affidavit filed by Corporal Michael Wilson, LCSO; Tuesday, around 6:31 PM, the fire alarm went off at the Loudon

County Jail and Deputy Pam Snow advised the system monitor indicated an active sprinkler.

The corporal went to turn the water off and open up the main water drain and Deputies Gray and Padgett responded to D Block where they met a soaking wet Timothy Spires in the first cell of D Block.

When asked what he was doing, Mr. Spires stated he was trying to sharpen a pencil on the sprinkler head, which caused the sprinkler head to pop.

Russell

charged with leaving the scene of an accident, driving on revoked license and DUI.

According to reports, Officer Jason Felts, LCPD responded to White Wing Road in reference to a hit and run. The complainant advised a woman he identified as Laken Russell pulled out in front of him on Highway 321, they collided, and she left the scene.

A check of her license revealed Russell is revoked.

Mrs. Russell was very unsteady on her feet and she had glassy eyes and slurred speech. She couldn't complete field sobriety tasks successfully and was placed under arrest.

The implied consent advisement was read and Mrs. Russell refused a blood test. She also told the officer her vehicle was not insured.

Police Beat

Joshua David Braden, 24, Hill Street, Lake City was charged with driving with a suspended license.

According to reports, while on routine patrol on Interstate 75 around 6:02 PM, Deputy Brad Rayfield, LCSO received a dispatch of a 911 call about a possible road rage incident of some kind on the northbound entrance ramp to I-75 at the Sugarlimb Exit. The vehicle in question was a gray Toyota pickup with Grainger County tags.

The vehicle was driving recklessly and running other vehicles off the road, according to dispatch.

Deputy Rayfield made contact with a vehicle matching the description with Grainger County tags, at the northbound Lenoir City exit and stopped it at the exit ramp of Interstate 40 at Watt Road. The driver, Josh Braden advised he had been in an altercation with his girlfriend.

A check of Braden's license through NCIC revealed his license were suspended out of Anderson County for failure to satisfy a citation.

Mr. Braden was placed under arrest and transported to the Loudon County Jail.

Barrentine

and driving without a license.

Clayton Dewad Barrentine, 45, Jackson Bend Road, Lenoir City was charged with DUI, driving without a license, leaving the scene of an accident and violation of implied consent.

According to reports, Friday, around 12:04 AM, Deputy Craig Brewer, LCSO responded to a collision in front of 8500 Jackson Bend Road and on arrival found a blue GEO Tracker in a culvert with alcohol bottles and cans falling out of it. The driver had already left the scene.

Deputy Brewer reported he followed muddy footprints on the road to a residence on Jackson Bend and found a vehicle with the same name on the registration as the wrecked vehicle.

Upon speaking with Mr. Barrentine, the officer determined he was the driver of the wrecked vehicle.

Barrentine advised he'd had a lot of alcohol to drink that afternoon starting from about 6:00 PM, till the time he wrecked.

Mr. Barrentine did poorly on field sobriety tasks and refused implied consent. A check of his license through NCIC revealed it was an ID only and not a valid drivers license.

Barrentine was placed under arrest and transported to the Loudon County Jail.

Coker

way, Philadelphia was charged with aggravated assault by domestic violence.

According to reports, the victim has been living with Coker since February 2012, on West Lee Highway, in Philadelphia. Coker had locked her out of the house earlier and she left and went to her ex-step father's house. Around 10:00 PM, Mr. Coker texted her cell phone and asked her to come back to the house, he was not drinking and would not hit her.

The victim stated after arriving at Mr. Coker's house, she was in bed smoking a cigarette and setting the alarm on her cell phone when Coker came in, slapped the phone out of her hands, began hitting her, bent her wrist, nearly broke her leg, choked her until she lost her breath and told her he was going to kill her. He also took a knife and cut her shirt and bra off her body at the shoulder.

Mr. Coker went to sleep very lightly around 2:00 AM, and the victim laid there until 6:00 AM, then while she was trying to get ready for work, Mr. Coker got up and blocked the door saying, "You bitch, you are going to watch me die." Mr. Coker then took some of the victim's valium pills and finally went back to sleep, enabling her to leave the house.

Records indicate the victim had bruising about her neck, breast, calf, right eye and a knot on the back of her head.

Deputy Craig Brewer, LCSO made the arrest.

Police Beat

Louis B. Falos Jr., 65, County Road 315, Sweetwater was charged with DUI and driving on revoked.

According to reports, Trooper Rodney Best, THP was sitting on Highway 72 when a BOLO came across his radio advising to watch for a white Infinity that was unable to maintain it's lane on Interstate 75 North and had taken the 72 exit ramp. Trooper Best spotted the vehicle traveling in his direction on the shoulder of the road and stopped it just past his patrol unit. The driver was identified as Louis Falos.

The lawman discovered Mr. Falos had a revoked drivers license and when he asked him to step out of his vehicle, Falos was very unsteady on his feet.

Falos performed poorly on field sobriety tasks and agreed to a chemical test. Mr. Falos was transported to the Fort Loudoun ER for the test and then to the Loudon County Jail.

Malcolm 'Jermaine' Jackson, 23, Edington Road, Knoxville was charged with schedule VI.

According to reports, Officer Brandon Burley conducted a traffic stop on a black Ford Explorer. After speaking with the driver, Jackson, and receiving consent to search, Officer Burley ordered Mr. Jackson to exit the vehicle.

When Jackson exited the Explorer there was an immediate odor of marijuana on his person that was present even after Mr. Jackson left the Explorer. A search of the area around Mr. Jackson produced less than 1 gram of a green leafy substance believed to be marijuana.

Jackson admitted to smoking marijuana just prior to being stopped. He was placed under arrest and duly charged.

last month to elect its 2012-13 officers. William Brown, of Chattanooga, was named chairman, a position he held for the Tennessee Wildlife Resources Commission for 2011-12. Dr. Jeff McMillin, of Bristol, was the TWRC's secretary for 2011-12 and will now serve as vice-chairman. Jeffrey Griggs, of Lexington, was elected as the TFWC's secretary.

At this month's meeting, TWRA Migratory Game Bird Coordinator Tim White will provide commission members with an update on the status of waterfowl in North America and present the agency's waterfowl hunting season recommendations. The passage of the migratory bird hunting season proclamation will set Tennessee's 2012-13 waterfowl hunting seasons.

TWRA's Fisheries Division will present proposed changes in the sport and commercial fishing regulations for 2013-14 as well as recommendations made by the Commercial Fishing Advisory Committee. Sport fishing regulations are usually established during the October meeting of the TFWC.

An update will be given on the final elk hunt permits for the 2012 hunt. A recently held auction for the final permit to participate in the Oct. 15-19 hunt at North Cumberland WMA has been issued. Also, the drawing for participation in the first youth elk hunt Oct. 20-21 has been held, which was won by 14-year old Jessica Parkins of Greeneville.

The commission will conduct committee meetings during the afternoon on Aug. 23, beginning at 1 p.m. The formal TWRC meeting will begin at 9 a.m. on Aug. 24. The meetings are open to the public.

Police Beat

Gregory Allen McKee, 46, Freedman Street, Loudon was charged with public intoxication and failure to appear.

According to records, Officer Brandon Nix, LPD witnessed a white male stumbling on the sidewalk on Grove Street and saw him almost fall into traffic. The officer stopped and approached the man, identifying him as Gregory A. McKee.

Mr. McKee had a strong odor of an alcoholic beverage on his breath and person and when asked, stated he had been drinking since that morning. He was very unsteady on his feet and had bloodshot watery eyes.

Mr. McKee was deemed a danger to himself and others if left in his condition. He was placed into custody and transported to the Loudon County Jail where it was discovered he had a failure to appear warrant.
