reportedly just stole from Weigels.

Denise Nicole Davis, 'aka' Nikki Davis, 33, Blair Street, Loudon was charged with DUI.

Anthony Ray Henry, 24, Vonore Road, Loudon was charged with theft under $500, and public intoxication.

According to records, Saturday, around

9:30 PM, off-duty Officer Bennie Houser, LPD was in Weigels on Highway 72 and in need of an on-duty officer to assist in an investigation of two suspicious people. He called Officer Martin Ward and upon arrival, Officer Ward observed a woman, Denise N. Davis attempting to locate the keys to her vehicle. She was very unstable on her feet and substantially incoherent.

Davis kept looking through her purse and the front seat of her black Ford Explorer and when the officers asked what she was looking for, she replied she didn't know. The pupils of her eyes were extremely small and didn't respond to light.

The lawmen inquired further, asking what she was taking and she said she'd taken one xanax, which was not prescribed. Later she advised she had maybe taken two xanax, the purple ones, and she took them around 8:00 or 8:15 PM.

Davis was unable to complete field sobriety tasks and was placed under arrest.

During their investigation of Ms. Davis, the officers found Mr. Anthony R. Henry was in possession of three LG Hottips cell phone charger tips, which he did not buy in the Weigels. Officers Houser and Ward asked Weigels employees if Mr. Henry purchased the items and they told them no.

The two lawmen had noticed Henry placing trash in the trash can earlier, and when they checked the can they found the package the items came in from inside Weigels. The value of the charger tips was $14.99.

Mr. Henry was unstable on his feet and had slurred speech. He advised he was on several types of prescribed medication, including xanax and suboxone.

The pair was transported to the Loudon County Jail. Officer Ward made the arrests.

Hooligans

Four Tennessee persons were taken to jail when LPD officers found them under the influence at a local business during the wee hours of the morning Saturday and found they had been drinking while traveling on the interstate. One of the young women reportedly spit of officers, while another had open liquor in her possession. Both the young men in the vehicle were too young to legally drink and one of them is accused of resisting police.

Cassie Marie Bingham, 18, Hanging Rock Road, Harriman was charged with disorderly conduct and two counts of assault on an officer.

Jason Caleb Hall, 18, Foster Road, Harriman was charged with underage consumption and resisting stop, halt, and frisk.

Jennifer Nicole Clemons, 21, Hanging Rock Road, Harriman was charged with public intoxication.

Shane Douglas Parks, 31, Powers Loop Road, Oakdale was charged with public intoxication.

According to reports, Saturday, at approximately 1:39 AM, Officer Bennie Houser, LPD was driving through the Shell parking lot and observed a young man who was very unsteady on his feet. He was identified as Jason C. Hall.

Mr. Hall had a strong odor of an intoxicant about his person and stated he was 18 years old. Officer Houser asked him if he had been drinking and he replied, he'd drank on the F'ing interstate, not where he was now.

As the officer was placing Hall under arrest he started trying to pull away. Officer Houser then put Mr. Hall against the back of the vehicle and placed him into custody.

Around 1:40 AM, Officer Mike Newman, LPD received a call to back up Officer Houser at the Shell on Highway 72 in Loudon.

Officer Houser then made contact with Cassie M. Bingham.

Ms. Bingham was told numerous times to sit down, but she kept getting up and cussing. After placing her in the back seat of the patrol car, Bingham spit on Officer Houser and spit in Officer Newman's face and hair.

A passenger in the Impala, Ms. Jennifer N. Clemons, had a strong odor of an intoxicant about her person and an open bottle of 99 Bananas Liquor in the floor board.

Another passenger, Mr. Shane D. Parks also had a strong odor of an intoxicant about his person and was very unsteady on his feet. Officer Houser felt it was unsafe for Mr. Parks to be left in the public in the shape he was in.

All four persons were transported to the Loudon County Jail and duly charged.

Police Beat

Christopher Ray Cox, 34, West Mill Creek, Pigeon Forge was charged Thursday with driving on revoked 1st offense and DUI 2nd offense.

According to reports, Officer Jason Felts, LCPD received a call from dispatch about a possible drunk driver on Highway 95 in a white Ford Taurus station wagon. The officer made contact with the vehicle at Ivy Avenue and started observing the man's driving.

The vehicle was varying in speed and all over the road. Officer Felts conducted a traffic stop at Marty's Auto Service and identified the driver as Christopher R. Cox.

Cox had slurred speech and glassy eyes and was unsuccessful in his attempt at field sobriety. A check of Mr. Cox's name and date of birth revealed his license are revoked.

Cox was taken into custody and transported to the Fort Loudoun ER where he consented to a blood test before being transported to the jail.

Rudy Elias Stricker, 29, Browder Hollow Road, Lenoir City was charged with failure to appear.

Corporal Angi Martin, LCSO served the warrant Thursday while Mr. Stricker was incarcerated at the jail.

Games

was postponed from August 29th to September 1st. Competitors had arrived from all over the United States and also Belgium, Germany, and Canada, with about forty (40) K-9 teams competing in different aspects of the event.

Due to the postponement, Loudon County Officers Cpl. Michael Watkins and K-9 Denero, and Deputy Chris Jenkins and K-9 Diego were unable to stay and compete, but Loudon County Sheriff's Office Lt. Paul Curtis with K-9 Deacon, and Sgt. Suarez with K-9 Rush, stayed to compete in every event that included obedience, agility, search and protection, doing well in all of their events.

Both the K-9's and their handlers came home proud, with Deacon earning a Gold medal and Rush earning a Silver medal in agility, and Deacon and Rush tying for a Gold Medal in obedience.

Along with it being a great experience for the officers to be in New York City just before the 10th Anniversary of 9/11, the officers with NYPD also showed tremendous hospitality, even while enduring the effects of Irene.

The K-9 unit is very grateful to everyone that made it possible for them to attend these games, including Lakeview K9 Academy, Ya-Yas Cupcakery, Family Brands, Lenoir City Ford, Lenoir City Animal Clinic, Marty's Auto Sales, Broadway Flower Shop, Anderson County Animal Hospital, Food City, Tractor Supply and hundreds of people throughout the community that purchased t-shirts and donated money.

All of the results can be seen at www.wpfg.com Go to results page and select "Police Service Dog" as the sport at the top right corner of the results page.

Police Beat

Kyle William Robinson, 27, homeless was charged with possession of paraphernalia, and possession of schedule IV tramadol.

According to affidavits; on Friday, Officer Brandon L. Burley, LCPD approached a suspicious person, Kyle William Robinson, at Walgreens on Highway 321 North in Lenoir City. After making contact with Mr. Robinson it was discovered he was wanted out of Blount County on a theft warrant.

After placing Robinson

under arrest, Officer Burley advised him of his Miranda Rights which he waived.

LCPD Officers Burley, Brown, and Felts, searched Robinson's vehicle and found 4.5 pills of tramadol hydrochloride in the front between the driver and passenger seats with Robinson's wallet, one spoon, and one hypo-dermic syringe. Mr. Robinson was taken into custody and transported to the Loudon County Jail where he had a hold for Blount County placed on him.
