with aggravated burglary, theft over $1000, and violation of probation.

According to affidavits filed by Detective Jack Fine, LCPD; on March 15th, 2011, between the hours of 4:30 AM, and 12:00 PM, Ms. Shubert made entry into the victim's home on West 10th Avenue in Lenoir City by prying open a side door with a pry tool. Shubert removed a 37" Vizio LCD TV, Cannon camera with lens and accessories, Black & Decker cordless swivel drill, Gateway camera, Alfred Hitchcock 15 CD collection, miscellaneous jewelry including a watch, ear rings, and a necklace, two book sets of State Quarters, one Denver Mint, one Philadelphia Mint, an Eisenhower silver dollar, a Susan B. Anthony and a Sacagawea dollar, and assorted foreign money.

The total value of the loss was estimated at $2456.

Deputy Lonnie Gaut, LCSO made the arrest Thursday at the Anderson County Jail.

Verify

Tennessee Department of Commerce and Insurance (TDCI) Commissioner Julie Mix McPeak. "Our department's Board of Accountancy protects the public interest by ensuring that people who claim special competence in accountancy or who offer assurance regarding financial statement presentation have demonstrated their qualifications to do so. The quickest way to verify that is to visit the TDCI license database, verify.tn.gov."

Users who visit verify.tn.gov must type in two random security words before being able to access the database. Once they have access, they can perform searches for names, geographical location and other fields. Users also may search a variety of professions by using a drop-down menu. Verify.tn.gov is also extremely helpful for verifying the license status of home improvement contractors, who also tend to be very active in soliciting business in the spring, particularly after storms.

Tennesseans may contact the Board of Accountancy by calling 888-453-6150 or by e-mailing accountancy.board@tn.gov. The Board for Licensing Contractors may be reached by calling 800-544-7693 or by e-mailing contractors.home-improvement@tn.gov.

Staffers at those boards will be happy to assist in verifying license statuses. Remember: An informed hiring choice is always the best choice.

The Board of Accountancy and the Board for Licensing Contractors are regulatory boards of the Department of Commerce and Insurance, which works to protect consumers while ensuring fair competition for industries and professionals who do business in Tennessee. www.tn.gov/commerce/ with two counts of felony worthless checks.

According to affidavits filed by Detective Jack Fine, LCPD; on February 18th, 2011, James Lamb wrote a worthless check to Loudon County Sportsman, at 107 East Broadway, Lenoir City, in the amount of $467.75 for one .40 caliber Sig Sauer P250 hand gun.

Then on February 21st, 2011, Lamb wrote another worthless check to Loudon County Sportsman for Now Hiring One Stop Market, Highway 11, Philadelphia. Apply In Person - No Phone Calls!

the amount of $953.89 for two more handguns described as a .45 caliber Glock 30 and a KelTech .380 caliber.

Mr. Lamb wrote the worthless checks on a closed account from Green Bank, knowing the account was closed, with the intent to deprive the owner thereof.

Deputy Bob Gray, LCSO transported Lamb Wednesday from the Knox County Jail to the Loudon County Jail where Corporal John Wilson, LCSO took him into custody.

Arrested

been under the influence of narcotics and Agent Brendan DeBoer reported he saw the other throw two syringes in nearby bushes.

Michael Leon 'Mikey' Smallen Jr. 28, East 6th Avenue, Lenoir City, was charged with public intoxication.

Jonathan Russell McGee, 23, McGhee Boulevard, Lenoir City, was charged with possession of drug paraphernalia.

According to reports, Tuesday, at approximately 10:00 PM, Investigator Jason Butler, LCPD-ND observed Michael Smallen stagger onto the road along 6th Avenue while walking toward Kingston Street.

Smallen was extremely unsteady on his feet and appeared to be under the influence of narcotics. He was deemed a danger to himself and others.

At the same time, Investigator Butler came in contact with Jonathan McGee for suspicious activity.

While making contact with McGee, Agent Brendan DeBoer, 9th DTF observed McGee throw two hypodermic needles in a bush near where he was standing.

Investigator Butler had knowledge that McGee commonly uses needles to inject narcotics and also knows McGee to be a user of methamphetamine. McGee advised Agent DeBoer the needles were his.

Both men were arrested and transported to the Loudon County Jail.

Police Beat

Kathy Ann Fox, 40, of Rosedale Avenue, Loudon, was charged with domestic assault.

According to the report, Deputy Brad Rayfield, LCSO was dispatched to Donaldson Road on a possible fight or domestic of some kind involving multiple subjects.

Deputy Rayfield arrived on the scene and found several subjects screaming and yelling out in the driveway of the residence. The officer separated all subjects and told the subjects that had come to the residence to follow the officer to the Philadelphia School so the officer could sort out what had happened.

Deputy Michael Watkins was going to the residence to the other party.

Officer Parks spoke to a female and she advised she and several others had come to her niece's house. The woman reported they had come to talk to another person over family affairs.

Two women had red marks on their faces and necks. Upon investigating for the primary aggressor it was determined to be Kathy Fox for she went to the victims residence.

Deputy Brad Rayfield, LCSO made the arrest.

of a vehicle burglary Wednesday and spoke with Nick Lopez of McCammon Road, Knoxville who advised he was traveling south on Highway 321 near old Greenback School when his 1997 Ford Econoline Van became disabled causing Mr. Lopez to pull over on the shoulder. Lopez said he came to the conclusion, it was probably out of gas, so he decided to lock all the doors and walk the short distance to JB's Country Store. When Mr. Lopez returned to his van, he discovered someone stole several items from inside the vehicle.

Entry was gained by popping the lock on the passenger side door, possibly with a screwdriver or other pry bar type instrument. Mr. Lopez told the deputy he was only gone for about 30 minutes.

The stolen items were described as a HP laptop computer, a Garmin dash mounted GPS with power supply, a Bear compound bow, a Bear cross bow, a new 32" Panasonic flat screen that was still in the box, and a black suitcase containing clothing and miscellaneous papers.

The total value of the loss was estimated at $3350. The investigation is ongoing.

Hawkins reported to Deputy Mike Williams, LCSO she moved from Fox Hunters Road to Fairview Road in Lenoir City Friday and with the permission of the new tenants at the Fox Hunter Road residence, Ms. Hawkins stored personal belongings in an outbuilding garage until she could come and pick it up.

Ms. Hawkins further stated she had help from friends moving her things.

On Sunday, Ms. Hawkins discovered several items missing and upon further investigation she found her things at her friend's son's house. All items were retrieved except a television.

On Wednesday, Hawkins learned through a mutual friend that her television had been sold to someone on Lee Hi Street and he in turn was trying to re-sell it. The estimated value of the television, described as a 42" Samsung flat screen, was $3000. The theft was turned over to an investigator.
