Beating on door for keys leads to PI

John Luther Easter, 45, of Paw Paw Plains Road, was charged with public intoxication.

According to the report, Deputy Chris Rowen, LCSO was dispatched to a report of an intoxicated person and upon arrival the suspect fled the scene. The complainant reported Easter was beating on her door wanting his keys so he could leave.

After a search of the area the deputy left and approximately 19 minutes later was called back to the scene. Upon returning to the scene the deputy found Mr. Easter in the front yard and he smelled strongly of an alcoholic beverage.

Easter performed poorly on sobriety tasks and was a danger to himself and others if left in public.

he tried to get Travis to calm down, but he became more agitated because the man would not let him in the bedroom to get his 5 month old son.

According to the warrants, at that point Travis then went to the kitchen and got a knife out of the drawer and threatened the man with it. Travis walked around with the knife and finally threw it down and the man got the knife and hid it.

Travis then stated he did not need the knife that he had a gun and went outside several times. At this point the man had already called 911. Travis then became more upset and left the scene on foot.

There were two juvenile children present at the time of the incident. The female victim reported she was trying to wake up Travis and put their son to bed and he became very upset and told her to leave him alone. The female victim then went to the table and was going to put some paperwork up and Travis began to yell at her and told her to leave it alone and then picked a rocking chair up and threw it down. At that time is when the male victim came downstairs and Travis got the knife:

Travis Burton McCollum, 40, of Fairview Road, Lenoir City, was charged with failure to appear, and two counts of aggravated domestic violence. Deputy John Maples, LCSO made the arrest.
