Do you know this man? LCSO seeks information on man of many "masks"

Loudon County Sheriff Tim Guider and his investigators are asking the public for any information on a Philadelphia, TN man they believe has been running cons and selling weapons, possibly dating as far back as 2005 in this area, whom they have found is a convicted felon whose name and fingerprints did not match in a national database.

Loudon County investigators became in-involved after receiving information that the man was engaged to a woman in Lenoir City and he had sold weapons in the area. Frank Antonio Montana, 52, of Pattie Gap Road in Philadelphia has to date been charged with being a felon in possession of a firearm.

After further investigation, it was discovered that fingerprints on file with the FBI came back showing the name “Frank Cruz”. On record felony arrests include Criminal Sexual Conduct - First Degree Penetration, for which he was found guilty in Minnesota.

Additional information from other states shows several other aliases, warrants, and many other charges, including document fraud and falsely impersonating an officer.

Montana has presented himself to many in the area as an ex-marine, a 9/11 survivor as a firefighter, a law enforcement officer, and a pilot, none of which are true. He was also found to be in possession of a Master’s Degree diploma from Eastern University in Pennsylvania which was confirmed to be forged, as well as false fire training certificates from the states of New York and Tennessee.

Montana was taken into custody on February 24th in Lenoir City at the residence of the fiancée. At the time of the arrest, Montana was given several verbal commands that investigators needed to talk to him about an ongoing investigation. He then kicked a padlocked door open in the basement area and tried to flee, but was apprehended by deputies. He was shown the book-in photo from the Minnesota charges and did admit it was him, but refused to answer any questions. He was taken into custody without further incident.

A 2000 Mercedes found at the residence, which was the vehicle that Mr. Montana had been driving, was registered to a second fiancée in McMinn County. When she was interviewed by investigators, she said that when she met him, Montana told her he had been a Marine for 30 years and had a photo of himself in uniform.

She also told investigators that she had given him over 100 guns and several expensive items of jewelry for safe keeping. She had recently asked him about those items and he told her he had them in a safe place.

On the date he was arrested he had told her he was in Florida working on some business deals. He has allegedly scammed her out of several thousands of dollars in weapons, jewelry, and vehicles, and instead of keeping them “safe” he was actually selling and pawning the items and allegedly selling on Craigslist. His past convictions would not allow him to even possess a firearm and therefore may have violated state and federal laws. To date only one of the weapons has been recovered.

Montana, who has claimed to have been born in Hawaii, is known to have lived in several areas of Florida, New York, New Jersey, Maine, Minnesota, Georgia and Tennessee and has a history in most of those states.

Other aliases found so far are Frankie Cruz, Frank Ernest Cruz, Antonio Francisco Montana, Frank Perez, Frank Anthony Montana, Frank Montana, and Frank Antonio Montana.

Montana also has warrants pending in Roane County on felony theft charges that stem from the investigation. His case is under review by the U.S. Attorney’s Office for possible prosecution.

This investigation is ongoing and more charges may follow. Other charges could include federal firearms charges, theft of property charges, and failure to register as a sex offender.

Anyone that may have additional information on this case is encouraged to contact investigators at 865-988-2306.

Brummette

A Maryville teen was arrested when a narcotics investigation revealed she had over thirty morphine pills for sale in her possession.

Jordan Alexa Brummette, 18, Marina Harbor Drive, Maryville, was charged with possession of schedule II morphine for resale.

Richard Dallan McLeod, 22, Murray Town Road, Cleveland, was charged with failure to appear.

According to records, Agent Brendan DeBoer, 9th Judicial Drug Task Force participated in a narcotics investigation with the Lenoir City Police Department, Wednesday night. A traffic stop was conducted on Highway 321 at the Waffle House on a blue Cadillac, driven by Richard D. McLeod who had outstanding warrants in Lenoir City.

Agent DeBoer spoke with the passenger, Jordan Brummette and when asked, Ms. Brummette told the agent she had numerous morphine pills on her, which she didn't have a prescription for.

Agent DeBoer arrested Ms. Brummette. She was transported to the Loudon County Jail where 32 purple pills tentatively identified as 30 mg. morphine were recovered.

Officer Jeremy Dishner, LCPD arrested Mr. McLeod.

of Jesus Christ with the people you work with? When someone sees you at Wal-Mart is your faith in Christ what they think about as you walk by? OR Do you pray only when something is going wrong in your life? Do you pick up your Bible on Sunday morning for church and then return it to its dusty end table until the following Sunday? Do you only go to Sunday morning services, hoping that the preacher doesn't preach too long and tie up your lunch plans? Do you laugh at the filthy jokes and comments made in your presence while at your job? When someone sees you in town is there a chance they are thinking about an inappropriate relationship you are having or have had?

Trust me, I have been the guy in the latter example. It's easy to tell ourselves that we're doing ok in God's eyes until He shows us how wrong we really are.

There are lost people reading this article today that need to accept Jesus into their lives before it's too late. And when is too late? Do you know? The Bible says that no one knows except God Almighty. This means that today, or tomorrow, could be too late. I would dare say that each of us know folks that are lost. Are you the kind that might invite them to church, at best, and then hope that the preacher can do the rest?

I was too until JESUS CHANGED ME! Now I'm telling you, the person reading this article - Jesus loves you. He wants and expects all Christians to help share the gospel of His love and compel the lost to receive salvation. The clock is ticking!

Jesus told us to GO, make disciples of all nations. The responsibility to spread the gospel falls on YOU and ME. We will stand before God one day and account for our works whether they are good or bad. How many people will God name that YOU led to Christ? How many opportunities will He show you that you chose to shun? We have work to do huh?

Let's get fired up and lay up some treasures in heaven. And by treasures I mean souls that we have led to everlasting life with Jesus Christ, who already paid the price. Will you join me?
