Suspected weed salesman nabbed

A man whom authorities believed was selling marijuana to people under the age of eighteen was taken into custody after agents from the 9th DTF and LCPD officers executed a search warrant at his home and reportedly found marijuana and materials used to package it.

Aaron Jerry "Gotti" Grizzle, 30, Mincey

Street, Lenoir City was charged with possession of schedule VI for resale.

According to an affidavit filed by Agent Brendan DeBoer, 9th DTF; agents from the 9th Drug Task Force and Officers of the Lenoir City Police Department conducted a search warrant Wednesday, at 426 Church Drive, the residence of Aaron Grizzle. During a search of the residence, a substantial amount of suspected marijuana was found in a bathroom drawer along with packaging material and a digital scale.

ber, then stopped them when the tag came back to a different vehicle.

Justin Ian Kohnke, 30, McDaniel Lane, Lenoir City was charged with driving on suspended, registration violation and no financial responsibility.

Michael Dyllan Green, 25, Monroe Circle, Madisonville was charged with violation of probation.

According to records, Wednesday, around 6:06 PM, while on routine patrol, Deputy Brad Rayfield, LCSO noticed the driver of a green Dodge Dakota pickup acting suspiciously on Steekee Road.

The deputy ran the truck's tag and it came back to a yellow Volkswagen. He stopped it for the registration violation at Steekee and Highway 72. The driver was identified as Justin Kohnke.

A check of Kohnke's driver's license came back suspended. Mr. Kohnke was taken into custody.

Kohnke's passenger, Michael Green, was found to have a violation of probation warrant for his arrest and was also taken into custody.

Mr. Grizzle was believed to have been selling a large amount of marijuana with some of the sales being made to kids under the age of 18. Agent DeBoer made the arrest Thursday.

Stolen items found when child picked up

When officials took a Kingston woman into custody for shoplifting at Walmart, additional stolen items reportedly were recovered when her child was picked up, even though more than $80 worth of merchandise had already been recovered at the time of the woman's apprehension.

Alicia June Bullock, 29, Hamilton Road,

Kingston was charged with two counts of theft under $500.

According to reports, Walmart Asset Protection personnel advised Officer Felts, LCPD Alicia Bullock was observed concealing items in her purse two different times Monday.

Bullock reportedly was inside Walmart selecting various items and concealing them in her purse. All the merchandise, totaling $82.45, was given back after she passed all points of sale.

Records indicate Mrs. Bullock had her nine year old daughter with her and when the child was picked up, more items were discovered that Mrs. Bullock had concealed for an additional total of $24.42.

Officer Felts made the arrest.

Huffing stolen aerosol in public is bad idea for buddies

Two young Lenoir City men reported to Officer Brad Brown they had stolen the cans of aerosol found in their possession when a caller reported a group of young people appeared to be huffing paint and the lawman found they had several of the cans up their sleeves.

Anthony Pringle Satterfield, 18, West Fifth Avenue, Lenoir City and William Elia Jacob 'E.J.' Smallen, 22, East Sixth Avenue, Lenoir City were charged with theft under $500.

According to records, Saturday, around 2:33 PM, Officer Brad Brown, LCPD was dispatched to the area of Walmart and Highway 321 to check on four young people who appeared to be huffing paint. Upon arrival, the officer made contact with Satterfield and Smallen. They each had two cans of Dust Off "dust free spray" up their sleeves.

Mr. Satterfield and Mr. Smallen advised they had stolen the cans from Walmart.

The officer reported Satterfield had $2.88 worth and Smallen had five cans totaling $24.80 of "canned air."

Officer Brown took the pair into custody and transported them to jail.
