The Year in Review A Look at FBI Cases, Part 2

Case Files 2011-With our partners in the law enforcement and intelligence communities, the FBI worked thousands of investigations during 2011, from cyber and hate crimes to public corruption and multi-million-dollar fraud schemes. As the year draws to a close, we take a look back at some of 2011's most significant cases.

Part 1 focused on terrorism.

This segment highlights some of the year's top cases from the FBI's other investigative priorities:

Martin Luther King Jr. Day attempted bombing: A Washington state man was sentenced to 32 years in prison last week for attempting to bomb a Martin Luther King Jr. Day parade last January in Spokane.

Trucker

According to records, Officer Kevin Condee, LCPD, was traveling on Kelsey Lane Saturday, around 12:20 pm, when he noticed a red semi truck stop in the roadway.

The driver, identified as Arlin R. Queen, turned the emergency flashers on and got out of the truck. He walked across the road and into the Murphy USA.

Officer Condee stopped and walked up to the door of the establishment to speak with Mr. Queen in order to determine what his emergency was. The officer discovered Queen didn't have an emergency, but was instead buying a pack of cigarettes.

Queen's semi was blocking an entire lane of travel at a time when traffic was very heavy, thereby causing a hazardous situation for other motorists.

Queen was defensive and appeared irritated with the officer. Officer Condee asked for his drivers license and informed him he was going to be issued a citation for impeding traffic.

Mr. Queen then became belligerent and argumentative as they walked towards the cruiser. The officer asked Mr. Queen to stand in front of the cruiser so he could monitor him for his own safety, while he wrote the citation. Queen argued he didn't have to follow the officer's orders and attempted to walk away.

Officer Condee advised Queen he was being legally detained and again ordered him to stand in front of the cruiser. He continued to argue and the officer was forced to grab his arm and physically position him in front of the cruiser. Queen was instructed to remain in that position until the officer completed the citation.

Queen again refused to follow instructions and walked around to the driver's door of the police cruiser where Officer Condee was sitting and continued to argue with him, thereby placing the officer in an unsafe position. Murphy USA and the surrounding parking areas were very busy at that time of day and numerous citizens were watching.

Queen's behavior was disorderly and created public nuisance and alarm. Officer Condee ordered Queen to back away, got out of his cruiser and informed him he was under arrest.

Queen was ordered to turn away from the officer and place his hands behind his back, but he repeatedly refused to do so, until Officer Condee informed him he was going to deploy his taser if he didn't comply.

Eventually, Queen complied and Officer Condee placed him in handcuffs. Queen was searched prior to transport and a switchblade knife in a leather sheath was discovered on his belt.

Police beat

Eric Christopher Wolf, 39, Tinnel Lane, Lenoir City, was charged with two warrants, one out of Knox County and the other out of Jefferson County. Deputy James R. Bowman, LCSO, made the arrest Sunday.

John L. Stewart, 61, County Road 299, Sweetwater, was charged Saturday, with DUI 2nd offense and violation of the implied consent law.

According to records, Deputy Rondel M. Branam, LCSO, was dispatched to the area of Murrays Chapel Road and the KOA camp ground on a single vehicle accident. When he arrived on the scene he noticed a blue GMC pickup truck off the side of the road, in a creek, with no one around it. A witness called in and stated they saw a black male walk away from the truck. The man was located a short distance away, and was identified as Mr. John L. Stewart. He told the deputy he ran off the road. Mr. Stewart had a strong odor of an alcoholic beverage on his person, red watery eyes, and he was unsteady on his feet. He said he had one beer, but did poorly on field sobriety tasks. Mr. Stewart was read the implied consent advisement and agreed to a breath test. Once at the jail, Mr. Stewart stated, just prior to taking the breath test, he had emphysema and could not perform the test. He then agreed to take a blood test and just prior to getting to the Fort Loudoun Medical Center he refused to take a blood test as well. Stewart was again, transported to the Loudon County Jail.

No license and DUI

Jose Maria Lopez Cano, 23, Unknown Address, was charged with DUI 1st offense and no drivers license.

According to reports, Saturday, at approximately 12:22 am, Mr. Cano was seen driving a green Oldsmobile Bravada on Old Highway 95 at Kirk Avenue. He was swerving and ran off the road several times. When Lt. David Flynn, LCPD, stopped the vehicle, Mr. Cano stopped in the middle of the road.

Cano had a strong odor of an alcoholic beverage on his breath, slurred speech, and was very unsteady on his feet. He couldn't stand without swaying and almost fell.

Mr. Cano could not perform field sobriety and couldn't take an alcohol/drug test due to his intoxication. It was also discovered he didn't have a valid drivers license.

Police beat

Juan Arcos, 23, Guernsey Avenue, Memphis, was charged

Monday, with no drivers license.

According to reports, Deputy Cody Fritts, LCSO, stopped a gray Chevy Silverado on Pond Creek Road at Interstate 75 for crossing the center line several times.

The driver was identified as Juan Arcos.

Arcos was charged with driving without a drivers license.

Teresa Gail Flowers, 42, Blackoak Drive, Sevierville, was charged with failure to appear. Deputy Robert Gray, LCSO, made the arrest Wednesday, at the Sevier County Jail.

Brian Douglas Blackwell, 30, Bellvue Street, Knoxville, was charged with public intoxication.

According to reports, Friday, around 11:30pm, Deputy Charles Butler, LCSO, responded to the area of Interstate 75 around the 83 mile marker, in reference to a disabled vehicle.

On arrival, the deputy saw a Ford Escort with severe front end damage. A man, later identified as Brian D. Blackwell, got out of the passenger side of the vehicle and approached Deputy Butler. Mr. Blackwell stated the driver called for a ride. The man was very distant and confused, he had red glassy eyes and was unsteady on his feet. The deputy asked Mr. Blackwell if he had been drinking or using drugs and he admitted to smoking marijuana. Blackwell was deemed a danger to himself and others if left to walk, and was placed under arrest.
