Hardin

nam, LCSO noticed a blue Nissan Quest with a busted left tail light traveling east on Highway 321 in Lenoir City. When he checked the tag, it came back registered to a 1989 Chevrolet pick up truck.

Deputy Branam stopped the vehicle at Highway 444 and identified all the occupants by their names, dates of birth and the social security numbers they provided him.

One of the passengers in the back seat gave his name as Phillip Wayne Hardin and a date of birth of December 1st, 1973. Dispatch advised, Mr. Hardin was described on his license as a white male, 6'2, with green eyes. The deputy had Mr. Hardin outside of the vehicle and he appeared to be approximately 5'9 and had light blue eyes.

Mr. Hardin said the first part of his social security number was 410 but the license that came back to the name and date of birth provided showed the first part was 413.

Deputy Branam finally asked the passengers what the man's name was and everyone in the vehicle stated his name was Bryan Hardin. The man then admitted his name was Terry Bryan Hardin and gave his actual date of birth.

A check of Hardin's true name and date of birth revealed Mr. Hardin had two warrants on him, one out of Knox County and another out of Monroe County. He was placed under arrest and duly charged.

Licenses

(TWRA) regional offices, license agents and on the TWRA website, www.tnwildlife.org.

The new licenses are valid through February, 2012. License sales provide the primary funding for the TWRA, which does not receive any funding from the state's general fund (i.e. state sales tax). The 2010-11 licenses expire Feb. 28.

"License dollars are the lifeblood of our agency's efforts to manage all wildlife in our state," said Ed Carter, TWRA Executive Director. "I would encourage fellow Tennesseans who appreciate the tremendous wildlife viewing opportunities we all enjoy to make a license purchase as a way of showing their support for all species and allowing us to leverage available federal funding."

Resident licenses may be purchased by: persons who possess a valid Tennessee driver's license; persons who have lived in Tennessee for 90 consecutive days with the genuine intent of making Tennessee their permanent home; military personnel on active duty in this state and their immediate families, who reside with them, regardless of resident status; students who are enrolled in a Tennessee school, college, or university for at least six months. A Social Security number is required to purchase a Tennessee hunting or fishing license.

Licenses may also be purchased online at TWRA's website: www.tnwildlife.org and charged to a credit card. Licenses may also be ordered by telephone and charged to a credit card by calling 1-888-814-8972. All licenses purchased by credit card will be charged a processing and handling fee. Effective March 1, the new fees over the telephone are $7.50 for those licenses mailed and $6.25 for those not mailed. Through the internet, charges are $4.25 for those licenses mailed and $3 for self-prints.

To expedite telephone orders, the caller should have ready the name, address, physical description, Social Security number, driver's license number, TWRA ID number (if renewal), and credit card number.

Licenses are printed on a special tear-resistant, water-proof paper. In case of a lost license, duplicate licenses can be obtained from any REAL license agent for a $7 fee.
