Man who fled in December high speed chase captured

On December 28, 2012, Lenoir City Police Department's Officer Keith Sennett stopped a vehicle traveling 80mph in a 65mph zone on I75 at the 81 mile marker. The vehicle was a white Dodge Avenger and the officer spoke with the driver, Mr. Harris, of Oak Ridge.

According to the warrants, Harris stated he was driving a rental car and he and the passenger, Kyle Cofer had

Counting the Cost

I was in my home office this morning asking God to speak to my heart with a message for today's Good News when my phone rang. The lady on the other end was a realtor that Blondie and I had contacted a few days ago regarding listing our home. She introduced herself and told me that she remembered my wife, whom she has known for many years but has not seen. She then said, "now you're a preacher right?" I proceeded to inform her that I wasn't a preacher but that I do try to spread the gospel as a follower of Christ. She said that she knew we were really

Cat Owners can "Beat the Heat" Before Spring

(see Promotion pg. 4)

Warm weather may still be several months away, but PPAW wants you to "beat the heat" by spaying your female cats in advance of their heat cycle and prevent unwanted litters from being born this Spring.

The Loudon County

Animal Shelter commonly refers to spring-time as "kitten season" because that is when they receive the largest influx of unwanted litters that are difficult to adopt.

Deer Harvest Totals Pass 176,600 for 2012-13

(see Harvest pg. 7)

More than 176,600 deer were harvested in Tennessee during the recently completed 2012-13 season as data continues to be gathered by the Tennessee Wildlife Resources Agency.

The statewide season concluded Jan. 6 and the youth hunt followed on Jan. 12-13. This year's harvest tops last year's total of 167,821. The

Hill

A third man has been charged in connection with the early November larceny of several heads of cattle taken from a Philadelphia location and sold in Alabama and Athens.

Gary James Hill, 22, of Frontier Road, Sweetwater was charged with theft over $1000.

According to warrants filed by Detective Jeff Russell, LCSO CID; on or about November 3, 2012, James Gary Hill, Christopher Vernon Lethcoe, and James Matthew Kiser went to a field located on Dry Valley Road in Philadelphia where they took several black cows. The cows were taken to a location in Sweetwater identified as a Chris Gunter's residence.

The cattle were picked up the next day by Gary Hill and Chris Lethcoe and were taken to Russellville, Alabama where they were sold at an auction house.

On or about the 5th of November Hill, Kiser, and Lethcoe went back to the same field and loaded four more cattle and did the same, leaving them overnight at the same place, before taking them to Athens Stock-yard and selling them to an unknown person outside of the sale.

The victim did not give anyone permission to take the cattle.

Hill was taken into custody by Corporal John Wilson, LCSO.

Kiser was taken into custody on January 22, 2013, and Lethcoe on January 31, 2013, for their alleged roles in the crime.

active in our church and just assumed I was a preacher. She told me that she too was a Christian and shared where her family went to church before discussing how we should approach selling our house.

After the call I began to think about her words and about our churches as a whole. I wondered if we as Christians do SO little for the kingdom of God that when someone is truly trying to follow Christ they are automatically assumed to be a preacher or church leader? And if so, what does that say about us as folks who overwhelmingly claim to be saved by the grace of God through faith in Jesus Christ?

Today's topic is not about me or what God is doing in mine and Angie's life, it's about all of us who profess to be saved and what our lives really look like to God and to those around us. Are we shirking our responsibility to tell others about Jesus? Are we allowing our bodies to be a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God as stated in Romans 12:1-2? I believe that we ARE shirking our responsibilities as Christians. I also believe the number of Christians living a Romans 12:1-2 lifestyle are unfortunately very few.

I fear that when counting (see TGN ctd. pg. 5)

cats born this spring, the PPAW Spay/Neuter Clinic is offering a special "Beat the Heat" promotion sponsored by PetSmart Charities. During the entire month of February, PPAW will spay female cats for a special rate of $20, which includes two vaccinations.

Spaying and neutering is one of the most effective ways to reduce the homeless pet population, and is safe for kittens as young as 10 weeks old, according to the American Veterinary Medical Association. Spaying a female cat before the first heat cycle is actually beneficial, rather than waiting until after one heat cycle has occurred. The procedure is known to improve the health of the pet and prevents "accidental" litters.

"Female cats can have as many as three litters a year, and kittens can breed as young as four months old," says Deborah Searless, of PPAW. "Most people don't want to see their cat get pregnant over and over again, so hopefully our "Beat the heat" campaign will serve as a gentle reminder to cat owners to sterilize their cats before they go into heat and become pregnant this year."

This special rate is even less than PPAW's normal low-cost price and is available to all residents of Loudon County. Cat parents who wish to take advantage of this offer must mention the "Beat the Heat" promotion when they schedule their appointment.

Thanks to the PetSmart Charities grant, PPAW will provide 200 cat sterilizations for $20 during February. Please visit PPAWSpayNeuterClinic.com or call 865.856.7729 for more information or to schedule an appointment.

Located in Greenback, the PPAW Spay/Neuter Clinic has been sterilizing dogs and cats since November, 1998, in an effort to end the tragedy of animal overpopulation.

whoever loses his life for My sake will save it.

Mathew 10:37-39 (NKJV) (37) He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. (38) And he who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me. (39) He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for My sake will find it.

True discipleship begins with repentance of sin. We must first realize that our minimal efforts to act like true believers are not consistent with someone picking up their cross and following Jesus. We must seek forgiveness of the things in our lives that we have placed in front of Jesus and then stop doing those things.

When we have truly repented of our sin, we must then begin to communicate with Jesus through prayer and through the dedicated study of God's word. A true prayer is not a standard 30 second rendition of something we have heard others pray, but a time of pouring out our hearts to the Almighty God of the universe and asking for guidance, courage, boldness, strength and any other need that we have. When we study the Bible, we should read slowly and carefully while asking God to speak to us through His Word. You will be amazed how God will speak to your situation and how He uses the Bible to direct our thoughts, actions and desires.

When a believer has truly repented of sins and sought God through prayer and (see TGN ctd. pg. 7) the cost of being a disciple maker for Christ, many believers find that they are not willing to make the sacrifices required to be effective. It seems that living as Jesus has shown us to live requires giving up things that some are not willing to live without or requires serving someone other than ourselves. Many "Christians" want to be viewed as followers of Christ on Sunday morning but they also want the privilege to think, speak and act as the world does on the other six and a half days of the week. This is unacceptable in God's eyes and desperately needs to change if you claim to be a Christian. Our lives should be so full of Jesus that we all are mistaken as preachers by others all the time.

So what is the cost of discipleship? Let's hear it from the lips of Jesus:

Luke 9:23-24 (NKJV) (23) If anyone desires to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me. (24) For whoever desires to save his life will lose it, but driven from Atlanta and were en route to the Knoxville/Oak Ridge area.

While speaking with the occupants of the vehicle the officer detected a strong odor of marijuana emanating from the passenger compartment. He officer then called for additional units and asked the driver to exit the vehicle and placed Mr. Harris in the patrol car.

Mr. Harris stated he and Mr. Cofer were smoking marijuana while in Atlanta and there was no marijuana in the vehicle. Mr. Harris was told he was not under arrest and to wait at the patrol car while the officer questioned Mr. Cofer.

When the officers approached the back of the rental car, the vehicle sped off on the interstate. The officer immediately jumped in his vehicle and began a pursuit.

The vehicle traveled in excess of 115mph, weaving in an out of traffic, putting the lives of innocent motorists in danger.

While maintaining these speeds, the vehicle also turned off its lights, but the officer maintained visual contact and was joined by LCSO in the pursuit. They were unsuccessful, however, in their attempt to stop Mr. Cofer.

Upon arrival back at the scene, Mr. Harris was issued several citations and released. Kyle Cofer knowingly obstructed law enforcement at the time of the traffic stop.

Sgt. Jerramie Bowen, LCSO reported in his warrant, the suspect vehicle went down the shoulder of I40 east at over 100mph and swerved across three lanes of traffic, almost striking several vehicles and refused to stop. The deputy then followed the vehicle into Knox County and it finally stopped on Solway Road and the driver Kyle Cofer fled on foot into a wooded area and was not apprehended at that time.

Kyle Dwayne Cofer, 23, of Tyler Lane, Rockwood was charged with driving on suspended license, two counts of reckless endangerment, felony evading, felony fleeing lawful arrest, and obstruction of justice.

Deputy Carroll, LCSO made the arrest at the Anderson County Jail.

Harvest

harvest numbers range from the start of archery season on Sept. 22, 2012 through the final youth hunt.

Giles County leads the way with 5,500 deer harvested, slightly ahead of Henry County at 5,496, which had a strong finish down the stretch to move into second place past Fayette County, which had a harvest of 5,433. Rounding out the top 13 counties are Hardeman 4,851, Lincoln 4,638, Maury 4,003, Montgomery 3,873, Franklin 3,867, Hardin 3,687, Weakley 3,664, Carroll 3,652, and Madison 3,529.

More than 1,000 deer were harvested in 70 of the state's 95 counties. Polk County, in the southeastern corner of the state, had the lowest county harvest total with 209.

The harvest totals can be viewed on the TWRA website (www.tnwildlife.org) and is located in the "For Hunters" section.

TGN etc.

through study, God begins to take the "want to" out of the stuff you struggle with and replace it with a desire to know Him more. As this fire begins to grow inside of you, others will begin to notice that you have changed the places you go, the folks you hang out with and the things you do with your time and money. God begins to make helping others more rewarding than helping yourself.

Luke 9:23 (above) refers to taking up our cross daily. (Which means every day) The reason not very many people are being saved in our community today is because they don't see the advantages of following Christ displayed through the lives of Christians. Most of us are living just like the lost folks!

God has assured us that if we keep Him in the forefront of our lives for the 70 plus average years we have on this earth, that He will reward us greatly for all eternity when this life is over.

Mathew 6:19-21 (NKJV) (19) Do not lay up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy and thieves break in and steal; (20) but lay up treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust destroys and where thieves do not break in and steal. (21) For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

I believe this passage speaks about more than just our dollars. How do you invest your time, your talents, your words, your care, your passion or your friendship? When you stand before God to give an account of your life, and you will, what will you have contributed to the One who allowed you to breathe and gave His only Son as payment for your sins?

Have you really counted the cost of being a disciple of Jesus Christ? Better yet.... Have you counted the cost of not?
