Authorities from at least three area agencies have charged a Knoxville man with multiple counts of theft and burglary after he allegedly broke into several homes and stole thousands of dollars worth of jewelry, electronics and other items. Knox County detectives reported finding some of the items at the man's residence, which local victims were able to identify as being taken from their homes.

Ryan Wayne Honeycutt, 32, of Fordham Way, Knoxville, was charged with three counts of theft over $1000 and three counts of aggravated burglary.

According to warrants, filed by Detective Jason Smith, LCSO CID; on March 10, 2009, deputies from the Loudon County Sheriff's Office responded to Point Harbor Drive in Lenoir City in reference to a suspicious person. Upon arrival by the homeowners, they discovered a large amount of jewelry had been taken along with a Sony Bravia Flat Screen TV. Over $1000 in property was taken from the residence of the victims.

On May 4, 2009 Knox County Detective discovered Ryan Wayne Honeycutt to be in possession of jewelry at his residence that was later identified by the victims as theirs.

Items pawned by Mr. Honeycutt, using an assumed identity, were also retrieved by Knox County Detectives and several items identified by the victims belonged to her.

Upon interviewing Mr. Honeycutt, he admitted to committing several burglaries in Loudon County.

In another warrant, filed by Detective Jack Fine, LCPD; On the 29th of April, 2009, sometime between the hours of 7:30am and 6pm Honeycutt forced his way into a home on Highland Circle in Lenoir City, by forcing open the back door entrance to the lower level of the house, breaking the door facing, causing approximately $300 in damage and did take from the victims home a jewelry box containing over $7800 worth of assorted jewelry and did remove from the victims bathroom a bottle of pain medication worth approximately $65, then left the premises.

In another warrant, filed by Detective Jason Smith, LCSO CID; on April 9, 2009 the victim reported her residence on Anglewood Drive had been burglarized. Entry was made by forcing open a rear door. Items taken included a Toshiba laptop, flat screen TV, and a large amount of jewelry.

On May 4, 2009 Knox County found Honeycutt to be in possession of the laptop and many pieces of jewelry.

In an interview Honeycutt did admit to committing several burglaries in Loudon County.

Needle user nabbed

A disturbance call at a Greenback residence Tuesday resulted in the arrest of a Maryville woman after officers found syringes and other drug paraphernalia in her possession.

Jenny Bea Lawson, 30, Carpenters Camp-ground Road, Maryville was charged Tuesday with possession of drug paraphernalia.

The report states, Deputy James Stegall, LCSO responded to Chilhowee Road on a disturbance call involving a woman identified as Jenny Lawson after Lawson went into a residence looking for her girlfriend who wasn't there.

Deputy Stegall was looking over the area when he noticed a Ford Ranger with Ms. Lawson in it pull behind the residence on Chilhowee Road.

When the lawman went to investigate the matter, he found Jenny

Lawson hiding in the trees. He called for her to come out and she started walking away and refused to stop.

When Ms. Lawson did stop, she knelt down and placed something under a vehicle. It was discovered later to be a syringe. Lawson was taken into custody and two more syringes were found in her purse, along with a blue grinder and a spoon used for illegal drug use.

More than eighty prescription pills reportedly were found on a man after he was taken into custody for DUI after police responded to an unwanted guest call in Philadelphia where the man had left prior to their arrival.

Larry Junior Lee, 'aka' Larry Matt Lee, 59, Lovell Road,

Knoxville was charged with DUI 1st offense, driving on revoked license, possession of schedule II endocet, and possession of schedule II oxycodone.

According to reports, Deputy Rondel M. Branam, LCSO was dispatched to a residence on Steekee Road in Loudon Monday, around 1:41 AM, on an unwanted guest call. While enroute, the deputy was advised it had turned into a physical domestic between husband and wife. Dispatch then advised the husband left the residence in a black Ford Explorer traveling towards Philadelphia on Steekee Road and he was intoxicated.

Deputy Branam

made contact with the Explorer turning onto Macedonia Road. It crossed the center line twice and the deputy attempted to stop it in the parking lot of New Macedonia Church. It finally stopped on Seed Tick Road in front of a residence. The driver was identified by his Tennessee ID Card as Larry Junior Lee.

Lee had a strong odor of an alcoholic beverage on his person, red watery eyes, and slurred speech. Mr. Lee also had two pill bottles in his lap when he was stopped. He was asked to do field sobriety tasks and he agreed but performed poorly on them.

A check of Mr. Lee's drivers license through NCIC revealed he was revoked and at that time he was taken into custody.

One of the pill bottles Mr. Lee had in his possession contained 44 white round pills with Watson 932 imprinted on them believed to be 10 mg. oxycodone. The other bottle had 13 yellow oval pills with E797 imprinted on them believed to be 10 mg. endocet and 30 white round pills with Watson 932 imprinted on them believed to be 10 mg. oxycodone.

Neither pill bottle had a prescription for any of the pills contained in them. Mr. Lee was transported to the Loudon County Jail where he was given a breath test. His results were .12%. Lt. Adam Yokley, LCSO was also on the scene.

GOOD NEWS

to watch for folks doing good for others and listen to citizens like yourself who read the first GOOD NEWS article last Monday and shared your personal stories with me.

I do plan to share some of those in the upcoming weeks as I believe we all need a "Heapin Helpin" of positive news in our lives. There are still plenty of good people sharing God's love and caring for each other in our community.

As I pondered this week what to write about, I kept thinking about the church that Angie and I have been attending for the last few weeks. I won't name the church, mainly because I'm not trying to sell you, the reader, on a particular church or religion. I just hope and pray that you go to church somewhere and come to know Jesus as your personal Savior, if you haven't already.

We began to attend this church the first Sunday in January and have witnessed a new Christian being baptized every week. We heard about two young adults being saved during Sunday School this month (very uncommon), and saw another young man accept Christ this past Sunday night.

Now, I don't know about you, but I cannot think of any GOOD NEWS better than souls being saved right here, right now. Yes, Jesus is still in the saving business and if you don't know Him I would love to introduce you.

If you do know Him, are you making any effort to win others to Christ? Remember what He did for us all? I may seem a bit radical but only because this world won't be here forever and I have friends that are lost and I haven't been much of an example in the past, have you? Help me help others.

My wife Angie has created a website to not only share our personal testimonies but to allow each of you to share with us. You can find all recent GOOD NEWS articles, tell us about someone doing great things in your area and even view some of God's great creation through photos taken by a very amateur outdoor photographer.

Please check it out at www.thegoodnews-dailyedition.com or email your GOOD NEWS to me directly at jeffvittatoe@yahoo.com

Please remember that while THE GOOD NEWS articles are honest and true, they are to be read as the opinion of the author and not the Daily Edition. Thank you.
