Flannagan

J. Robbi Flannagan, 58, Confederacy Way, Concord was charged Saturday with DUI 1st offense.

According to an affidavit; Trooper John R. Carr, THP was called to a crash scene on Highway 70 at Wilkerson Lane. On arrival, he made contact with Ms. Flannagan, who was driving a Kia Sportage and was involved in the accident that sent the other driver to Park-west Medical Center for her injuries.

Ms. Flannagan had bloodshot eyes, slurred speech, her breath smelled like beer, and she was unsteady on her feet. She admitted she had been drinking throughout the day at the boat dock.

Ms. Flannagan did poorly on field sobriety and was arrested. She was transported to Fort Loudoun Medical Center for a forced blood draw and then onto the jail.

Police Beat

Adan Salizar, 38, West Fifth Avenue, Lenoir City was charged with domestic violence.

According to reports, Officer B. Brown, LCPD was dispatched to a residence on Fifth Avenue Sunday for a domestic disturbance. Upon arrival, the officer talked with the victim and a witness.

They stated Adan Salizar was intoxicated and still inside the residence. Officer Brown entered the house and found Salizar sitting at the kitchen table with a firearm beside him, on the table. The firearm was retrieved and Salizar was detained momentarily for officer safety.

Salizar's girlfriend stated he came home from a friend's house, heavily intoxicated. One of her friends came over and he became very aggressive. Her friend left and another friend, a second victim, came over and Salizar became violent.

Salizar threw a beer can at his girlfriend, who lives with him, then the two women got into a car and he came outside and began beating on the passenger door where his girlfriend sat.

Salizar also threw his work glasses at the driver through the open driver's window and it struck her in the chest.

The women left and called dispatch. Mr. Salizar was placed under arrest and duly charged.

Doctor Peggy (Giffin) Savage McWilliams, age 74, born November 5th 1936 went to be with her Lord on September 17, 2011, at 2:16 am at the University of Tennessee Medical Center. She was the beloved wife of Doctor Ronald O. McWilliams and the only child born to Bill and Juanita Giffin who preceded her in death when she was in her teen years. Peggy grew up in South Knox County where she attended Galbreath grammar school and was graduated from Young High School in 1954. She also graduated from the University of Tennessee with her Baccalaureate in Nursing in 1957, and continued on to obtain her Master's Degree with highest honors. In 1980, Peggy earned Doctoral Degrees in Nursing and Health Care Administration from Columbia Pacific University. Peggy spent 40 years in long-term care administration teaching others to care for the frail and elderly with loving dignity and respect, especially those with Alzheimer's disease. During her entire career, she was active in the Tennessee Health Care Association and the America Heath Care Association and held many offices in both associations through her home base facilities of Hillcrest of Knoxville, Baptist Heath Care Center of Lenoir City, Colonial Hills of Maryville, and Williamsburg Villas of Knoxville. She traveled the world taking the message of her profession to those who were seeking knowledge to render appropriate care to the demented elderly. She retired in 1997 and returned to live out her life in Loudon County. Peggy will be lovingly missed by her husband Ron, and by her daughter Anita Lucinda (Cindy) Wilmoth and husband Ken; her son Patrick Wilson and wife Jeanne. She is also survived by her beloved grandchildren Christina Wilmoth Myers and husband Jason; Amanda Wilmoth Gerhardt and husband Bo; Erica Wilmoth Lombardo and husband Kyle; Connor Wilson and Grant Wilson. By great grandchildren Kenslie Myers, Jaycie Myers, Baylie Myers, Hunter Gerhardt, Lee-Ann Gerhardt, and Keira Allen. Peggy is also survived by Ron's children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren. Peggy was a member of the Christian Church of Loudon County; 12210 Martel Road, Lenoir City. There will be a memorial service for friends and family on Wednesday, September 21st, 2011 at 7:00 in the evening at the Christian Church. A reception will follow the service in the church fellowship hall. In lieu of flowers the family requests that you make a memorial gift to Baptist Health Care Center of Lenoir City. Click Funeral Home, Lenoir City is in charge of arrangements.

Games console, along with controllers and several games from her residence on Hines Valley Road without her consent. The items were valued at more than $500 but less than $1000.

Mr. Richard Glandon reported someone took his Toro push lawn mower from the same residence on Hines Valley Road and he hadn't given anyone permission to do so.

During a subsequent investigation, Sheila Newcomb's items were identified as being sold at Executive Jewelry and Pawn, 785 Highway 321, Lenoir City and the person who sold the items was identified as Robert A. Newcomb, who is a relative of the victim and had access to the residence.

Mr. Glandon's lawn mower was also identified as being sold at Executive Jewelry and Pawn and the person who sold the lawn mower was identified as Monica Murphy, who is known by Mr. Glandon. The value of the mower was less than $500. Deputy T.J. Scarbrough, LCSO made the arrests Friday.

Trailer
 home that evening the trailer was gone.

The trailer was described as a black 5'x8' with a drop gate on the back made by the Lone Wolf Trailer Company with an estimated value of $800.

The theft was turned over to a investigator.

Wednesday selecting and concealing numerous baby items including bottles, pacifiers, a pack-n-play, and some clothes.

Lewis paid for some of the items before passing all points of sale, but she reportedly didn't pay for the concealed items, which totaled $129.54.

Officer Brandon Gentry, LCPD made the arrest.

Glatz

Nick Lloyd Glatz, 30, Red Lead Way, Knoxville was charged with DUI.

According to records, Friday, around 3:00 AM, Deputy Robbie Lane, LCSO responded to the area of Martel and Beals Chapel Road in reference to a man going door to door, ringing doorbells and knocking on doors.

The deputy noticed a tan Honda sitting in the middle of the road with no one around it. He then came in contact with Mr. Glatz who was walking down the road towards the car.

Mr. Glatz had red watery eyes, slurred speech and was unsteady on his feet. He told the deputy he was driving and ran out of gas.

When asked for identification, Mr. Glatz handed Deputy Lane a bank ATM card.

Glatz did poorly on all field sobriety tasks and was placed under arrest. Deputy Lane read the implied consent advisement and

Mr. Glatz agreed to a breath test. His test result was .12%.

Deputy Cody Fritts, LCSO was also on scene.

Police Beat

Christopher Alan Miller, 48, West Seventh Avenue, Lenoir City was charged with public intoxication.

Patricia Darlene Best, 38, also of West Seventh Avenue, Lenoir City was charged with public intoxication.

According to reports, Thursday, around 8:23 PM, Officer Brandon Gentry, LCPD, was dispatched to Ingles in reference to a intoxicated person. Upon arrival, the officer spoke with one of the employees who stated a man and woman were arguing in the parking lot and then started walking toward McGhee Square.

Officer Gentry located the man sitting on the side of the road. He was identified as Christopher A. Miller.

Mr. Miller had an odor of an alcoholic beverage on his person and his speech was slurred. He was placed under arrest.

Around 8:33 PM, Officer Jason Felts, LCPD came in contact with Ms. Best while she was walking on the sidewalk at Ingles.

Best advised she'd drank ten beers that night.

Ms. Best was very unsteady on her feet and her speech was extremely slurred. She was taken into custody for her own safety as well as the safety of the public.

Student

Anthony Wyatt 'Tony' Roach, 18, Cal-loway Road, Loudon was charged with il-legal consumption of alcohol.

According to reports, Friday, at ap-proximately 12:15 PM, School Resource Officer Kent Russell, LPD was advised by the vice principal of a possible intoxicated student.

The vice principal reported other stu-dents advised him that Anthony Roach had been drinking.

Upon approaching Mr. Roach with the principal, Officer Rus-sell smelled the odor of an alcoholic beverage emitting from Roach's person.

Mr. Roach admitted to drinking a margar-ita before coming to school. He was admin-istered an intoxicilizer test in which he reg-istered between .06% and .08%.

Police Beat

Amy Michelle White, 23, Old High-way 68, Sweetwater was charged with public intoxication.

The report states, Deputy Cody Fritts,

LCSO was dispatched to a unwanted guest at a residence on Chris-tian Street in Phila-delphia Wednesday night.

Upon arrival, the deputy walked around the back of the house and Mrs. Amy White started running from him. He chased and caught her running down Christian Street.

Mrs. White had a very strong odor of alcohol about her and she was sluggish with her speech.

Deputy Fritts felt Mrs. White was a dan-ger to the public and a danger to herself and placed her under ar-rest.

Taylor

Shannon K. Taylor, 31, Disney Lane, Caryville was charged with DUI and implied consent.

According to reports, Mr. Taylor was the driver of a green Volkswagen that caught fire on Interstate 75 around the 82 mile marker. While taking a report for the damaged vehicle, Trooper Russell Smith, THP noticed Mr. Taylor had slightly slurred speech and swayed back and forth continuously.

Taylor was asked to perform multiple field sobriety tasks and was unable to perform as instructed. He seemed confused at times and was unsteady on his feet.

Mr. Taylor was offered a blood test at Fort Loudoun Medical Center and refused. During the booking process at the jail, he could barely keep his eyes open. Mr. Taylor fell asleep and knocked a drink over at the booking counter.
