Man endangers public in chase, crashes, runs on foot

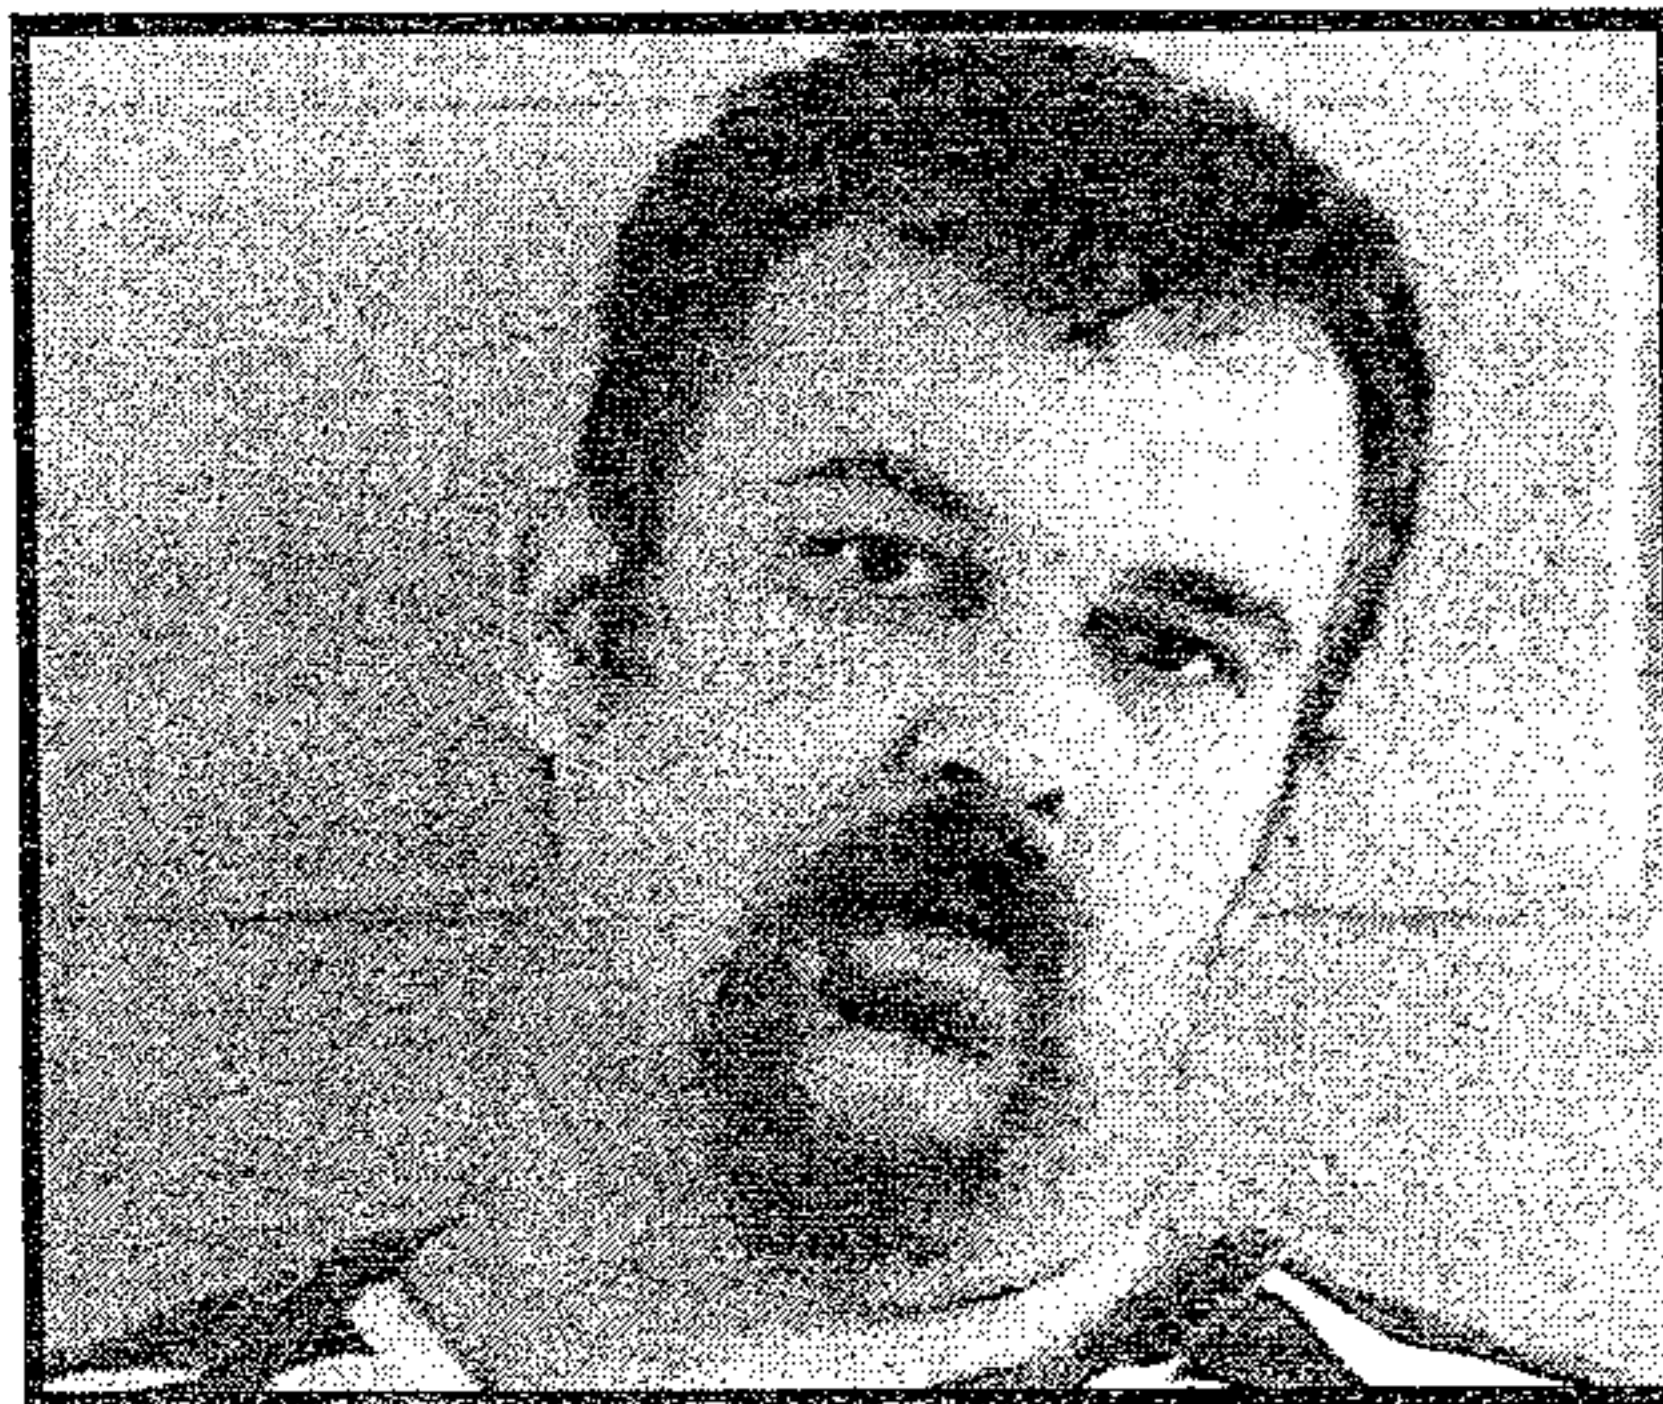

A Philadelphia man is accused of endangering the public by speeding away from police and passing other motorists on the shoulder of I-75 at speeds in excess of 100 mph before he crashed his vehicle, then ran on foot. He was apprehended by fellow officers as he was getting into another vehicle a short time later.

regional office, or on-line at the TWRA website at www.tnwildlife.org. Mailed applications will not be accepted. The application must be received by midnight (CDT) on July 27.

Sportsmen are reminded to read the application form carefully, fill out all requested information, double-check the form, and take it to a license agent where it will be entered into the system. When applying at any TWRA license agent, there is no fee for current Annual Sportsman License holders, Lifetime Sportsman License holders, or seniors possessing a Type 167 permit. For all other applicants, there is a non-refundable $10 permit fee for each drawing entered plus a $1 agent fee.

Hunters may also apply over the Internet at the TWRA website. There is no fee for current Annual Sportsman License holders, Lifetime Sportsman License holders, or seniors possessing a Type 167 permit. All other applicants, in addition to the $2 internet usage fee, will be charged a non-refundable permit fee of $10 per drawing entered. The $2 usage fee is collected by the company that maintains the Internet site. (It is not a fee that is charged by the TWRA.)

TWRA's priority drawing system gives priority points (this year a maximum of 6 points) to hunters based on the number of years they have participated without being drawn for a hunt. Applicants who were successful last year will start over with a priority of zero.

When applying at a license agent, hunters must remain at the location while the application is processed to verify the information, such as hunt codes and their TWRA ID number on their receipt, is correct.

Police Beat

Norman Eugene Hawk, 47, Steekee Creek Road, Loudon was charged with DUI 1st offense, and violation of implied consent.

According to records, Officer Blake Norman, LPD noticed a silver Chevy Tracker 3ker traveling north on Highway 11 Thursday. The vehicle hit the center line several times and crossed it once.

The officer stopped the Tracker at Natlie Way and identified the driver as Norman Hawk.

Hawk had slurred speech and did poorly on field sobriety tasks. Mr. Hawk advised he took pain medication that day. He was read the implied consent form and denied all tests.

large amount of blood on two or three towels covering the back seat.

The female said she removed the wet towels and some type of bag containing ice, and full unopened cans of beer. She stated she put the towels in the corner in room 8 of the Sunrise Inn Motel.

According to her, a friend of hers pulled into the parking lot and was waiting for her to remove tools belonging to Mr. Ellswood from the vehicle. At that time Ellswood began kicking at her and telling her and her friend to "get on" as he had "just killed some people" and they don't want any part of it.

Ellswood moved toward the passenger side of the vehicle and attempted to get in, but the woman locked the doors and left the motel parking lot. According to her statement, she pulled over to take a call from a Monroe County Sheriff's Deputy who was filing the stolen vehicle report and she informed him her vehicle was a crime scene and met him and Loudon County Sheriff's Office personnel at the One Stop Market to file a report.

When officers from Loudon and Monroe Counties arrived on scene, the vehicle was located at the Market and Mr. Ellswood was supposed to be in room 8 of the Sunrise Motel.

Two small spots of blood were located in the vehicle, one spot was on the inside of the passenger side frame, where the door closed and the other was on the passenger door. The blood stains were swabbed and collected as evidence.

Contact was made with Patrick Ellswood after forced entry was made into room 8. Bloody towels were found in the corner of the room and collected as evidence. Mr. Ellswood appeared to have been in an altercation and had visible injuries. Photographs were taken at the motel and vehicle.

A pair of shorts were discovered in the vehicle which contained a note to Mr. Ellswood indicating someone took his money. The note was also collected as evidence.

It was unknown at the time of the report if the blood belonged to Patrick Ellswood or an unknown victim. The case is under investigation.

Police Beat

Brittany N. Sarten, 22, Raven Brook, Knoxville was charged with DUI by alcohol and/or drugs.

The report states, Mrs. Sarten was involved in a crash Monday on Highway 444 in which she was the driver. She admitted to drinking beer and taking several medications.

Mrs. Sarten had watery eyes, slurred speech, a strong odor of an alcoholic beverage about her person and performed poorly on field sobriety tasks.

Two empty alcoholic beverage containers were found in and around Mrs. Sarten's silver Kia and both were cool to the touch.

Mrs. Sarten had a result of .11% on the intox EC/IR-II test.

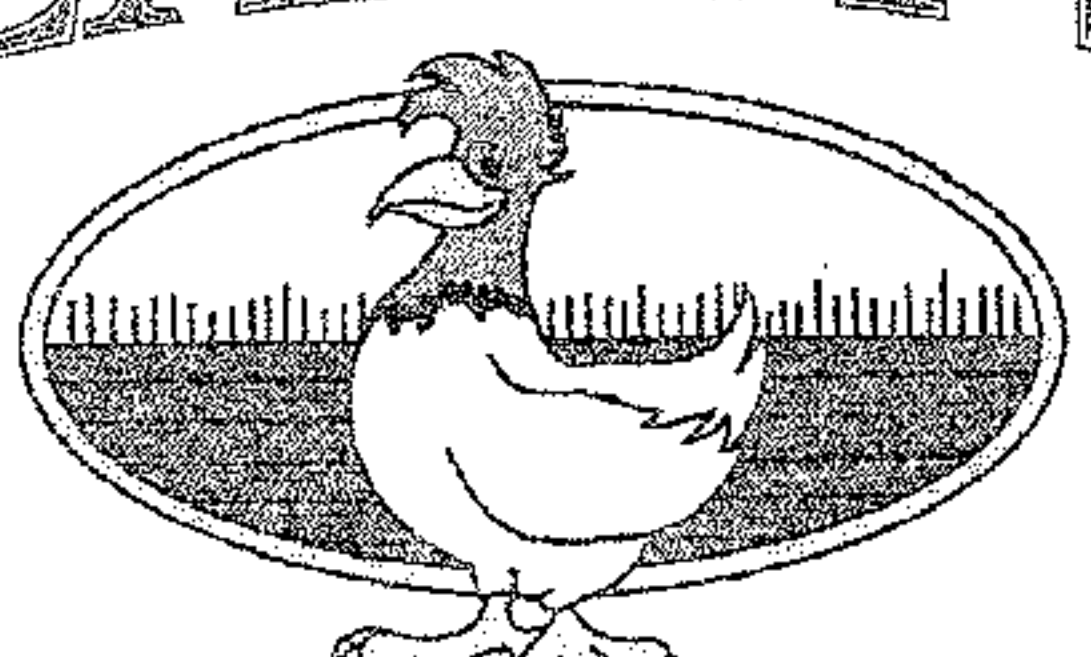

Trooper Kris Underwood, THP made the arrest.

Daniel Charles Watson, 44, Martel Road, Lenoir City was charged with failure to appear.

Deputy Vance Wright, LCSO made the arrest Wednesday at the Knox County Jail.

Smith

Steekee Road, Loudon was charged Wednesday with domestic violence and possession of schedule IV.

According to reports, Officer Brandon Burley, LCPD responded to a domestic violence call at a McGhee Square, Kelly Lane apartment and encountered Brandon L. Smith at the McDonalds on McGhee Boulevard. Mr. Smith told the officer he was in a verbal confrontation with his ex-wife in McGhee Square.

Mrs. Smith wrote a statement advising she was struck in the mouth by Brandon during the confrontation. Upon arrival, Mrs. Smith was bleeding from her mouth.

Mr. Smith was placed under arrest and during a search he was found to have 15 pills believed to be 350 mg. soma, on his person.

Later that day, Officer Brandon Gentry, LCPD was made aware there was an active warrant on Brandon Smith for criminal trespassing.

According to the affidavit, filed by Randy Daugherty, manager of McGhee Square Apartments; on Monday, Brandon Lee Smith received a formal letter notifying him he is no longer allowed on any McGhee Square properties. Mr. Daugherty hand delivered the letter.

Since Monday, Smith has reappeared on the property twice since receiving the no trespass notice.

Officer Gentry went to the Loudon County Jail and served the warrant on Smith.

Police Beat

Jairus Paul Miller, 18, Steekee Creek Road, Loudon was charged with possession of schedule VI, possession of drug paraphernalia and contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

According to records, Friday, around 2:48 AM, Sgt. R.S. Newman, LPD was patrolling the Loudon Elementary School when he noticed a red Pontiac Grand Prix parked in front of a vacant condo on Stone Gate Circle with several individuals inside the vehicle. The sgt. pulled onto Stone Gate and observed the people on the front porch of 125 and Mr. Miller was urinating on the driveway as Sgt. Newman drove up. He approached the subjects and immediately smelled what appeared to be marijuana on them.

The other individuals were all juveniles and one of them had a small amount of marijuana on him. The others were cited and released to parents, charged with the drug free youth act.

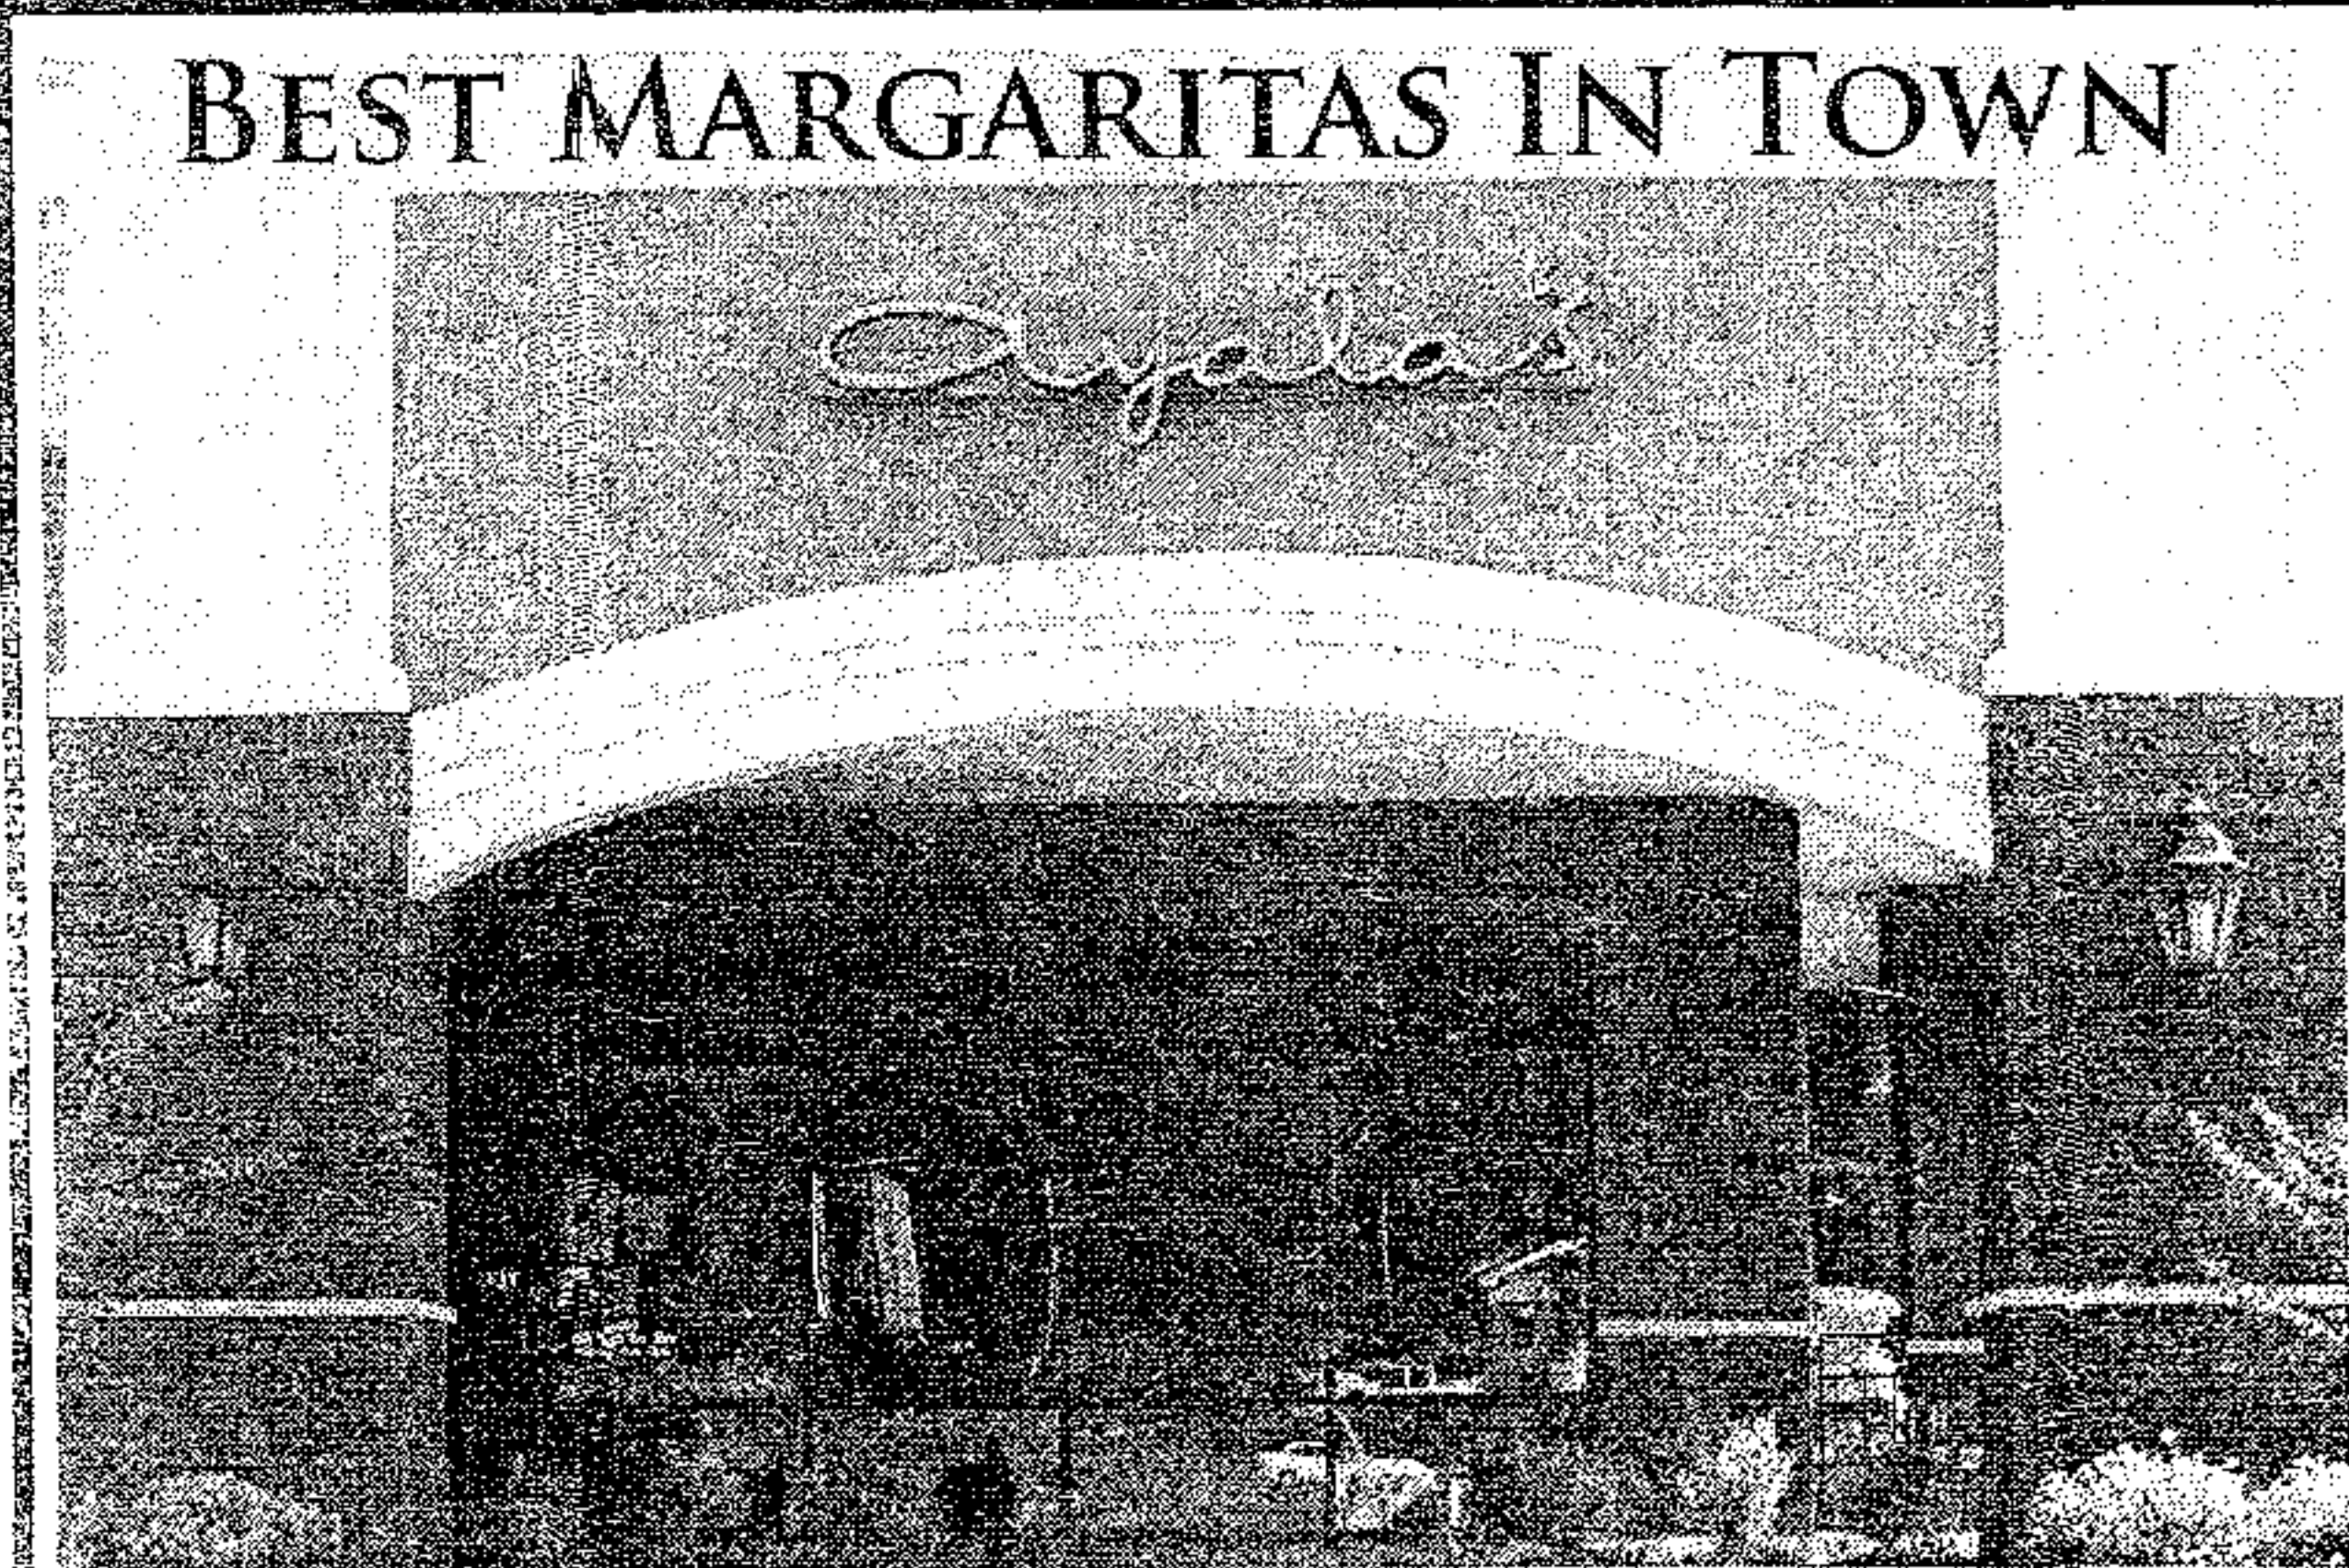

Sgt. Newman asked K-9 handler Deputy Billy Hall, LCSO to come to his location. Deputy Hall deployed his K-9 Draga and advised the sgt. of a positive alert on the red Pontiac belonging to Mr. Miller.

A search of the vehicle turned up small amounts of marijuana scattered throughout. It appeared the occupants had been smoking while in the car, due to the residue throughout the vehicle. A set of small scales was found in the console with marijuana residue on it and appeared to have been used to weigh marijuana.

Mr. Miller is an adult and was taken into custody and duly charged.

Moore

Steven Douglas Moore, 37, Sweetwater Road, Philadelphia was charged Wednesday, with felony evading, reckless endangerment, passing on shoulder, and leaving the scene of an accident.

According to numerous affidavits; on Wednesday, Deputy Craig Brewer, LCSO was dispatched to a possible stolen vehicle on Big Sandy Road in Philadelphia. While en route to the residence, Deputy Brewer saw a white Chevy Monte Carlo SS fitting the description turning onto Interstate 75 northbound at the 72 entrance ramp.

Upon getting behind the vehicle, the deputy activated his emergency equipment and the driver pulled onto the shoulder of the roadway. When Deputy Brewer pulled onto the shoulder of the road behind the Monte Carlo, the driver sped off onto 75 northbound.

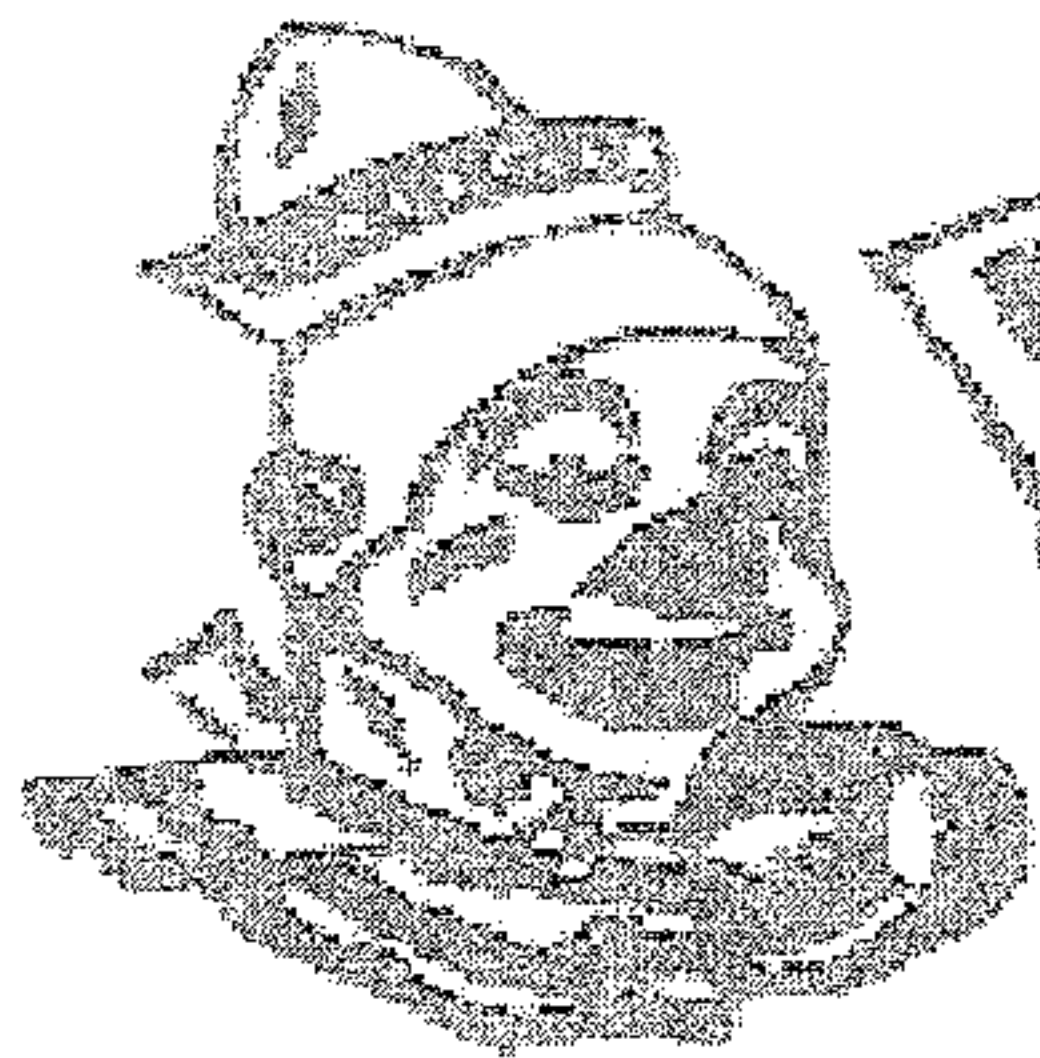

When the deputy continued behind the vehicle the driver went onto the shoulder of the roadway and was passing other vehicles with speeds reaching 120 mph.

The driver continued going north on the interstate passing vehicles on the shoulder and in the median. The vehicle almost collided with other vehicles during the pursuit.

The driver then exited the interstate at the 76 exit and went off the roadway colliding with a tree. The driver exited the Monte Carlo and ran off into the woods. He was located by Officer Brendan DeBoer, LPD coming out of the woods on Sugarwood Road and getting into a green Camaro.

When Deputy Brewer arrived on Sugarwood Road, he was able to identify the driver of the vehicle by his clothing and physical description as Steven Douglas Moore. Moore was taken into custody and transported to the Loudon County Jail.

Flags

Having gathered from local collection points “unserviceable flags” the American Legion Post 256 and Tellico Village Fire Department with members of Scout Troop 354 properly destroyed unserviceable American Flags in an honored tradition prior to Flag Day.

As stated by Legion Post 256 Commander John Allen, “The Second Continental Congress adopted the flag of the United States by resolution on June 14, 1777. It wasn’t until 1916 when President Woodrow Wilson issued a proclamation officially establishing June 14th as Flag Day. Although it is not a federal holiday, it is observed in communities across our great nation.

“Flag Day is about taking time to reflect on our freedoms and the principles of our great nation... for which that flag stands. The flag is a reminder of who we
