officers responded to Cory Drive Sunday in reference to a domestic assault and the victim stated when she arrived home and was walking to her apartment, she was approached by her ex-boyfriend Jeff Upton. Due to the history of domestic violence, the victim was in fear of Mr. Upton and ran to her apartment to escape him.

According to the victim, she was able to unlock her apartment and get inside, but Mr. Upton caught up to her and forced the door open with his body as she was trying to secure it. After forcing himself into the apartment, he assailed her by violently shoving her into a piece of furniture and knocking her down, then striking her repeatedly in the face and head with a closed fist as she tried to crawl away.

Mr. Upton struggled with the victim, who had retrieved a knife to defend herself, and he knocked her onto a couch before fleeing the residence.

The officer's report noted the victim had a significant amount of blood on the right side of her face and on her clothing from a gaping laceration approximately 1.5" long above her right eye. She also had a large contusion and bruising below her right eye and similar injuries on her chin. She was evaluated by EMS and referred to the emergency room for suturing the laceration and x-rays to further evaluate her injuries.

Mr. Upton turned himself in at the Loudon County Justice Center Sunday, around 1:35 PM.

According to records, Sunday, around 4:59 AM, Deputy Cody Fritts, LCSO observed a green Chrysler Concorde on Highway 70 with the high beam lights on and when the vehicle passed the deputy the driver failed to dim the headlights.

Deputy Fritts turned around to follow the vehicle and his radar registered it's speed at 88 mph. He initiated his emergency equipment and when he caught up to the car it continued to travel at a high rate of speed.

The vehicle failed to stop at the red light at the intersection of Highways 70 and 321 and made a left turn onto Highway 321 heading for Lenoir City. The vehicle ran another red light at the intersection of Highway 321 and Interstate 75 and turned onto Interstate 75 north at the 81 exit. The vehicle finally pulled over to the shoulder of the interstate around the 81 1/2 mile marker and when Deputy Fritts exited his cruiser, the vehicle sped away again.

Around the 82 mile marker the vehicle applied it's brakes abruptly in an attempt to make police cruisers hit it, then it continued to flee from officers as they passed the split and Watt Road. As they approached the Campbell Station exit the Chrysler began to smoke heavily and fluids began to come from the car. It came to a stop just past Campbell Station on Interstate 40 East where Deputy Robbie Lane and Deputy Fritts ordered everyone out of the car.

Two female juveniles were detained along with one male and one female adult. The driver of the vehicle was identified as Jessie Marie Desola.

Ms. Desola stated she fled from officers because she thought she had warrants out for her arrest. Ms. Desola was taken into custody on multiple charges and transported to the Loudon County Jail.

his companions, two of whom are adults, found themselves in a slew of trouble for various offenses including contributing to the delinquency of a minor, simple possession and more.

Jerrica Jean Turner, 20, Maple Lane, Loudon was charged with contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

Spencer Todd Young, 21, Littleton Drive, Loudon was charged with DUI, simple possession and contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

According to reports, Officer Jonathan Yates, LPD observed a 14 year old male he knows come out of the Shell station on Highway 72 carrying a pack of cigarettes around 1:54 AM and when he approached the juvenile he found he'd used a fake ID to buy them.

The ID belonged to a male who was waiting in the car the juvenile was walking towards. Jerrica J. Turner was also present. The vehicle, a blue Audi, was occupied by Ms. Turner, the male and another 16 year old juvenile female, as well as the juvenile male who had gone into the store. Ms. Turner contributed to the delinquency of a minor by knowingly and willingly allowing the two juveniles to be out past curfew without their guardian's consent and she aided in having the male enter the store to illegally purchase tobacco.

Ms. Turner willingly turned over a small amount of marijuana she had stashed in her underclothing, which she was cited for.

Officer Bennie Houser, LPD made contact with the driver, Spencer T. Young. Mr. Young had red watery eyes and stated he'd smoked marijuana a few hours earlier. Mr. Young performed poorly on field sobriety tasks. He was read the implied consent advisement, agreed, and was transported to Fort Loudoun ER for a BAC.

The Good News

outdoor photos and plastic totes packed full of the necessary equipment for such exciting adventures. I have a small boat, a side by side and numerous tree stands, feeders, backpacks, tents, tarps, small rods, heavy rods, fly rods and all kinds of para-cord so that we are readily equipped for any trip, anywhere and at any time of year. That's how rednecks roll!

Prior to each of our outdoor adventures, I study books, maps and read Internet forums to familiarize myself with each new location and the tactics being utilized in those areas to ensure success. I wouldn't want to take a fly rod and waders to fish the gulf stream for tuna so I try to know a little about what to expect and prepare accordingly. I also have the responsibility of making sure my smoking hot wife doesn't get lost, get eat up by mosquitos or grizzly bears, or go hungry. So I prepare.

When we were planning our recent trip to Big Sky Fellowship in Montana I wanted to do something special for the pastor. I could have organized a retreat, bought him a new suit (that he wouldn't have worn), or invited him and his wife to a fancy dinner somewhere. Instead, I wanted him to have the best day possible in Montana where he could relax and enjoy himself while we spent some time together. So I did what any good country boy would, I took him fishing. I hired a guide that lived in the area and told him to take us to where he would want to fish if he had only one day to do so. I told the guide that we wanted beautiful scenery, minimal people and lots of brown and rainbow trout. Angie and I flew into Helena, Montana the evening before our fishing trip. I packed a bag, checked the weather, checked in with Pastor Hales, checked the weather again and then talked about our upcoming day of fly fishing on the famous Missouri River until my wife was tired of hearing about it. I made her go with me to Walmart to get some rain gear and snacks, then back to the hotel to repack my bag and yes, check the weather.

The following day was awesome! Our guide had already picked the perfect bait for the fish we were after; we were gently rolling those nimpes out beyond the boat and presenting our flies as clearly and naturally as we possibly could. And the fish believed! We caught rainbows, browns and whitefish the entire day. After landing a fish in the safety of the net we celebrated, "high fived", and then returned each fish to its home before seeking the next one. By the end of the day I was wet, tired and sore but I didn't want to quit, I wanted to keep fishing!

Mathew 4:18-22 (NKJV) (18) And Jesus, walking by the Sea of Galilee, saw two brothers, Simon called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea; for they were fishermen. (19) Then He said to them, "Follow Me, and I will make you fishers of men." (20) They immediately left their nets and followed Him. (21) Going on from there, He saw two other brothers, James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, in the boat with Zebedee their father, mending their nets. He called them. (22) and immediately they left the boat and their father, and followed Him.

This scripture excites me in more ways than I have time to discuss here today, but I do want to unpack a little of what this passage means to me. (That is besides the fact that Jesus is just real fond of fisherman! Kidding)

Jesus had just begun His ministry. He had been baptized by John the Baptist, been tempted by Satan for forty days on the mountain and is now walking beside the Sea of Galilee when He begins to call His disciples. Why did He choose four fisherman you might ask? Why would Jesus Christ, the Son of God, God in the flesh, want to begin the most important ministry, HIS, since the creation of the universe by recruiting four regular, everyday, common, mostly uneducated fisherman to spread His gospel to the nations?

In my mind, Jesus wanted the world to know that you don't have to be a great theologian, have a doctorate degree in religion or even smell good to lead souls into everlasting life with Christ. All you have to do.....IS FOLLOW HIM!

When we accept

Christ into our hearts, He calls us to be witnesses for him (Acts 1:8) as He did Peter, Andrew, James and John. We too are called to be fishers of men. We are to present the gospel to others in a clear and natural way, allowing the Holy Spirit to net others into the family of God. We can't snag them, they must choose to accept the gospel as a brown trout chooses a fly. We can then "high five" each other and celebrate (as the angels in heaven do) the everlasting life that each new believer inherits from God the moment they accept Him. These new believers can then be released into their own communities to present the same gospel and God will make fishers of men out of them also. This is God's will for His family of believers.

As Christians, we must study God's word before each adventure. We must know where we are fishing and know how to present the gospel to each person in a way that they understand. If we trust Jesus, He will provide us with the words as my guide provided the proper fly. We must be aware of the storms in people's life and seek God's wisdom before entering the waters of life's mission field.

Instead of fishing for men these days, a lot of Christians are either fishing without bait (The power of the Holy Spirit in their hearts and lives) or they are just not fishing at all. How can we turn our backs on Jesus, who came to teach us how to have life and have it more abundantly? (John 10:10) I want to be as excited about sharing the gospel of Jesus as I was the night before I fished the Missouri River. This is the excitement that Jesus gives us if we seek Him and "Follow" Him. I invite you to come fishing with me today!

fore driving. Ms. Oody was very unsteady on her feet and performed poorly on field sobriety tasks.
