The Good News

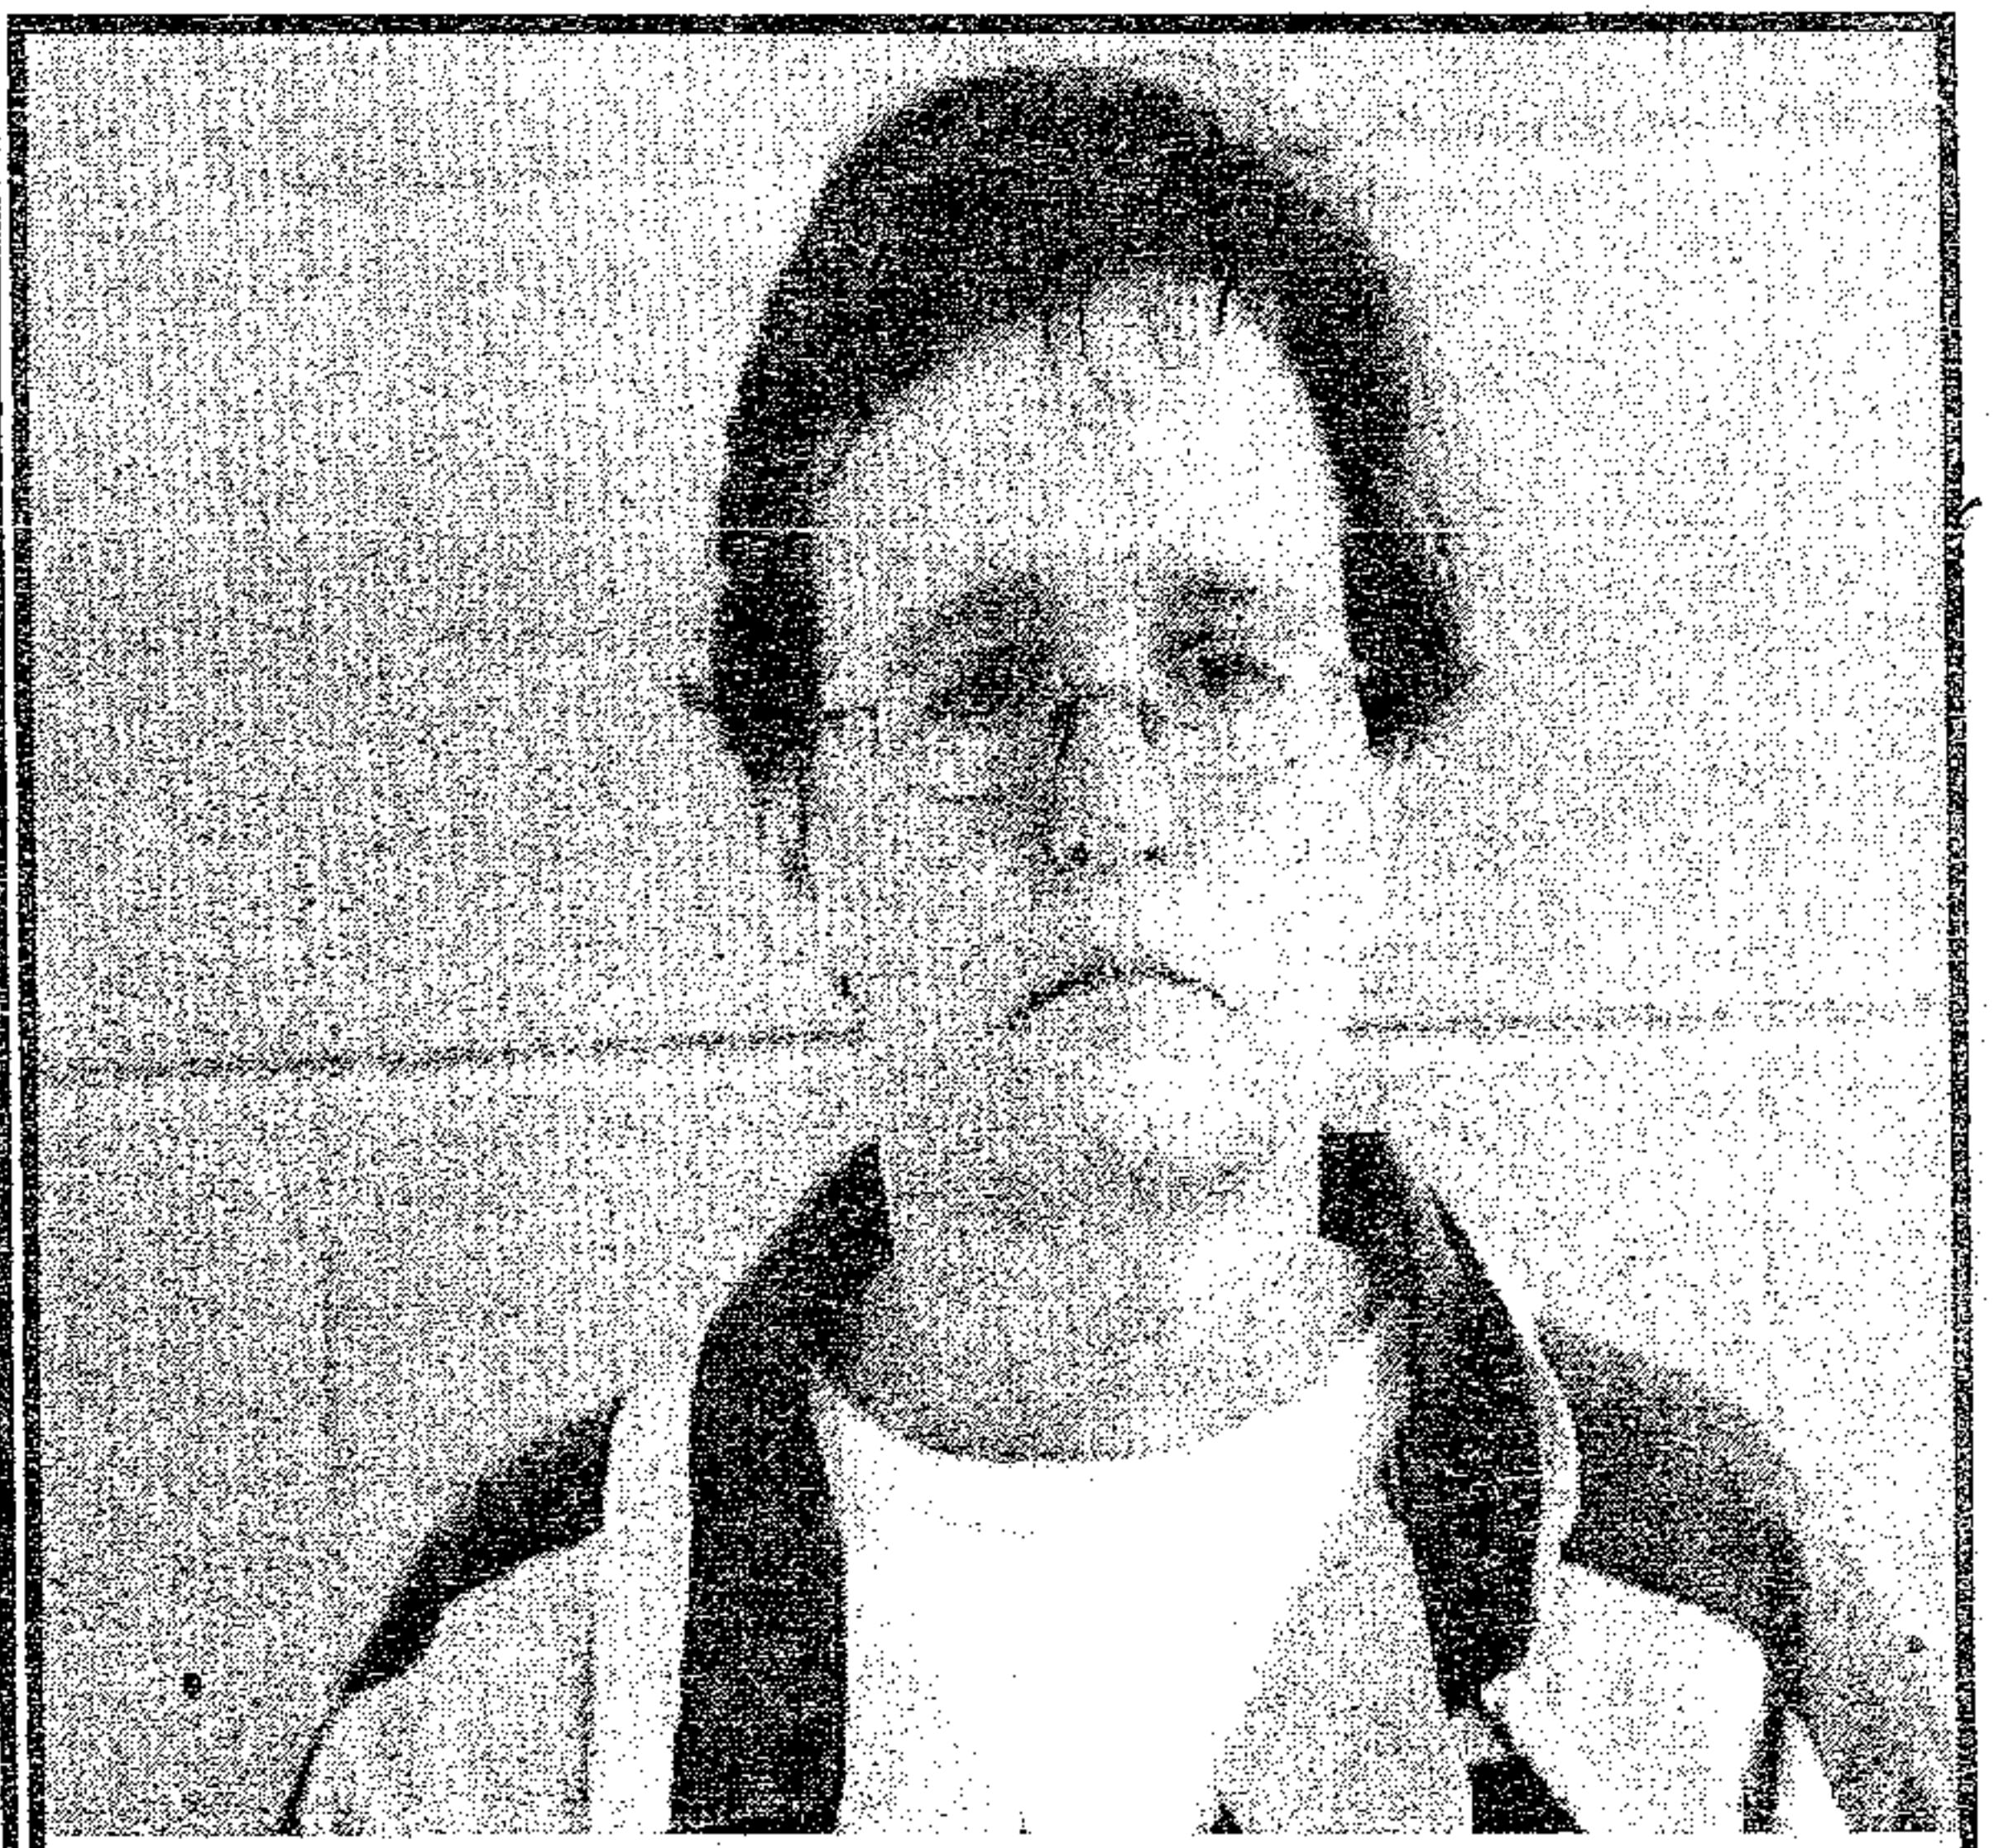

by Jeff Vittatoe

This past week I have been reading a book that my friend David Choate gave me and came across a story that has been on my mind for a couple days. The book is named "Radically Unchurched" and it is authored by Dr. Alvin Reid. I ask you to imagine the following scenario in your church this coming Sunday morning: Dr. Reid describes a young man who is a new Christian walking into a local church just

Lauren Long, 24 Hackberry Street, Oak Ridge, was charged with Driving under the influence and violation of implied consent. Deputy Jamie Ketner LCSO reported he was behind a blue vehicle on Sugarlimb Rd. and observed it cross the fog and center line. The Deputy continued to follow the vehicle on HWY 11 and the driver turned the right blinker on where there no place to turn.

The Deputy initiated his lights and stopped the vehicle. The Deputy approached the vehicle and could smell a strong odor of alcohol coming from inside the vehicle. Lauren Long, had an alcohol odor coming from her person and blood shot watery eyes, and was unsteady on her feet. Lauren performed poorly on field sobriety test. She was read the implied consent law and refused and was placed under arrest. Deputy Jamie Ketner LCSO made the arrest.

Billy Hopson, 57 Oakridge HWY, Knoxville, was charged with Domestic Assault and Public intoxication. Officer Parker responded to Burger King on a suspicious person call. Prior to law enforcement arrival there had been a complainant of a man blocking the entrance to the restaurant. Upon arrival Officer met with victim who said she was driving her brother and they were picking up some friends. Billy was sitting in the seat behind her when she asked her brother to keep his voice down, when he started hitting the roof of her car. Victim threatened to have him get out of the vehicle, at which time he threatened to break her neck, he then grabbed her around the neck and choked her and also covered her eyes so she could not see to drive, she had to then slam on the brakes and started to blow the horn so someone would help her. Officer then met with Billy who was in front of the entrance to Burger King and was staggering around the parking lot, he had a strong odor of alcoholic beverage about his breath. Billy was placed under arrest. Charlie Parker LCPD made the arrest.

as the morning service begins. The young man has long, nappy hair, is dressed in old clothes and enters the church without any shoes. As he begins walking down the center aisle he finds that the pews are full of people and there is no place for him to sit. The young man slowly continues toward the front of the church as everyone watches with disbelief. Some are whispering to one another but all eyes are upon this stranger. When he gets near the front of the church without finding a seat, he calmly sits down in the aisle.

The whole church is watching, the preacher has stopped speaking and everyone is waiting to see who was going to address the situation. In just a moment one of the eldest deacons of the church slowly rises to his feet from the front row and begins to walk towards the center aisle with the sound of his cane gently tapping the floor as he approached the young man. Everyone was intently focused on the deacon and you could have heard a pin drop in the sanctuary as the old timer walked up to the young man, slowly leaned over, and then sat down in the floor beside the young Christian.

The Pastor of the church cleared his throat and then made the following statement; "What I am about to preach, many of you will never remember. What you have just seen, you will never forget!"

As you were reading this story were you anticipating how the deacon was going to remove the young man without causing a scene? Me too! Would you have responded as did the deacon? Me neither! Would you have given up the seat you occupy week after week to allow a nappy headed, bare footed, dirty clothes wearing young person to sit down in "your" pew? I know..... me neither!

I was convicted by this story and reminded that Christ didn't cool His heels on a padded pew waiting on well-dressed people needing salvation to come to Him. No, Jesus was out taking the gospel message to the lost wherever He found them.

Luke 5:27-31 (NKJV) (27) After these things He went out and saw a tax collector named Levi, sitting at the tax office. And He said to him, "Follow Me." (28) So he left all, rose up, and followed Him. (29) Then Levi gave Him a great feast in his own house. And there were a great number of tax collectors and others who sat down with them. (30) And their scribes and Pharisees complained against His disciples, saying, "Why do You eat and drink with tax collectors and sinners?"

(31) Jesus answered and said to them, "Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick. (32) I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance."

What would happen today if each of us began to look at others as Christ looks at us. What if we could ignore the clothing, the old vehicle, the tattoos or body piercings, the long hair or even skin color of every one we see today and look at each person as a potential lost soul needing Christ? What if we made a conscience effort to reach out to someone that we normally don't talk to and tell them about the saving power of Jesus? Will we as Christians continue to look down our noses to those who don't look like us or will we do as the deacon in the story above, walk over to them and have a seat?

I pray that God will give us a humble spirit and a heavy heart for our community. I pray that we as Christians will make the gospel known by living as Christ lived, loving as Christ loved and telling those around us that He lives today and salvation can only be found by placing our trust in Him alone!

Margaret Radford, 46 Jarnigan, St. Jefferson City, was charged with Filing false report.

The warrant stated Lt. Patrick Upton LCSO was dispatched to Park West Hospital to investigate a possible rape. Upon investigation Investigator Upton reported he conducted an interview with Ms. Radford. Radford advised that she went to her adopted Father's residence on Shipley Lane to pick up some clothes.

Ms. Radford stated that on arrival at the residence she was raped by her Father.

After interviewing the Father, he advised that he did not force sex upon victim that it was consensual.

Later Radford admitted that she was not raped, and was charged with filing a false report.

Deputy Angie Martin LCSO made the arrest.
