Cooper

Lynette Ladd, LCPD; on or about February 21st, 2011, at approximately 4:28 PM, Michael Cooper committed the offense of aggravated assault domestic violence while on Market Drive in Lenoir City.

Records indicate Cooper and his partner were involved in an altercation which became physical. The victim was driving Cooper's vehicle when Cooper reached over and pulled the vehicle out of gear and took the keys out.

The victim exited the vehicle, at which time Cooper chased him down the wrong side of the roadway, threatening to run over him with the vehicle.

Cooper threw rocks at the victim and struck him in the back with a stick.

The victim had obvious injuries on his back. Cooper and the victim reside at the same residence. Sgt. Ladd made the arrest.

Charged

another person were taken into custody during a traffic stop for suspicion of DUI.

Arthur Shane Darden, 34, Linden Avenue, Knoxville was charged Thursday with driving on suspended license.

Latisha Rena Mize, 32, Bethel Avenue, Knoxville was charged with possession of schedule III loratab and possession of drug paraphernalia.

According to reports, Sgt. Jeramie Bowen, LCSO stopped a white Pontiac on Highway 11 at Ford Road for suspicion of DUI after the vehicle crossed the center line several times.

The driver, Mr. Darden told the sgt. he didn't have a license, they were suspended for not paying tickets. A check through NCIC revealed they were indeed suspended for failure to satisfy citations out of Knox County. Mr. Darden was placed under arrest.

Sgt. Bowen then asked the passenger, Ms. Mize, to step out of the vehicle and perform field sobriety to see if she could drive the vehicle. She passed the field sobriety tasks.

Sgt. Bowen then asked Ms. Mize if she had any drugs on her and she said no, but when she got out of the car he noticed a bulge in her pants and the top of her jeans were under her belt so he had Officer Emily Lawson, LCPD do a pat down of Ms. Mize.

Officer Lawson found a bottle in Mize's crotch area. When retrieved, there were two pills inside of a red pill crusher in her underwear.

The pill crusher had a white powder residue inside of it and when Ms. Mize got to the jail, officers found a small straw inside her bra with a white powder residue. Deputy Jason Goddard, LCSO was also on the scene.

Police Beat

Michael Leon 'Mikey' Smallen, 28, East 6th Avenue, Lenoir City was charged with simple possession, possession of schedule III and failure to appear.

The report states, at approximately 2:24 PM, Monday afternoon, Officer Jamie Whitt, LCPD was dispatched to Rock Springs Park on a possible domestic between a male and female. Upon arrival, Officer Whitt observed Mikey Smallen leaning over a female at a park bench with his left hand in his pocket. The officer advised him to remove his hands from his pockets and he did.

While patting down Mr. Smallen the officer discovered a bottle containing four orange pills with a five sided shape marked with an N and 8 and a cross believed to be suboxone along with two broken pieces and a small plastic bag containing a small amount of a green leafy substance believed to be marijuana.

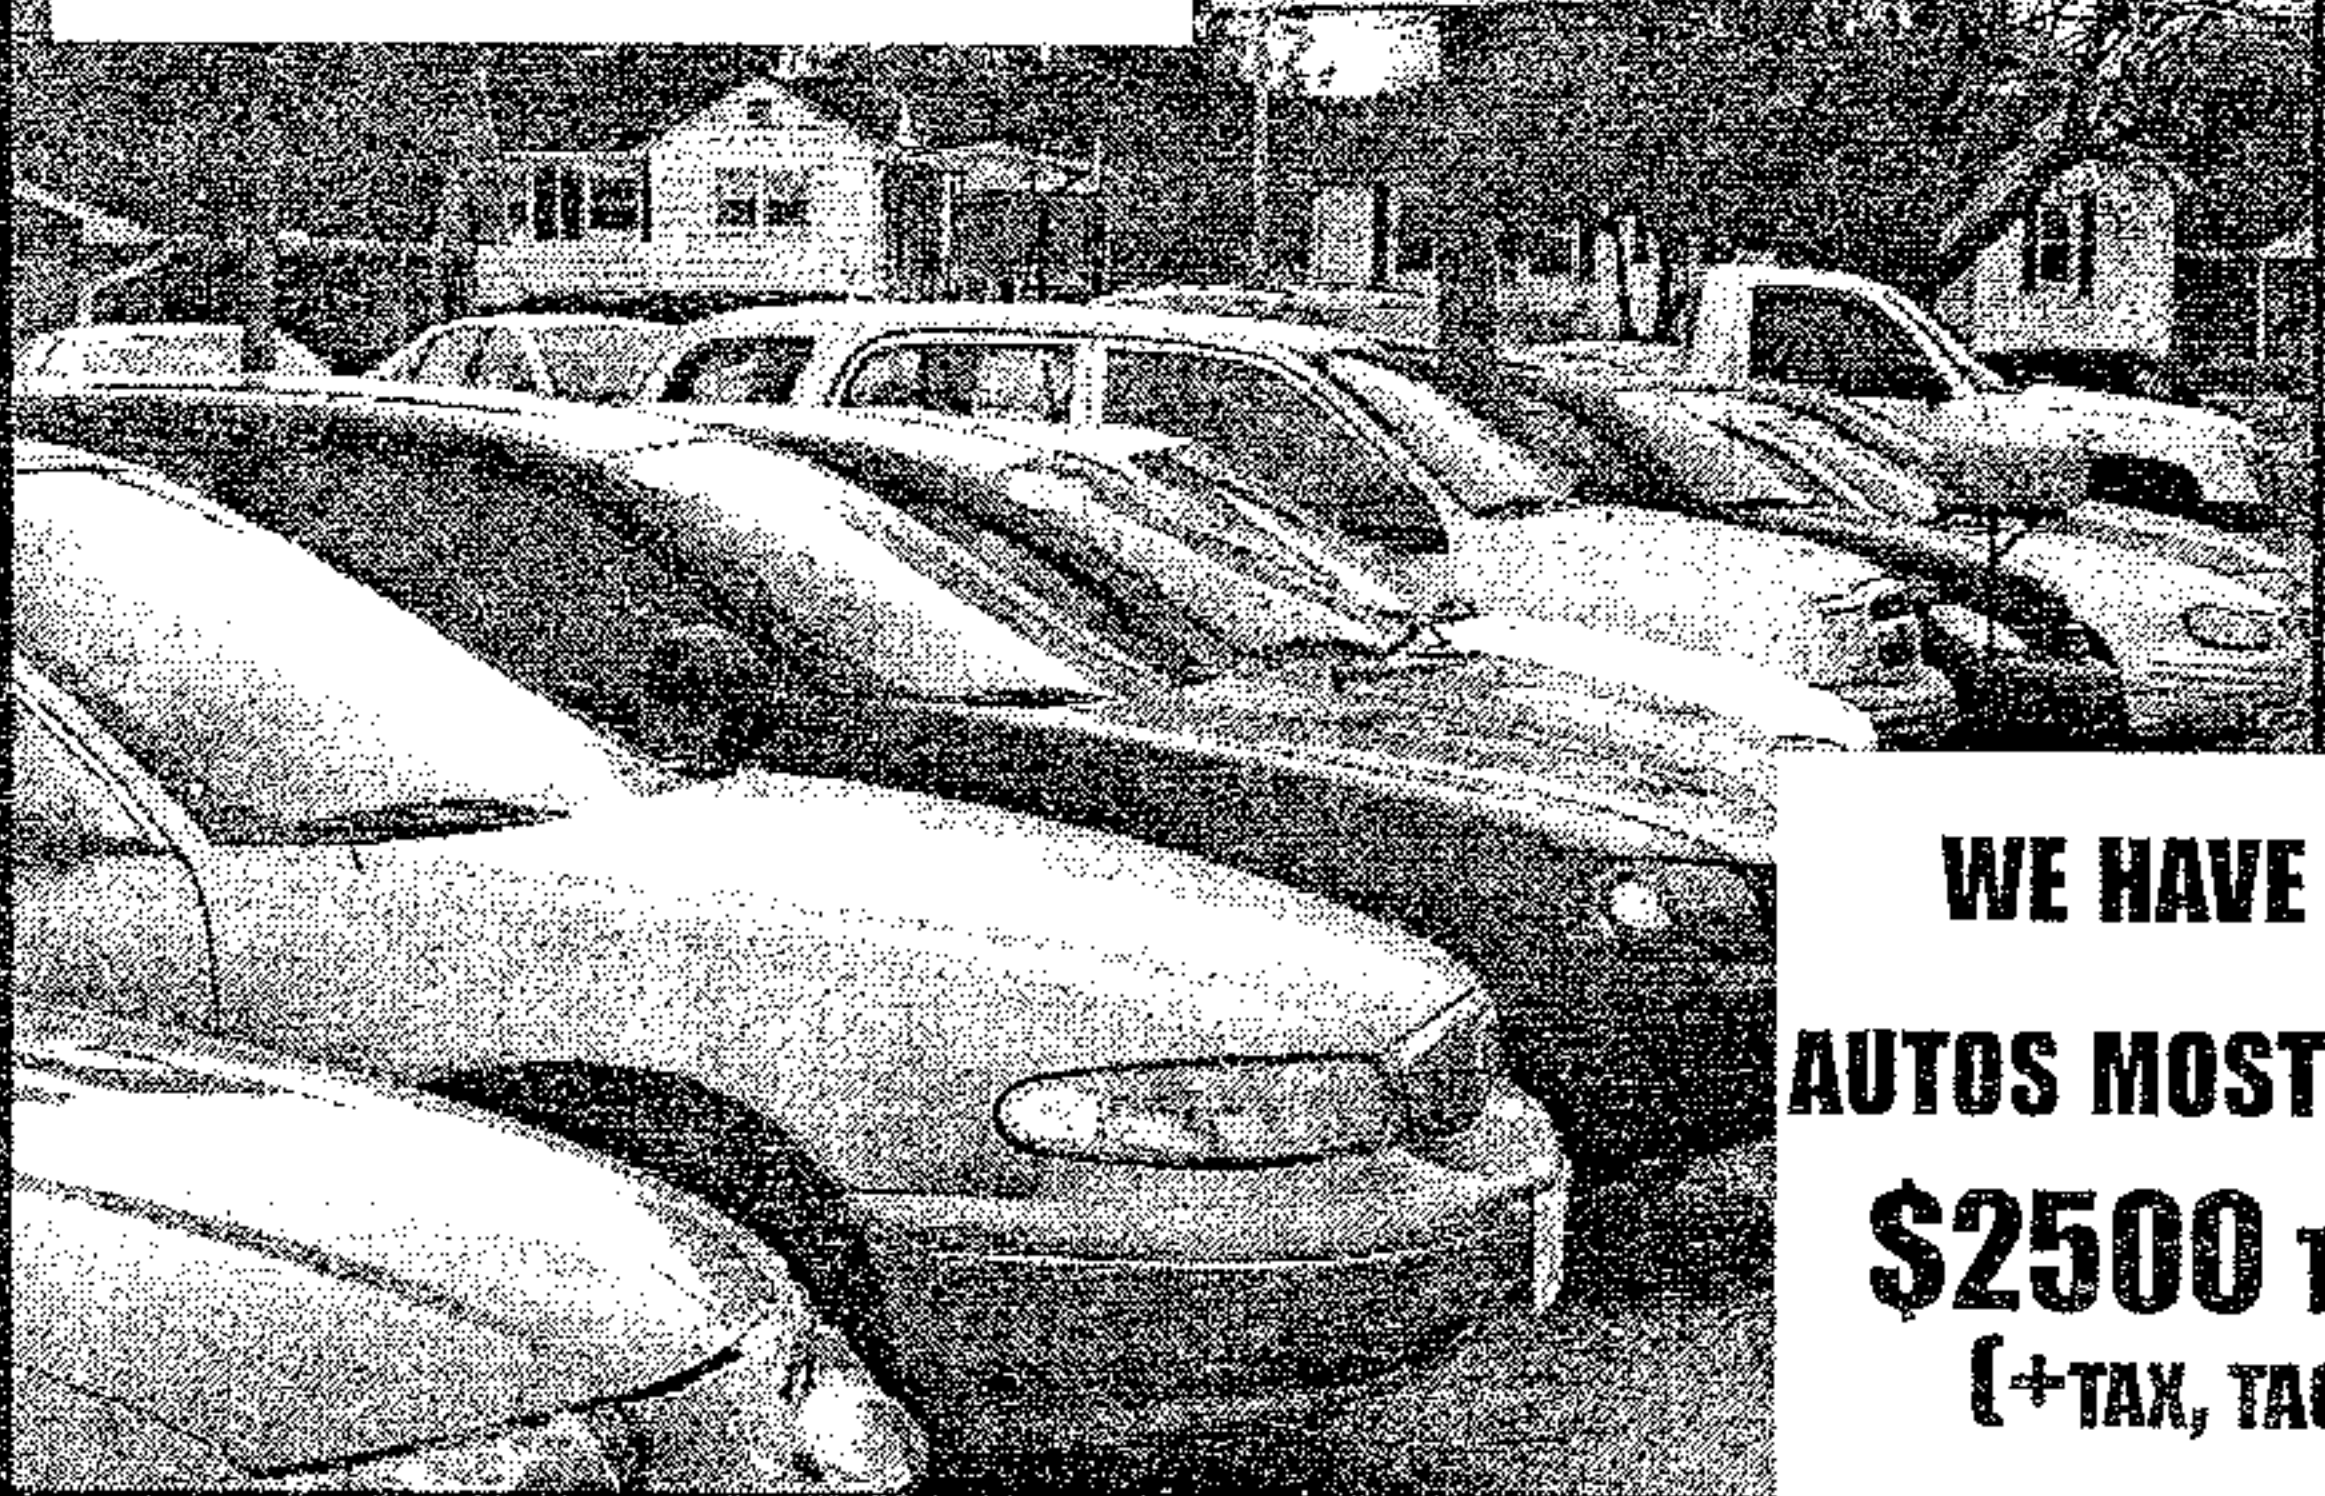

Smallen also had a capias bench warrant for his arrest.

Halloway

phone harassment.

According to affidavits filed by Detective Jonathan Sartin, LCPD; on or about February 14th, 2011, Ms. Halloway and her mother got into an argument at her residence on Kelly Lane. The argument got to a point of Ms. Halloway hitting her mother in the face and head, causing injuries that required the mother to seek treatment at the emergency room.

On or about February 17th, 2011, Ms. Halloway was sending text messages to her mother, calling her names and telling her that she had an order of protection against her.

Halloway reportedly also told her mother she was nothing but trash and there was no reason for her to send her mother those messages except to harass her. Detective Sartin made the arrest Friday.

Passenger

then over, the posted speed limit and found he had cocaine and marijuana in his possession.

Jeffery Laine Whitman, 43, Union Lane, Doerun, Georgia was charged with simple possession of marijuana and simple possession of schedule II cocaine.

According to records, Friday, at approximately 2:15 AM, Deputy Billy Hall, LCSO noticed a white Pontiac going south on Highway 321 across the Fort Loudon Dam.

The vehicle was traveling at a slow rate of speed, well below the posted 40 mph speed limit.

Hall checked the vehicle on radar at 26 mph and followed it for approximately 1/2 mile, then it sped up to 48 mph in a 40 mph zone and he stopped it at JB's Country Store.

As the deputy approached the car he smelled the odor of marijuana emitting from it. He asked the passenger, Jeffery Whitman, if he had any marijuana and he produced approximately 1 gram.

While searching Mr. Whitman, Deputy Hall reported he discovered around 2 grams of cocaine on him along with more pot, approximately 15 to 20 grams. Whitman claimed ownership of both substances and stated it was for personal consumption.

Deputy Hall made the arrest. Sgt. Jerramie Bowen, LCSO was also in attendance.

Police Beat

Patricia Ryan Holman, 28, Simpson Road West, Lenoir City was charged with DUI 1st offense.

According to records, Sunday, at approximately 4:13 AM, Sgt. R.S. Newman, LPD noticed a bronze Pontiac Sunfire cross the center line on Highway 11. The vehicle was traveling south and crossed the center line several times in a short amount of time.

Sgt. Newman stopped the car in front of the CO-OP and identified the driver as Patricia Holman.

Holman had a strong odor of alcohol on her person and when asked to exit the vehicle she nearly fell down. Ms. Holman also did poorly on field sobriety tasks and was arrested for DUI. Ms. Holman was read the implied consent advisement and consented to a blood screen at Fort Loudoun Medical Center. Officer Bennie Houser, LPD was also in attendance.

A fisherman found a black 2008 Nissan Altima when his line got snagged on it.

The car was reported stolen from Knox County on April 18th, 2009, and belonged to Lisa Reagan of Terrace View, Louisville.

It was unknown at the time of the report how long the car was in the water. It was also unknown how much damage was done because it was covered in mud.

The vehicle was pulled out of the water by a local body shop and was taken to their lot with a hold for Knox County.

The case is under investigation.
