Burglary

the business has been closed for a while (out-of-business) however the store's inventory was still located inside the building at Highway 11 East Lenoir City. Entry was gained through a rear door (appeared to have been kicked and forced open, then once inside, an interior wall broken in order to gain access to front half of the store building. Exit from the building appeared to have been via the front door for the deadbolt lock was unlocked.

tailed list (14 pages) of all known items taken at this time and said list given to Loudon County Sheriff's Dept CID - Sgt. Charles Cosner.

Further information was found by complainant upon searching "paintball" on Craig's List. Complainant thus discovered that someone had posted as early as 11-06-13, several paintball items including photographs of the items which complainant positively identified as his. The identification was assured because the items taken had special item # stickers on them which complainant used for inventory purposes. The items shown on Craigs List, contained the same Id # stickers on them and could be seen in the photos.
