Overdose Preferred?

According to reports, Investigator Marty Stanley, LCSO-ND noticed a white Ford F150 with a broken left tail light turn onto Broadway from D Street around 5:12 PM, Tuesday and a check of the registration through NCIC showed it had expired on November 30, 2011. The lawman stopped the vehicle in front of United Grocery Outlet and identified the passenger as Rose Lambert.

The driver consented to a search of the vehicle and handed Ms. Lambert her purse to hold onto during the search. Investigator Stanley asked Lambert if anything illegal was in her purse and she said no, but handed him ten round green pills identified as 15 mg. oxycodone, which were loose in a side pocket of the purse.

Ms. Lambert advised

she had a prescription for the pills but couldn't produce one. She also stated she knew she should have had the pills in her prescription bottle.

After placing Ms. Lambert into custody for possession of schedule II, Deputy Brian Smith, LCSO was walking her to his patrol car, when Lambert advised him she'd never had a drug charge and she should have ate the pills, that she didn't eat them, but she should have. Investigator Shane Ezell, LCSO-ND, was also on the scene.

Police Beat

Daniel David Bright, 38, Kirk Avenue, Lenoir City was charged with driving on suspended license 2nd offense.

According to reports, Monday, at approximately 6:15 PM, Assistant Chief Deputy James D. Davis II, LCSO observed a tan Jeep Wrangler traveling on Williams Ferry Road in a reckless manner. A check of the registration did not match the vehicle displaying the tag.

Chief Davis conducted a traffic stop and identified the driver as Daniel D. Bright.

Mr. Bright advised he had suspended license and a check through the state confirmed he did have a suspended license. He also had a previous conviction for driving on suspended in 1996.

Mr. Bright was placed under arrest and transported to the Loudon County Jail.

Daddy Saw, Too

proximately 6:15 PM, Jose Alvarado fondled his genital area in front of an eight year old female. Alvarado was walking down the side of the victim's house on A Street when the offense occurred.

Records indicate the little girl was looking out her bedroom window when Alvarado exposed himself to her and he put his index finger over his mouth indicating for her to keep quiet. The victim's father witnessed the offense.

Officer Cheralyn Distin, LCPD made the arrest Friday.

Another Price Hiker

According to affidavits filed by Detective Jonathan Sartin, LCPD and Walmart Asset Protection; on or about April 11, 2012, Tara L. Belcher went to Walmart on Highway 321 in Lenoir City where she selected a coffee maker, a Blue-Ray player and numerous games totaling $779.44. Ms. Belcher put the items into her buggy and pushed the items out the door past all points of sale.

On April 14, 2012, at approximately 5:10 PM, Tara Belcher was observed by Asset Protection selecting multiple grocery items, such as Mountain Dew, beef jerky and pizza, and placing the merchandise in a shopping cart, then pushing the cart out the grocery doors. Belcher passed all points of sale without attempting to pay for the items totaling $41.97.

Officer Jason Felts, LCPD responded to Walmart on April 14 in reference to the theft and when he arrived on the scene he observed Hall's vehicle leaving the Walmart parking lot. He stopped her at Highway 321 where he asked Ms. Belcher to go back to Walmart.

Hall was taken into custody after several items she had stolen from the retail giant were found in her possession.

Mother Disrespected

Brad Rayfield, LCSO was dispatched to Rest Camp Road on a possible domestic call. When he arrived on the scene he found a white Dodge Caravan sitting in the driveway with the windshield and the passenger side front windows completely busted out and glass was all over the driveway.

A female was on the front porch, very upset and crying. She stated her son, Charles Akins, just blew up on her at her house because she has custody of his children now. He was throwing things at her and hit her with a bowl and spoon. She said she wasn't injured and refused medical treatment.

Akins reportedly was drinking heavily and was cussing and threatening his mother before he went outside screaming and cussing and broke the windows out of her van.

Charles Akins was located at another residence on Rest Camp Road and was seen by Deputy Rayfield and Corporal Michael Watkins, LCSO running out the back door of the residence. Rayfield and Watkins gave chase while shouting loud verbal commands to stop. Mr. Akins finally stopped running about 25 yards from the house and was taken into custody.

Akins was very intoxicated and unsteady on his feet. He advised he had some xanax in his right front pocket. Three blue pills identified as xanax were found in a small clear piece of plastic in his pocket.

Mr. Akins was arrested and transported to the Loudon County Jail.
