Theft

Cory Williamson, 21, Dawson Street, Vonore was charged with DUI. Deputy Brian Smith LCSO did observe a silver vehicle traveling on HWY 72 toward Steekee School Road crossing the center dividing line with expired registration. After activating emergency lights to stop the vehicle at HWY 72 and Steekee School, Deputy made contact with the driver Cory Williamson. The Deputy observed while speaking with Mr. Williamson he had glassy bloodshot eyes and could smell a strong odor of alcohol coming from his person. Upon Cory exiting the vehicle the Deputy observed Cory bracing himself on the vehicle and was very unsteady. Cory did poorly on field sobriety test, and was placed under arrest. Deputy Brian Smith LCSO made the arrest.

Theft of property

According to the report, Deputy Rayfield was dispatched to Pardue Lane on the theft of a bathtub. Deputy arrived on the scene and spoke to Victim. The victim advised me that he is fixing this building up and has moved some appliances out the back door next to the back of the house so work could be done inside. The victim advised me that in the last couple of days that someone had stolen his cast iron bathtub that was sitting outside the back door next to a refrigerator. The bathtub was green in color and was very heavy. The victim advised the deputy he had no idea what the tub was worth.
