The Good News

by Jeff Vittatoe

"But Who Do You Say That I Am?"

A couple of weeks ago I referenced a documentary that Blondie and I watched on Netflix called "One Nation Under God". It was a low budget film produced by some young Christians who traveled across the United States asking random folks along the way about who Jesus was and what they believed would happen after they died.

The responses they received across the nation proved to be frightening, but a good indicator of the spiritual condition our country is in. Several of those interviewed stated that they believed there was absolutely nothing...

February Revenues

Tennessee tax collections continued their upward trend in February. Department of Finance and Administration Commissioner Mark Emkes announced that overall February revenues were $744.3 million, which is $5.0 million more than the state budgeted.

On an accrual basis, February is the seventh month in the 2012-2013 fiscal year.

The general fund was over collected by $12.0 million and the four other funds were under collected by $7.0 million.

Sales tax collections were $3.0 million more than the estimate for February. The February growth rate was positive 2.42%. The year-to-date growth rate for seven months is positive 2.00%.

Franchise and excise taxes combined were (see Revenues pg. 4)

Snyder

Brent Allen Snyder, 26, of Steekee School Road, Loudon was charged with theft over $1000, violation of probation, and driving on revoked/suspended.

According to the reports, Officer Don Lorenz, LCPD was on patrol and observed Brent Snyder traveling north on Hwy 321 with the passenger side headlight out and stopped him. The driver, Mr. Snyder reported he was taking his girlfriend to the hospital. Snyder reported he borrowed his friend's car to drive the girl to the hospital because his license was revoked.

Sgt. Jeremy Dishner, LCPD reported Snyder had an outstanding warrant for VOP and he was taken into custody. At that time the officer was informed the county may have charges on the vehicle as well.

Just a couple of hours later, it was determined Brent Snyder was not the owner of the vehicle and he gave different accounts of who the owners were. The investigation then began and the officer contacted the owner from the registration. The owner was awakened by the phone and not aware his vehicle was gone from his driveway and had not given anyone permission to use it. At that time Snyder was detained and also had a VOP out of Knox County. Officer Don Lorenz, LCPD and Deputy J. Pistole, LCSO made the arrest and filed the charges.

Police Beat

Ray Edward Rasar, 63, of Snodderly Drive, Lenoir City was charged with DUI.

According to the report, Trooper C. Huff, THP observed a white vehicle on Hwy 321 with the driver not wearing a seatbelt and stopped it. The driver, Mr. Rasar, had a smell of an intoxicating beverage on his person and was unsteady on his feet.

Mr. Rasar performed poorly on sobriety tasks and a BAC was taken at the hospital. Trooper C. Huff, THP made the arrest.

PUBLIC NOTICE

The regularly scheduled monthly meeting of the Lenoir City Utilities Board has been changed for March. The Board Meeting will be held on Monday, March 25, 2013, at 6:00 p.m. and will be held in the Council Chambers of City Hall, 600 East Broadway, Lenoir City, Tennessee 37771.

Larowe

According to the report, Ms. Jane Doe, aka Tasha Larowe, took a locked box containing the victim's wallet with $2800 in cash, medications, and ID cards from his motel room located at Country's Best Inn and Suites in Loudon without the owners permission. The officer recovered the lock box in an outbuilding at a High Street residence that had been busted open.

Ms. Jane doe/Tasha Larowe had taken the money out of the box and had hidden it in the bathroom in a stack of towels at the residence. Ms. Larowe stated to the officer she was the one who took the box. Ms. Larowe was placed in the back of the officer's patrol car after being placed under arrest for theft over $1000. The officer stepped back to the front porch to talk to another officer and Larowe climbed through the partition in the cruiser and unlocked the doors and exited the vehicle and ran on foot. Ms. Larowe was located hiding in the bathroom of a business and had managed to come out of her left handcuff and was hiding it under her coat.

Jane Doe, aka Tasha Larowe, 27, homeless was charged with theft over $1000 and felony escape "A". Officer Kenny Ridings, LPD made the arrest.

Baker

According to the report, Officer Brandon Gentry, LCPD responded to a call at McGhee Square in reference to a fight. When the officer arrived he made contact with the victim, a woman.

The woman reported she and Kimberly Baker were in a fight after Baker started huffing duster and became violent. The victim stated during an argument Baker picked up a can of duster and threw it at her. The can hit her on the right side of her head and made a laceration just behind the ear. Baker and the victim reside at the same McGhee Square apartment.

Kimberly Nichole Baker, 19, of Kelly Lane, Lenoir City was charged with aggravated domestic assault.

Officer Brandon Gentry LCPD made the arrest. Revenues etd.

April 2012. They are available on the state's website at <http://www.tn.gov/finance/bud/budget.html>.

The State Funding Board met on December 14, 2012 to hear updated revenue projections from the state's various economies. The board met again on December 19th and adopted revised revenue ranges for 2012-2013. The revised ranges assume an over collection from the July 2012 budgeted estimate in the amount of $203.0 million to $287.3 million in total taxes and in the amount of $224.2 million to $305.9 million in general fund taxes for the current fiscal year.
