The Good News

by Jeff Vittatoo

A Day With Darren

It is with great excitement and a Spirit filled heart that I write today's Good News article from Helena Montana. Angie and I have been here for several days now and have been both tremendously blessed and utterly convicted.

We returned to Helena this year thinking we would encourage the Hales family and show our support by sharing our time, our abilities and our resources, but found instead that God is showing US what He really meant when He commanded us to make disciples of all nations. I am humbled, ashamed and embarrassed when I consider what little I do to further the gospel of Christ compared to what these guys are doing every single day in this valley. Please allow me to share the events of a day or two in the life of Darren Hales.

Day 1. To begin our week of "Service" I thought it would be nice to treat Pastor Hales to a relaxing day of guided fly fishing on the Missouri River. He would have never spent money on a fishing guide when he could have used it to help a family who needed

Verse of the Day

He will stand and shepherd his flock in the strength of the LORD, in the majesty of the name of the LORD his God. And they will live securely, for then his greatness will reach to the ends of the earth. And he will be their peace.

a place to stay, some warm clothes or some groceries. This is my third visit to Montana and I have yet to fish, so I will confess that this day was really about me but I wanted to share it with my brother in Christ, who I'm sure has earned a day off. Pastor Darren and I caught fish all day in the wind and occasional rain, stopping only for a sandwich. At the end of the day, Darren had out fished me with a fly rod landing two trout over nineteen inches and almost twenty fish total. He also gave me a lesson in how to witness in Montana by sharing his faith so smoothly with our fishing guide.

Day 2. Angie and I attended worship service at Big Sky Fellowship where ten Christians gave their testimonies as they joined the Big Sky family. Darren then delivered a brief but powerful sermon from the Gospel of John. After church we ate lunch at the Hale's home and then headed out to a lady's residence to build a gate for her dogs, install a washer and dryer that Darren had found for her and make some repairs to her furniture. He loves the people here like Jesus loves us! (Even on Sunday afternoon)

Day 3. I caught up with Darren at the church around 7:00 am where he meets with his associate pastor and an elder EVERY Monday morning to discuss the previous days worship, make plans for the events of the week and pray for one another. After praying around the room (more than once) Darren and some administrative I headed to my hotel responsibilities and we where he gave Angie (see TGN cont. pg. 4) grabbed a quick bite to eat. By 9:00 am we were headed to Hastings book store where we met two of his members for "prework" discipleship, Bible study and prayer. When I left Darren around lunch he was at the church making phone calls and planning. At 6:30 that evening Angie met with Susan Hales as she discipled a lady from the church at a local Wendy's and then headed off to another ladies' Bible study. Darren, in the meantime, also met with a couple from the church for a time of discipleship and Bible study before going to a 7:00 pm meeting at the church.

Day 4. Darren asked me to be at Hardee's by 6:30 am where we met with two more men to discuss their study of the Book of Esther, share any needs or praises and a time of prayer before these men went on to work. I then went to the hotel where I picked up my smokin hot wife. We went to the church where Darren was working in his office and planning some work for us. I began some projects around the church while Darren and Angie worked on numerous computer related tasks regarding Easter follow up, a church directory, upcoming children's events and more. Around lunch Darren left us some work and headed out for an associational meeting at 12:00 and then back to work with me at the church. At 3:00 pm we went to the home of a new believer where we discussed scripture, talked about Jesus and then prayed with him and his wife. Darren still had two more stops and a few more phone calls before he quit.

While serving with this man of God for just a few days this week, I can say with confidence that Darren Hale's Sunday morning message is the minor part of the ministry here in Big Sky. The meat and potatoes that has allowed this church to more than double in size this past year is the individual and small group discipleship that Darren requires of each member and conducts personally.

Darren and Susan both commit more time and effort into individual Christian growth each week than most of us do all year. They are investing their lives into building relationships and making disciples, who then make disciples, who then make disciples. God didn't send Angie and me to Big Sky to help Darren Hales, but for Darren and Susan Hales to minister to us. We thought we knew what a true follower of Christ should look like. We thought we were "Doing pretty good" compared to others but when our lives are compared to the Christians who are written about in the Book of Acts and to this missionary family from North Carolina..... We are NOTHING!

Dear God, forgive me for my selfish heart and sinful ways.

Cleanse me and mold me into the vessel that you intended me to be. Teach me to teach others by the way I live, the way I love and the way I serve. Help me to follow You wherever, whenever, and however You choose because You are GOD, and You alone are worthy! Amen.

Check out our Montana mission trip photos at www.thegoodnews-dailyedition.com or check up on Darren at www.bigskyfellowship.org. Angie and I will most likely share more about our experience here at Big Sky in next week's edition. Thanks for reading and for your continued support.

over $500.

According to an affidavit filed by Detective Jonathan Sartin, LCPD; on or about April 29, 2012, Anthony Satterfield and another person went to a residence on North C Street in Lenoir City. While there, Mr. Satterfield went onto the property and took four Model A wheels, bumper, hood cover and coil springs without permission or knowledge of the owner.

The total value of the stolen property was $525.

Deputy Nathan Wilson, LCSO served the warrant and made the arrest at the Loudon County Jail.

parking lot acting suspicious after just purchasing a pseudoephedrine based product.

The female, later identified, walked to a waiting vehicle at the Weigels gas station on Highway 321 in Lenoir city. Agent DeBoer followed the vehicle and observed it fail to maintain it's lane by crossing over the center yellow line numerous times, as well as traveling 60 mph in a 50 mph zone on Highway 444 in Loudon.

Agent DeBoer attempted to stop the vehicle using his audible and visual emergency equipment but the vehicle failed to stop, increasing it's speed to at times 90 mph. The vehicle passed numerous vehicles over the double yellow line and attempted to elude the agent on a chase that went into Monroe County and finally ending on Eves Mill Road, in a corn field. The vehicle came to rest and two males and a female exited and fled on foot into the woods and into a creek.

Agent DeBoer gave verbal commands identifying himself and advising them to stop. One of the males was later identified as Anthony Plemons who was still on the run at the time of the report.

The male occupants in the vehicle have a previous history of methamphetamine activity. A search of the vehicle was performed for inventory purposes and numerous types of drug paraphernalia were found including but not limited to Coleman Fuel, batteries and individual baggies commonly used to package narcotics. Agent DeBoer served the warrants and made the arrest at the Monroe County Jail.

Drive in Lenoir City. He loaded an air-conditioning unit into his vehicle without the owner's effective consent. The neighbor of the victim confronted Mr. Williams about the unit and Williams removed it from his vehicle and left the property. The neighbor contacted law enforcement and gave a description of the vehicle Mr. Williams was driving as well as a description of Mr. Williams. Deputy T.J. Scarbrough, LCSO, located Mr. Williams driving the vehicle on Beals Chapel Road traveling from the area of the theft. The vehicle was stopped and Mr. Williams was advised of the Miranda warning after which he admitted to taking the unit without the owner's consent for the purpose of selling it as scrap metal.

Corporal Michael Wilson, LCSO, served the warrant and made the arrest at the Loudon County Jail.

Austin Michael Medsker, 19, Homeless, was charged with contributing to a minor.

The report states, Deputy Brian Smith, LCSO, responded to the intersection of White Wing Road and Highway 32 1/2 Sunday, for a call of suspicious persons in the area. On arrival the deputy made contact with Mr. Austin M. Medsker and a female juvenile. Mr. Medsker stated he and the girl were homeless and were looking for a place to stay. Medsker also stated the girl was 17 years old and had tried to commit suicide and he was trying to take care of her. A check of the girl through NCIC revealed she was a runaway and was 14 years old. Officer B. Burley, LCPD, placed the 14 year old into custody and Deputy Smith placed Mr. Medsker under arrest for contributing. When Deputy Smith asked Mr. Medsker why he didn't call the police to find the girl some help he had no response. He was transported to the Loudon County Jail without incident.

Cassandra Leighann Baker, 25, River Road, Loudon, was charged with violation of probation. Deputy G. Matthews, LCSO, made the arrest at the Loudon County Justice Center.

David Wayne Jacobs, 51, Monroe Street, Madisonville, was charged with violation of probation. Deputy Bruce Padgett, LCSO, made the arrest at the Monroe County Jail.
