Rowe

Butler, LCSO was dispatched to Shaw Ferry Lane on a domestic. Upon arrival he entered the residence with the permission of a resident.

The daughter advised her mother, Cynthia Rowe was in her bedroom arguing with her boyfriend, Christopher Herman.

The deputy spoke to Mrs. Rowe behind a locked bedroom door. He asked her to come out and she said she was getting dressed.

Deputy Butler could hear the man as well and asked her to open the door and also asked if she was alone. Rowe stated yes when she exited the room.

Rowe

Christopher Herman fled the residence through an open window in the bedroom. Mrs. Rowe had prior knowledge Herman was wanted and prevented his capture. She was transported to the Loudon County Jail.

Crash

The couple reportedly were not wearing seat belts when the crash occurred.

Flohr reportedly was pregnant at the time of the crash but officials haven't yet counted the fetus as a victim, citing the medical examiner will have to determine whether an additional death resulted from the accident.

It was unknown if alcohol or drugs were involved in the wreck, but tests for both substances were requested for the deceased.

The accident is under investigation.

Police Beat

Chris Lee Cook, 19, Hamilton Avenue, Lenoir City was charged with domestic assault.

According to an affidavit; on Sunday, around 12:15 AM, Officer James Pistole, LPD responded to a residence on Church Street in Loudon in reference to possible underage drinking. As it turned out, there was no underage drinking going on but, a woman at the residence told Officer Pistole her ex-boyfriend, Christopher Cook had just came by the residence and was beating on the door.

She advised she went outside and Chris spit in her face and then went to her vehicle and kicked a big dent in the passenger side door then got in his vehicle and left.

Chris Cook was the complainant on the false 911 call of underage drinking. Officers met with Mr. Cook a couple of hours later and he was arrested for domestic violence assault. Officer Pistole made the arrest at the Marathon in Loudon.

Saw

was dispatched to a theft call Sunday on Hotchkiss Valley Road East. The victim, Darren Clabough stated he noticed a saw was missing out of the bed of his truck, and it belonged to the company he works for.

Clabough said he noticed the saw missing around 5:00 PM that day and contacted his friends, family, and co-workers to see if they had borrowed it, but they all said no.

The saw was described as an orange and black Stihl TS420 Chop Saw with a 14 inch blade valued at approximately $1700. The saw was entered into NCIC.

The theft was turned over to a investigator.
