I want to share a Bible story of faith with you today that I just read

I took the time to really consider the power represented within it. As you read, imagine if in the Book of Daniel. I have heard this story many times in my life, as many of you may have as well; but today this was the headline on the six o'clock news tonight. Would it have a different effect on you if it had happened today?

Webb
 Affidavit filed by Detective Jack Fine, LCSO; on August 13th, 2011, at approximately 11:45 PM, Mr. Webb was seen exiting Walmart on the general market side and was approached by the Lenoir City Police Department as a suspect of a vandalism.
 Webb had been observed puncturing and flattening the right rear tire of a 2009 GMC Sierra four-door pick-up truck, belonging to Mr. Travis Adams, which was parked unoccupied in the parking lot.

 The total cost of the damage was $250.
 While conducting a stop, halt, and frisk of Webb, officers discovered he had concealed merchandise in his pants, which consisted of two cans of ravioli and four DVDs.

Webb had passed all points of sale without paying for the merchandise. The cost of the merchandise was $62.76.
 Officer Brandon Gentry, LCPD made the arrest Tuesday on City Park Drive.
Police Beat
 Jose Antonio Cisneros, 21, Church Street, Loudon was charged with assault by domestic violence.

 According to records, Officer Jimmy Parks, LPD was dispatched to Church Street in Loudon Sunday for a domestic violence dispute between two brothers. Upon arrival, the officer spoke to the victim who stated he was assaulted by his brother Jose.
 Officer Parks noted in his report, he noticed the victim had a bloody nose.

Jose Cisneros stated he had hit the victim because the victim hit his mother the day before.
 Based upon the physical evidence present at the scene, as well as statements made by the victim and Jose, there was probable cause to believe an assault did take place and Jose Cisneros was the assailant.
 He was transported to the Loudon County Jail.

The Good News

Daniel 3: 13-25 (NKJV)

Then Nebuchadnezzar, in a rage and fury, gave the commandment to bring Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-Nego. So they brought these men before the king. Nebuchadnezzar spoke, saying to them, "Is it true, Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-Nego, that you do not serve my gods or worship the gold image which I have set up? Now if you are ready at the time you hear the sound of the horn, flute, harp, lyre, and psaltery, in symphony with all kinds of music, and you fall down and worship the image which I have made, good! But if you do not worship, you shall be cast immediately into the midst of a burning fiery furnace. And who is the god who will deliver you from my hands?"

Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-Nego answered and said to the king, "O Nebuchadnezzar, we have no need to answer you in this matter. If that is the case, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, and He will deliver us from your hand, O king. But if not, let it be known to you, O king, that we do not serve your gods, nor will we worship the gold image which you have set up."

Then Nebuchadnezzar was full of fury, and the expression on his face changed toward Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-Nego. He spoke and commanded that they heat the furnace seven times more than it was usually heated. And he commanded certain mighty men of valor who were in his army to bind Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-Nego, and cast them into the burning fiery furnace.

Then these men were bound in their coats, trousers, their turbans, and their other garments and were cast into the midst of the burning fiery furnace. Therefore because the king's command was urgent, and the furnace exceedingly hot, the flame of the fire killed those men who took up Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-Nego. And these three men, Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-Nego, fell down bound into the midst of the burning fiery furnace.

Then King Nebuchadnezzar

was astonished; and he rose in haste and spoke, saying to his counselors, "Did we not cast three men bound into the midst of the fire?"

They answered and said to the king, "True, o king."

"Look!" he answered, "I see four men loose, walking in the midst of the fire; and they are not hurt, and the form of the fourth is like the Son of God."

I get cold chills just reading that last part! King Nebuchadnezzar went on to release Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-Nego. When released from the fire, all three men were in perfect health with the hairs of their head not singed and there was no smell of fire on them. Nebuchadnezzar then believed and praised God Almighty after seeing this miracle.

The fact that this account will not be on the news tonight makes it no less true. This is the protective power of our Lord and Savior who was, is and always will be. I hope, as I grow closer to the Lord, that I will always trust Him in all of my dealings and quit sweating the small stuff. Jesus will walk through our valleys with us, just as He did the men in the fiery furnace.

Many people today may not worship golden images but worshipping our sinful lives, our possessions, our status or political image is no different. If we put our trust in Jesus Christ, we too can experience the awesome power of the Lord. I have been forgiven, cleansed and released from the things in my life that stole the happiness and joy that I now experience.

I am far from perfect and I fail Him every day, but I am trying daily to pick up my cross and follow Him. I believe that Jesus will use Angie and I for His glory someday, somewhere. We as Christians must plant seeds of faith and trust that God will see to the harvest in His time and according to His plan.

Thanks for reading and pray for our Montana trip that God will use us in a powerful way to touch at least one life for His glory.

Trailer missing

A local man called authorities Sunday when he returned home from church he discovered someone had stolen his utility trailer.

According to reports, Deputy Chris Bowen, LCSO responded to a trailer theft at a residence on Highway 95 North Monday and spoke with Mr. Carl Ford told the deputy when he returned from church Sunday, between 11:30 AM, and 12:00 PM, he noticed his black 16x7 trailer with an estimated value of $3000 missing from his yard.

Ford advised the last time he saw the trailer was on Saturday night around 7:30 PM.

The case was turned over to a investigator.

Suspended driver "pulls a fast one" - right in front of 5 State Troopers!

A suspended driver is accused of trying to avoid a sobriety checkpoint by cutting across two travel lanes to turn onto another road right in front of a group of Tennessee State Troopers. He was charged with DUI and another traffic violation, however, after the long arm of the law reached out and plucked him from another street about a half mile away.

Timothy B. Farmer, 22, White Wing Road, Lenoir City was charged with DUI 1st offense and driving on suspended license 1st offense.

According to affidavits; on Friday, at approximately 11:00 PM, Trooper Eric Miller, Trooper Chitwood, Trooper Beaty, Trooper Snow, and Sgt. Whitt, THP were conducting a sobriety checkpoint on Highway 70 at Creek Wood Park Boulevard when Mr. Farmer's maroon 2005 Infinity attempted to avoid the checkpoint by crossing both travel lanes and taking Creekwood Boulevard. The vehicle was stopped approximately 1/2 mile from Highway 70 where Mr. Farmer was found to have had an odor of an alcoholic beverage about his person.

Field sobriety tasks were conducted and Farmer had difficulty performing as instructed. A check of his drivers license revealed Farmer's driving privileges were suspended for failure to satisfy a citation.

After placing Mr. Farmer under arrest, implied consent was read and explained and he consented. He was transported to Fort Loudoun Medical Center for a blood draw and then to the Loudon County Jail. Trooper Miller made the arrest.

Police Beat

Michael Randolph Williams, 34, Allen Shore Drive, Lenoir City was charged with an attachment out of Chancery Court.

Corporal Michael Wilson, LCSO made the arrest Friday.

Christopher Dewayne Powers, 23, Powers Loop Road, Oakdale was charged with for failure to appear.

Deputy Vance Wright, LCSO made the arrest at the Roane County Jail Saturday.
