Duo charged in traffic stop

Madison Day/Grace Moreland, 18, 20th Street NW, Cleveland, Tennessee was charged with DUI 1st offense, simple possession of marijuana and violation of implied consent.

Travis Matthew Creagan, 23, Everhart Drive, also of Cleveland, was charged with public intoxication and simple possession of marijuana.

According to reports, Wednesday, around 2:20 AM, Deputy Chris Hutchens, LCSO noticed a silver Mazda sitting at the stop sign on the southbound off ramp of exit 72 and noted the vehicle was there for a prolonged period of time in the left side of the lane of travel with the right turn signal on.

The Mazda then made a wide right hand turn onto Highway 72 where the deputy conducted a traffic stop and identified the driver as Madison Moreland. He reported as he approached the vehicle he smelled a strong odor of marijuana emitting from it and asked Ms. Moreland if there was anything inside the car that he should be aware of.

The passenger, Mr. Travis M. Creagan, stated they had smoked marijuana inside the vehicle.

The deputy reported the odor was not a burnt smell, however, it was a raw smell of marijuana. A search of the vehicle produced a hand rolled cigarette believed to be marijuana and approximately 6 grams of marijuana in three separate bags.

Records indicate Ms. Moreland had glassy bloodshot eyes, slurred speech and was cotton mouthed. She was placed under arrest and transported to the Loudon County Jail where she refused implied consent.

Mr. Creagan had an odor of an alcoholic beverage on his person and after stating he'd smoked marijuana earlier, he was deemed a danger to himself or others if left in public and was placed under arrest.

Deputy Marty Branam, LCSO transported Mr. Creagan to the Loudon County Jail.
