

Verse of the Day

For you did not receive a spirit that makes you a slave again to fear, but you received the Spirit of sonship. And by him we cry, "Abba, Father."

PRAISE IN THE PARK

Today's Good News article contains exciting information regarding an opportunity for our community to gather in the name of Jesus and I am excited to share it, endorse it, and invite every person who may read these words to participate..... And it's all FREE!

Isn't it amazing how the Holy Spirit will gladly use any Christian who will allow themselves to be used for the glory of Christ? When our hearts are willing to serve Jesus and follow His lead, opportunities are everywhere! The Bible says that He "will know us by our fruits", which means if we truly belong to Jesus then His attributes will be reflected in our hearts and in our words and in our deeds.

I sometimes criticize lazy Christians or folks that are satisfied with only being "church members". I fear that when Jesus returns to collect the ones who have truly accepted Him as Lord and Savior, there will be quite a few "church members" left standing in the streets wondering why they were left behind. Jesus told us in Matthew 28:18-20 to

The Good News

Go, and make disciples; He didn't say occasionally invite someone to your church. I get excited when I come across other Christians who really get it, who really love Jesus and want everyone to know it.

Leon Ford is a Christian who "gets it". I met Leon several years ago when I was hunting with his dad, Howard. They took me hunting on their farm in Dixon County, then later to their other farm in Jackson County. We have hunted and camped together at Catoosa and have sat around a campfire telling tall tales to one another. Howard recently took me back to Canada where I slayed a man eating black bear with my bare hands.... Not really, I used my bow but when telling hunting stories that's how easily they tend to grow!

Back then, Leon and I talked about everything from guns to girls but we never talked about Jesus. I was running from the Lord while living in a big ole pile of sin and the last thing I wanted to talk about was Jesus!

Here we are now, several years later, and we have both realized that true happiness cannot be achieved without the presence of Jesus Christ in our lives. The Lord has given us both a heart for our community and an urgency to spread the gospel to a world who so desperately needs Him.

The Holy Spirit of God has impressed upon Leon to organize an old fashioned "sagin," and he has listened. Leon has reserved the amphitheater at the Loudon Municipal Park (LMP) for the evening of September 29th. NEXT SATURDAY!

He has booked two gospel singing groups, planned a gospel talent search, organized concessions to be provided by and proceeds going to the Loudon Quarterback Club. Leon has also purchased a boat load of awesome fireworks as a finale to the celebration. He has arranged for site security and invited any and all churches or civic organizations to reserve a space for an informational booth if desired. His goal is simple; let the people of God gather together and praise His name! We can only hope that someone who does not know Jesus will also stop by and maybe see the power of the Holy Spirit and choose to accept Christ as their personal Savior.

God has placed the desire on Leon's heart for the folks of our community, our county, even our surrounding counties to come together and praise God for being God! When someone bashes prayer in our schools or before sporting events, many Christians will posse up by the dozens at the courthouse steps to pray about it, and that is a good thing; but this event is not in response to persecution or criticism, it is about God's people gathering together to praise Him!

HE IS WORTHY

AND THAT ALONE IS ENOUGH REASON.

When Leon first shared this idea with me I asked him, no, I encouraged him to collect a love offering towards the end of the night to help with the expenses of the evening which I am sure will be in the thousands of dollars. Leon replied that he didn't want to ask for any money, he just wanted people to come and worship together and to praise the Lord. WOW! What a testimony, what a Christian, what an opportunity this is going to be!

I am excited about the singing next Saturday night (29th) and even more excited about what the Lord is doing in the life of my friend Leon Ford. Blondie and I will be there early and most of the day. My mother in law, Donna Housley, will be singing with her group, Perfect Peace Trio, and they can really bring it for the Lord! Leon tells me that the other group, Eternal Vision, has an awesome show and awesome testimony as well.

There are many things that each of us can choose to do on a Saturday night but none could ever be as rewarding as spending it praising and worshipping the Lord Jesus Christ through song and fellowship with other believers. Our community is in dire need of a true revival and who knows, this may be the start of it! Please come and let's all join Leon in showing our community that we are many, God is worthy and that we are not ashamed! Tell your friends, have your pastor announce this in church, post it on face book for crying out loud! If you believe that faith in Jesus Christ is the only way to heaven and you are glad that He gave His life for all of us sinners, then you will appreciate this event.

For more info on the event check us out at www.thegoodnews-dailyedition.com or email me at jeffvittatoc@yahoo.com. Thanks for reading and we hope to see ya at the sagin'!
