Think you've heard everything? How 'bout pills in a tampon?

Just when you thought you've heard it all, along comes the story of the two hapless law enforcement officers who found themselves unwrapping a funky colored tampon that was found during a strip search when a woman reported to the jail to serve time and was asked to perform a squat and cough during a strip search. The thankless job reportedly led to the discovery of several pills wrapped up inside the feminine hygiene product and the woman was duly charged.

county jail, possession of a legend drug x 2 and possession of schedule II.

According to reports,

Deputy Pam Snow, LCSO was booking Christy Jean Givens for reprog time on a forgery charge Friday, around 6:30 PM, and once booking was complete,

Deputy Snow took Ms. Givens into the bathroom for a strip search. Before entering the bathroom the deputy asked Ms. Givens if she had anything on her person and Givens said no.

Deputy Snow told Givens to remove all her clothing, face the wall, squat and cough. Ms. Givens advised she had a tampon in and asked if she could remove it first. She was told to remove it into the empty toilet.

Deputy Snow noted in her report the tampon had a blue and orange color to it so she put a pair of gloves on and retrieved it from the toilet.

Once Ms. Givens was placed into A Block, Deputy Snow and Corporal Michael Wilson unwrapped the tampon and found one white pill believed to be 2 mg alprazolam, a piece of a peach colored pill believed to be 40 mg methadone, one blue and white capsule believed to be 50 mg vyvance and two orange and blue capsules believed to be 70 mg vyvance.

PI and underage

Sara Renae Keenan, 25, Freels Lane, Harri- man was charged with public intoxication.

Haley Suzanne Ladd,

19, Forest Brook Lane, Kingston was charged with under age consumption.

According to records, Saturday, around 1:26 AM, Deputy Robbie Lane, LCSO was dispatched to the TA Truck Stop on Watt Road for a possible drunk driver. Deputy Bobby Hamilton, LCSO was on the scene with two females who were in the parking lot walking around and causing a scene.

The driver of a red Mercedes was identified as Ms. Haley Ladd and the passenger was Mrs. Sara Keenan. Both had a strong odor of an alcoholic beverage on their persons, red watery eyes and they both were unsteady on their feet.

Deputy Lane asked Ms. Ladd if she had been drinking and she stated she'd had a couple mixed drinks before they left the house. Ms. Ladd performed poorly on field sobriety tasks. Since deputies didn't witness Ms. Ladd in physical control of the vehicle and due to the fact Ms. Ladd is only 19 years old and had been drinking alcohol, she was placed under arrest for underage consumption.

Mrs. Keenan was very upset, yelling and trying to walk away from the officers on the scene and was deemed a danger to herself and others. She was placed under arrest.

Deputy Jamie Pistole, LCSO was also on the scene.
