Bible School - A God Thing

Do you recall being a kid and getting to go to Bible school during the summer? I believe most kids in our area during my generation got to go but for any who did not.... Please allow me to describe it as I remember.

My most memorable Bible school years were at Silver Ridge Baptist Church in Lenoir City in the early 80's. I remember all of us kids gathering up outside the church just before it began with the lucky ones getting to carry either the American flag, the Christian flag or the official Bible school black leather Bible. (King James version I'm sure)

(see TGN pg. 6)

Verse of the Day

You saw with your own eyes the great trials, the miraculous signs and wonders, the mighty hand and outstretched arm, with which the LORD your God brought you out. The LORD your God will do the same to all the peoples you now fear. — Deuteronomy 7:19

The photos were taken without the victims consent or knowledge or the consent of her parents.

In fact, the girl's father became aware of it in the past and specifically instructed Lewis not to do it anymore.

The photos would be offensive or embarrassing to any normal person.

During the interview with Lewis he admitted he was taking the photos of the 13 year old girl for the purpose of his own sexual gratification because he is sexually attracted to her. Lewis is 43 years old.

Officer April Farmer, LPD, served the warrant and made the arrest at Mr. Lewis' residence.

When the time came, Mrs. Sheila Risher began to herd us in, two at a time. Flags and Bible in the front, followed by the smallest kids first and everyone else fell in by age group. We marched in "high stepping" like British soldiers in a parade. We walked up the middle isle and then peeled off with precise timing to the right and left, filling the front pews first and working our way towards the back while singing "Onward Christian Soldier". The most fortunate boys got to sit next to the girls but never actually talked to them.

After everyone was inside we said the pledge of allegiance to both flags and then to the Bible; "I pledge allegiance to the Bible, God's Holy Word. And will make it a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path, and will hide its words in my heart, that I may not sin against God."

After singing some fun songs we split into groups by age for a Bible lesson and then to a different room where each class participated in making some cool crafts, my most memorable being a wooden birdhouse held together with Elmer's glue and painted the color of my choice. Back in those days we worked on the same craft a little each night and then got to take it home on the last night. (Which was good incentive to keep coming back)

The most exciting time about Bible school back then, and probably now, was getting free time to go outside, hang with your buddies, eat some chocolate chip cookies and have a glass of Kool Aide! That's what I'm talkin bout!

I didn't realize it then but God's Word was being carefully sown into my heart by Christians that had no idea which of those seeds would "take" or which Bible story would be etched into my mind for the rest of my life. Now here I am, thirty years later and I can picture it as if it were yesterday. Can you picture your Bible school as well?

This past week our church conducted Bible school as they do each year. Preacher Mark is always a dynamic pastor but during Bible school he is off the chain. The Lord has taught him how to interact with those children and explain the love of Jesus in remarkable ways. 279 children registered throughout the week and numerous children gave their heart to the Lord and received an eternal reservation in heaven.

I know our pastor and how serious he takes a profession of faith with young folks, as he should. If he announces that a child got saved then I am confident he has gauged their understanding, their request and their ability to know what it means to ask Jesus into their heart. If they are not of understanding he will pray with them and explain to them about returning at such time that the Holy Spirit calls upon them. This is solely so that no child is deceived by a verbal commitment that does not have eternal meaning. Praise God for pastors who care about souls more than numbers of professions.

I only share all of that to say the following; over six people received Jesus Christ during Bible school at our church alone! God is amazing and he is still in the saving business!

Angie and I were able to teach two groups of teenagers how to make the survival bracelets that God has used to help us support missionaries around the globe and to help finance some of our trips. Who knows, God may encourage some of those young adults to do the same. How exciting is that? We were stoked just to be there and acted like children ourselves.

Now...Here is how you can take an active part in God's work; As you read today, Angie and I are back in Helena Montana with the Loudon County Baptist Association. We are at Big Sky Fellowship assisting our fellow Christian, Pastor Darren Hales, in conducting two simultaneous Bible school events. One will be in the Helena area but we will also be traveling to a small former mining town called Anaconda, to assist a small church there with their vacation Bible school.

A lot of Montana kids do not have access to the yearly Bible schools that you and I are so used to. Some kids in our communities actually attend more than one each year, whereas some Montana kids have never been to a vacation Bible school and have never heard the gospel of Jesus. I am asking every Christian who reads these words to take just two minutes and pray for this ministry opportunity. Please ask God to do a mighty work in the lives of these children and their parents. I'm not asking for any money or donated items, just for a moment of your time to bow to your knees and specifically ask Jesus to use this team of missionaries in showing His love to these people. After all, Jesus gave His life for those Montana children just as He did us; and He commanded us in Acts 1:8 to be His witnesses to the end of the earth.

I firmly believe that those who can go serve in other contexts should go, those who can't go but can give to do so unselfishly and for everyone to pray without ceasing. Pray that Angie and I will be found faithful and that we keep our eyes on Jesus and our focus on making disciples. Pray that the Holy Spirit will speak to the hearts of all who attend and pray that their parents will be affected and drawn as well. Pray because prayer works and God will be glorified by hearing a fervent prayer from the masses for a specific group of people and I believe He will respond in a powerful way. Just pray!!!
