Thank You

"Thank You" to all those who voted for me in the race for Lenoir City Council. Your encouragement and support, and all the smiles and waves and thumbs up as you drove by us were so much appreciated and will never be forgotten.

Your votes have sent a message that the majority of the people who voted in the 2012 election voted for changes in the hiring practices in our City/Utilities District and in the Council/Board's responsibility to be open and transparent in carrying out their responsibilities. (There were 2,640 people who voted in the City election. We received 192 fewer votes than the most successful incumbent. We failed to win a seat by only 42 votes.)

I hope when our re-elected Councilmen take their Oath of Office for their next four years of service to the community, they will take seriously the words of that Oath and realize they become individually responsible to perform their duties "without fear or FAVOR."

It is time they realize their sworn obligation:

- 1) to the citizens who have a right to be fairly considered for City and LCUB jobs according to merit. (The jobs do not belong to the City Council/LCUB Board members and are NOT their jobs to give away!);
- 2) to the employees of the City and LCUB who deserve to have the best and most qualified workers hired to help get the job done; and
- 3) to the customers who depend on these employees to provide professional and knowledgeable service when we call or come in to do business.

Welch

Monday, officer Brown responded to Welch's residence on a domestic call and upon arrival spoke to a woman who said her step-daughter, Welch, had assailed her during an argument over a pack of cigarettes.

Records indicate the elder woman had a large knot on her forehead and another under her left eye, and she advised she had grabbed Welch's hair to push her away. The two women rolled around on the floor until she was able to push Welch out the front door and lock it.

After being locked out, Welch, who had a red mark on her shoulder that appeared to be a defensive mark, allegedly kicked a mirror on the front deck, shattering it.

The officer reported he determined Welch was the primary aggressor based on statements and the injuries the pair sustained in the scuffle and he placed her under arrest and transported her to jail.
