Dead Man's Gun Misplaced

On September 10, 2012 my little and only brother lost his life to a gun shot wound to the chest.

Before or after his death he rolled up money with a rubber band around it in his left pocket was misplaced. He also had a small .22 pistol, one of two he owned, which was misplaced from his right pocket. His pistol could have been traded or sold on September 10th or shortly after.

I would like to pay the person that may have it $200 to get it back. No questions asked. I don't want to know your name or how you got it. I would like to have it back cleaned of all fingerprints unloaded with the bullets in a bag.

Also, I do not have a Private Investigator following anyone. I have already told all what the Lord has told me from day one. There is nothing which has been concealed which will not be revealed and no secret which will not be known.

In other words, you can hide your secrets from people for a little while, but God sees All and He will bring it in to the light for all to see.

From June to August Ronnie Jaynes actions were a repeat of almost 14 years ago. The same as then, he may have told his friends that if he died in a certain way and it looked like an accident not to believe it. If he has told any of his friends something like that within the last three months of his life Please Call his oldest sister Tammy at 865-986-6018. If you have the pistol please call the same number. It was part of my brother for many years and I would like to have it back.

On a final note, my brother Ronnie had a heart like our mother. He loved his family and his friends. He would go a step farther and tell us he liked us with a smile and we all loved him more than he knew.

Thank You from Big Sister of Ronnie Ray Jaynes, Tammy. Please call if you have any information 865-986-6018.

Graveside services were Sunday morning at Lakeview Cemetery. Memorial contributions may be made to First Baptist Church Building Fund or the Lenoir City Sports Hall of Fame. Click Funeral Home Lenoir City handled arrangements.

Results

This campaign was a coordinated effort by the THP, the Governor's Highway Safety Office (GHSO), local district attorneys, and various local and state law enforcement agencies.

The "No Refusal" law allows law enforcement officials to seek search warrants for blood samples in cases involving suspected impaired drivers. The goal is to deter impaired driving and reduce fatal crashes on Tennessee roadways.

The "No Refusal" enforcement began at 6 p.m., Wednesday, November 21 and ended at midnight, Sunday, November 25. This special DUI enforcement was effective in selected counties: Monroe and Sevier (Knoxville District); Franklin and Grundy (Chattanooga District); Davidson and Sumner (Nashville District); Shelby and Fayette (Memphis District); Cocke and Washington (Fall Branch District); Clay and Putnam (Cookeville District); Lawrence and Maury (Lawrenceburg District); and Chester and Weakley (Jackson District).

Overall, 78 individuals were arrested on suspicion of driving under the influence.

Preliminary reports also indicate that six people were killed in six fatal crashes during the 2012 Thanksgiving holiday period, compared to nine vehicular fatalities during last year's holiday period. Three of the vehicle occupants were not wearing seat belts. Also, three of the fatalities occurred in alcohol-related crashes, including one in Maury County, a "No Refusal" participant.

The results for the "No Refusal" Tennessee Highway Patrol enforcement effort in each of the 16 counties include:

Monroe County-DUI arrests: 1, Refusal to take BAC test/Search warrants obtained for blood samples: 0; Sevier County-DUI arrests: 1, Refusal to take BAC test/Search warrants obtained for blood samples: 1; Franklin County-DUI Arrests: 9, Refusal to take BAC test/Search warrants obtained for blood samples: 1; Grundy County-DUI Arrests: 4, Refusal to take BAC test/Search warrants obtained for blood samples: 1; Davidson County-DUI

Arrests: 8, Refusal to take BAC test/Search warrants obtained for blood samples: 1; Sumner County-DUI Arrests: 4, Refusal to take BAC test/Search warrants obtained for blood samples: 1; Fayette County-DUI Arrests: 2, Refusal to take BAC test/Search warrants obtained for blood samples: 0; Shelby County-DUI Arrests: 5, Refusal to take BAC test/Search warrants obtained for blood samples: 1; Cocke County-DUI Arrests: 12, Refusal to take BAC test/Search warrants obtained for blood samples: 0; Washington County-DUI Arrests: 17, Refusal to take BAC test/Search warrants obtained for blood samples: 0; Clay County-DUI Arrests: 1, Refusal to take BAC test/Search warrants obtained for blood samples: 0; Putnam County-DUI Arrests: 3, Refusal to take BAC test/Search warrants obtained for blood samples: 0; Lawrence County-DUI Arrests: 3, Refusal to take BAC test/Search warrants obtained for blood samples: 0; Maury County-DUI Arrests: 8, Refusal to take BAC test/Search warrants obtained for blood samples: 0; Chester County-DUI Arrests: 0, Refusal to take BAC test/Search warrants obtained for blood samples: 0; Weakley County-DUI Arrests: 0, Refusal to take BAC test/Search warrants obtained for blood samples: 0.

was a multiple vehicle crash. Three of the fatalities (50%) occurred in alcohol-related crashes. All six of the people killed were vehicle occupants. Three of the occupants killed were not wearing seat belts (50%).

No pedestrians were killed. No motorcyclists were killed.

The highest death rate was in 1966, when 34 people were killed in Tennessee traffic crashes during the 102-hour Thanksgiving holiday period, yielding a fatality rate of one death per 3.0 hours.

The lowest death rate was in 1983, when seven people were killed in Tennessee traffic crashes during the 102-hour Thanksgiving holiday period, yielding a fatality rate of one death per 14.6 hours.

If the 2012 preliminary total holds, it will be the lowest on record.

Police Beat

Chad Price Dugan, 18, of Trigon Road, Greenback, was charged with domestic assault.

According to the report, Deputy Chris Hutchens, LCSO was dispatched to a 911 call that sounded like a domestic. Upon arrival the deputy spoke with Chad and the victim.

The victim informed the deputy they had been arguing and she tried to leave when the argument became physical. Dugan tried to prevent the victim from leaving as well as slamming her against the wall, choking her and striking her.

The victim did have what appeared to be the beginning of a black eye and scratches on her neck.

The victim's toddler son was also present and reportedly jumped on Mr. Dugan's back and Dugan raised his hand like he was going to strike the boy. Deputy Chris Hutchens, LCSO made the arrest.

Dustan Wayne Kelley, 30, of Harmon Lane, Lenoir City, was charged with driving on revoked and failure to appear.

According to the report, Deputy J. Schultz, LCSO answered a trailer in a ditch call on Old Hwy 95.

Upon arrival the deputy made contact with Wayne Kelley and a check showed him to have a revoked license and a failure to appear warrant. Deputy J. Schultz, LCSO made the arrest.

Adam Victor Toepfer, 30, of Morningside Drive, Knoxville, was charged with violation of probation.

Corporal John Wilson, LCSO made the arrest.

filed by Officer Jon Yates, LPD; on or about August 30, 2012 Barbara S. Green did commit the offense of aggravated assault in the following manner. At around 12am Officer Sam Harrison and Officer Yates responded to Clyde Street in reference to a female who had overdosed. The person they had been called for was Barbara Green. Green was transported by ambulance for treatment.

While officers were there they noticed the caller/victim had wounds to his chest and right abdomen. These wounds appeared to be consistent with him being cut with a knife.

The victim reported Green had attacked him and cut him on the chest with a butter knife. She then cut him in the abdomen with a 12-inch butcher knife. The victim stated the attack was unprovoked and was a result of Green's intoxication.

Barbara Sue Green, 42, of Pine Crest Lane, Loudon was charged with aggravated domestic violence. Corporal John Wilson, LCSO made the arrest at the Loudon County Jail.

Police Beat

Jennifer Michele Flores, 27, of Harrison Road, Lenoir City, was charged with obstruction of service of legal writ or process.

According to the report, Deputy Schultz, LCSO answered a harassment call and during the investigation Flores kept being disruptive and would not be quiet and was charged. Deputy J. Schultz, LCSO made the arrest.

Horoscopes

task at hand today -- but not because you're inadequate! No, sometimes you just need to walk away and come back when your energy is better suited to the job.

Capricorn 12/22-1/19
There's quite a bit of hysteria making the rounds today, though you are mostly immune to its effects. Try to let this weirdness pass without comment, as your efforts only inflame passions.

Aquarius 1/20-2/18
You've got to get your blood pumping in one way or another -- so hit the gym, walk an extra mile or find some new way to exercise. Your body craves activity, and it's not good to ignore it!

Pisces 2/19-3/20
Your emotions are all over the place now, but you can still find ways to focus them and even get ahead thanks to their positive aspects. See if you can show that one person how much you care!

Aries 3/21-4/19
You can be incredibly productive today -- just as long as you are willing to commit. The good news is that your people should have your back even if you decide to do something that feels a bit rash.

Taurus 4/20-5/20
Communication is at the top of the world's agenda today, so make sure that you are doing your part. It may be as small as just passing along a friendly word of advice or as big as delivering vital news.

Gemini 5/21-6/21
You're having a hard time reading someone

-- and the problem is that it's you! If you don't know what you want, you surely can't expect anyone else to know, so do everyone a favor and get in touch with your feelings.

Cancer 6/22-7/22
Your personal issues are out in the forefront today but only because they seem too easy to take care of! Your great energy helps you dismiss the stuff that doesn't matter and tackle the stuff that does.

Leo 7/23-8/22
You are keeping a tight lid on your emotions -- and for now, that's the right thing to do! It's not a long-term solution, of course, so once this crisis is past, you need to find an outlet for all the stress.

Virgo 8/23-9/22
You need to get yourself better organized -- and yes, that is possible! You may find that your energy is well spent on domestic or office renewal projects, so make sure you have time to do them right.

Libra 9/23-10/22
Try to slow down and just appreciate the things you've got instead of worrying about what isn't working for you. This isn't your prime, but you can tell that the situation is improving.

Scorpio 10/23-11/21
You've got to let go of some weight that is holding you back. It may be actual stuff in your basement that keeps you from moving, or emotional baggage that wants to keep you in the past.

tion and was running. Deputy Kevin Parks, LCSO received a call to respond to a male staggering around the parking lot and laying in a parking spot in front of Fashion Showcase on Hwy 11. The caller then advised the man entered a red vehicle in front of the building.

On arrival the deputy found Zachary Robert Gardner sitting in a red Explorer and the keys were in the ignition and the vehicle was running. Gardner had a very strong odor of an alcoholic beverage on his person and was very unsteady on his feet.

Gardner performed poorly on sobriety tasks and he refused any and all testing. Gardner had to be helped because he could not stand on his own.

Zachary Robert Gardner, 26, of East 1st Avenue, Lenoir City, was charged with DUI 3rd offense, driving on revoked 1st offense and violation of implied consent. Deputy Kevin Parks, LCSO made the arrest.

Police Beat

Amber Nicole King, 23, of Giles Road, Lenoir City, was charged with driving on suspended.

According to the report, Detective Jonathan Sartin LCPD stopped King for a headlight out.

A check showed Ms. King to have a suspended license for failure to satisfy citation. Detective Jonathan Sartin LCPD made the arrest.

Jesus Lopez, 18, of Candlenook Lane, Lenoir City, was charged with a juvenile attachment and violation of probation.

Officer C. Parker, LCPD made the arrest.
