violation of the sex offender registry.

According to records, on February 5, 2012, the victim reported someone broke into his storage unit on Highway 321 north in Lenoir City. The stolen items included several types of meters, electronic dog tracking systems, a thermal imaging camera, assorted tools and a DeWalt cordless drill. The victim walked over to Hall's neighboring residence on Highway 321 north. He spoke to Mr. Hall that day about the theft and Mr. Hall stated he didn't know anything about the theft.

The victim then talked to another individual who also lived there. When he walked up to the porch he saw a small black plastic box sitting on the porch with his name engraved on the side. The victim then called law enforcement.

Investigator Jeff Russell, LCSO-CID went to a residence where Mr. Hall was moving in on Browder Hollow Road and found Mr. Hall there. Investigator Russell asked for consent to search his vehicle and house and found several items matching the description of the items taken. They were identified by the victim as belonging to him. Mr. Hall also sold several items to a man for $150, which included tools and meters.

Investigator Russell made the arrest around 10:25 AM, Wednesday.

Later, that morning, Hall received another charge when Deputy Jason Tuttle, LCSO was reviewing the Loudon County Justice Center intake and found a discrepancy between the address James Scott Hall gave the booking officer as his place of residence and the declared address on file with the official TBI Sex Offender Registry.

Deputy Tuttle and Investigator Russell acquired a copy of the signed lease at Rambling Acres Mobile Home Park which showed Mr.

Hall as the lessee beginning February 1, 2012. Deputy Tuttle served the warrant and made the arrest at 11:00 AM, Wednesday.

Agency (TWRA) regional offices, license agents and on the TWRA website, www.tnwildlife.org.

The 2012-13 licenses are valid through February, 2013. License sales provide the primary funding for the TWRA, which does not receive any funding from the state's general fund (i.e. state sales tax). The 2011-12 licenses expire Feb. 29. Resident licenses may be purchased by: persons who possess a valid Tennessee driver's license; persons who have lived in Tennessee for 90 consecutive days with the genuine intent of making Tennessee their permanent home; military personnel on active duty in this state and their immediate families, who reside with them, regardless of resident status; students who are enrolled in a Tennessee school, college, or university for at least six months. A Social Security number is required to purchase a Tennessee hunting or fishing license.

Licenses may also be purchased online at TWRA's website: www.tnwildlife.org and charged to a credit card. Licenses may also be ordered by telephone and charged to a credit card by calling 1-888-814-8972. All licenses purchased by credit card will be charged a processing and handling fee. The fees over the telephone are $7.50 for those licenses mailed and $6.25 for those not mailed. Through the internet, charges are $4.25 for those licenses mailed and $3 for self-prints.

To expedite telephone orders, the caller should have ready the name, address, physical description, Social Security number, driver's license number, TWRA ID number (if renewal), and credit card number.

Licenses are printed on a special tear-resistant, water-proof paper. In case of a lost license, duplicate licenses can be obtained from any REAL license agent for a $7 fee.

domestic violence and vandalism.

According to an affidavit filed by the victim; on February 8, 2012, at approximately 1:30 AM, the victim was asleep at his residence on Strange Road in Lenoir City when his girlfriend, Amanda Waldrop, woke him up. She was very upset and accused him of cheating on her.

The victim advised Ms. Waldrop was yelling at him and began punching him in the face, head and upper body. The victim told Ms. Waldrop he was leaving and she told him she would burn the house down if he left. Ms. Waldrop then grabbed his cell phone, car keys and wallet.

Ms. Waldrop told the victim he was going to give her the pin number and they were going to the bank to withdraw money. The victim refused and called a friend. Ms. Waldrop then took another cell phone belonging to the victim and threw it into the toilet and snapped his debit card in half.

The total value of the damaged items was approximately $400. Ms. Waldrop began hitting the victim again and his friend on the other line called 911. Deputy Craig Brewer, LCSO made the arrest Wednesday.

Canine Overkill

on February 15th, 2012, Deputy Brad Rayfield, LCSO was dispatched to Overlook Drive on a possible physical domestic call. On arrival, the deputy spoke with the victim, who stated her son Michael Mad-dela, just went off the deep end and hurt her. The victim said she asked her son to take the dog out and he said no and got violent in the master bathroom. Mad-dela totally destroyed the master bathroom by lifting the top of the sink/vanity and tearing the toilet top off. He then pushed his mother in the hallway, knocking her against the door

Speeding with Weed

21, also of South Ocean Drive, Fort Pierce, Florida was charged with felony possession of marijuana.

According to reports, Friday, around 4:51 AM, Sgt. Jeremie Bowen, LCSO clocked a red Chevy at 85 mph in a 65 mph zone on Interstate 75 north. The sgt. stopped the vehicle and identified the driver as Cody Sweitzer. There was a strong odor of marijuana coming from the car. Mr. Sweitzer was asked to exit the vehicle and when

Sgt. Bowen asked if there was any drugs in the vehicle, Mr. Sweitzer stated there was a small amount of marijuana in the glove box.

The passenger was identified as Preston Stephan. He was also asked if there was any marijuana in the car and he said there was. Sgt. Bowen proceeded to search the vehicle and found several bags with dryer sheets lying in the back seat and in the trunk.

The sgt. asked if there was any more marijuana inside the car and Mr. Stephan stated he had about an ounce inside his bag in the trunk. Sgt. Bowen found a brown plastic bag with two clear bags inside containing a green leafy substance believed to be marijuana.

The lawman weighed the substance and it weighed approximately 1.57 ounces. Both men were placed under arrest and transported to the Loudon County Jail. Deputy Robbie Lane, LCSO was also on the scene.

The deputy noted in his report that he did see the damage to the master bathroom and the minor injury to the victim's left forearm. EMS responded to the scene and checked her, but she refused treatment. She advised Deputy Rayfield she was afraid of her son and what he might do to her and he was violent towards her.

Michael Maddela was already gone when Deputy Rayfield arrived at the residence that day, however, Deputy Jason Goddard served the warrant and arrested Maddela Thursday at his residence on Overlook Drive.
