Morgan Pope, 18, Roberson Springs Road, Loudon was charged with Underage DUI, and Unlawful receiving, poss., transporting.

According to the report, Deputy Brandon Burley LCSO, observed a Mercury Grand Marquis traveling on Pond Creek Road. While Deputy Burley was observing the vehicle in motion, the afore mentioned vehicle did leave the roadway on multiple occasions. The vehicle then turned onto Dry Valley Road where it again left the roadway on multiple occasions, with the final occasion the vehicles passenger side tires did enter the grass of a yard. Deputy Burley at the next available safe location did conduct a traffic stop on the afore mentioned vehicle, after the vehicle came to a stop, Deputy Burley did exit the vehicle and the driver started driving again, eventually the vehicle did stop. During initial contact with the driver, Morgan Augusta Pope, there was a distinct odor of alcohol coming from the vehicle. Pope did admit to the deputy that she had just left a party in Philadelphia where she had been drinking beer. Pope was also having difficulty retrieving her driver's license as she passed it on multiple occasions. When Pope did locate her driver's license she dropped the license on the exterior of the vehicle. Pope again had difficulty locating her vehicles registration and insurance. During this encounter while Pope was attempting to locate her documents Deputy Burley was able to see in plain view was a mason jar with what appeared to be moonshine. Deputy Burley did have Pope exit the vehicle to conduct Standardized Field Sobriety Tasks.

Pope did poorly on all Standardized Field Sobriety Tasks and as such was placed under arrest. Deputy Brandon Burley LCSO made the arrest.
