Nabbed

and she seen someone with long hair in her driveway and the person was getting into a navy blue car. When the Victim went to her vehicle the glove box door in the van and console were open and all the papers were thrown in the floor. Complainant stated that her purse was under the passenger seat and that the purse was missing.

When Complainant called the ORNL Credit Union to get her debit card turned off the Credit Union told complainant that someone had tried to use the credit card at the Dollar General Store in Loudon, but the card was declined. Complainant described her purse as a white cloth purse with flowers on it and that it had brown handles. Complainant also had a white woman's wallet with gold design on it.

The Deputy did speak with the manager at the Dollar General Store and he checked his video system and he did have the person that attempted to use the complainant's debit card. Manager stated that it was a white female with dark shoulder length hair. When the manager spoke with his cashier she told the Manager that the female was in a dark blue car and that a white male was with her. The defendant was identified in the video as Pamela Chastain. Pamela was found in possession of the dark blue vehicle and the wallet belonging to victim was found in the dash of the vehicle. Investigator Jeff Russell LCSO made the arrest.
