Jailbirds Charged

Philip Lawrence Jenkins, 27, Bussell Ferry Road, Lenoir City was charged with assault.

Travis Blake Langley, 27, Coffey Circle, Lenoir City also was charged with assault.

According to affidavits filed by Mr. Rodney Hoskins; while incarcerated as an inmate in the Loudon County Jail in F Block, Hoskins was on the phone on January 19th, at approximately 12:35 PM, and was talking with his mother. Hoskins said he was speaking loudly, so his mother was able to hear their conversation.

Inmates Philip L. Jenkins and Travis B. Langley began to mock Mr. Hoskins for how loudly he was speaking to his mother on the phone.

At that time, Jenkins and Langley jumped off their bunks and approached Mr. Hoskins and began punching him with closed fists.

Hoskins fell to the floor and Jenkins and Langley started kicking him. Mr. Hoskins stated he didn't do anything to provoke the attack and sought medical treatment with the jail nurse.

Hoskins, 44, was incarcerated on a charge of assault by domestic violence when the incident occurred.

Berry

was charged with simple possession and theft under $500.

According to reports, Wednesday, around 4:38 PM, Officer Kevin Condee, LCPD made contact with Bryan Berry on a traffic stop. He was seen acting suspiciously in Walmart prior to the stop.

Mr. Berry admitted he stole a hat from Walmart valued at $10. Further investigation revealed Berry was in possession of a bottle of schedule II prescription pills for which he didn't have a prescription. He was placed under arrest and transported to the Loudon County Jail.

Breitung had an altercation with her 14 year old niece. Both live at the residence, and Breitung told the officer her niece slammed her bedroom door, "wouldn't let Breitung's five year old daughter in, and she had an attitude.

The victim stated

she was pushed by Ms. Breitung and fell. Her head struck the bedroom window, causing it to break. She also fell into the closet doors.

The victim had a small scratch on her temple and scratches on her arms and back. Officer Jamie Whitt, LCPD made the arrest.

Mr. Williams passed all points of sale and left the store.

Williams was encountered a few moments later at a store next door by Deputy Jamey Pistole, LCSO. Williams still had the merchandise on his person when Pistole encountered him.

Deputy Nathan Wilson, LCSO made the arrest Friday at the Bradley County Jail.

Wampler

charged with theft under $500 and failure to appear.

According to records, Mr. Wampler was observed by Walmart Asset Protection selecting and concealing merchandise and putting the items in his pocket. He passed all points of sale and attempted to leave Walmart with $29.97 worth of merchandise.

Wampler was also charged with a capias warrant for failure to appear on October 6, 2011, on another charge of theft under $500.

Williams was charged with theft under $500.

According to an affidavit filed by Detective Brian Jenkins, LPD; on or about December 22, 2011, Mr. Daniel C. Williams entered the Dollar General Store on Highway 72 in Loudon where he concealed a safety light kit, a friendship band, one pack of headbands, a cell phone case, a purse pouch, one pair of Comfort Plus ear phones, scales and discovered one of them also had a handgun in his possession when he stopped the vehicle they were in for speeding on Oakland Road.

Timothy Burton Isbill, 31, Roy Road, Sweetwater was charged with driving on revoked license, possession of drug paraphernalia, possession of a weapon with intent to go armed, and simple possession of marijuana.

Nicole C. Cockrum, 30, Roy Road, Sweetwater was charged with possession of drug paraphernalia.

According to records, Monday, at approximately 1:07 PM, Deputy Billy Hall, LCSO stopped a blue Dodge pickup for speeding 66 mph in a 45 mph zone on Oakland Road in Loudon. Prior to the stop the deputy noticed someone reach towards the rear seat of the truck.

While talking with the driver, identified as Timothy Isbill, Hall smelled the odor of marijuana emitting from the vehicle and reported Mr. Isbill kept reaching towards the rear of his back and acting nervous.

The passenger, Nicole Cockrum was removed from the vehicle and appeared very nervous as well.

Deputy Hall frisked Mr. Isbill and discovered a empty holster in his waist band. Mr.

Isbill and Ms. Cockrum were detained and a search of the truck produced a 9mm mag on the front seat and a 9mm handgun in the rear seat area.

There were several hand rolled marijuana cigarettes found in the ash tray. A set of scales with marijuana residue and a large amount of small ziplock bags, some with marijuana residue in them, were located in the rear seat area of the vehicle.

A search of Ms. Cockrum's purse revealed approximately five needles, a spoon, and several pieces of cotton.

There was also a set of scales with marijuana residue and a marijuana grinder with marijuana residue found in Cockrum's purse.

Ms. Cockrum stated she used the needle to shoot up meth and pain pills.

A check of Mr. Isbill's license showed they were revoked for failure to pay a citation. Mr. Isbill stated just prior to pulling over he removed the 9mm pistol from the small of his back and placed it in the rear of the vehicle.
