold on Ms. Seier.

Officer Houser then made contact with the front seat passenger, Mr. Fredric T. Epps, who was in the restroom in Weigels. The officer told him to come out when he was done.

Officer Brad Parks, LPD checked the trash can in the restroom and found a syringe and a spoon. Mr. Epps advised he panicked when Officer Houser told him to come out when he was finished and threw them in the trash can.
