basis. He was identified by Investigator Russell due to the fact he lives on the road and did see Mr. Coursey in the area around the same time the event occurred.

According to the report, Mr. Coursey was interviewed and did admit he was on Malone Road and a vehicle did pass while he was urinating.

Given the location this occurred, the subject could have stepped into the woods, but instead stood on the edge of the road.

Joseph D. Coursey, 54, of Watkins Road, Loudon was charged with indecent exposure.

Investigator Jeff Russell, LCSO CID made the arrest and filed the charges.

Mayotte

Crez Deshae Mayotte, 20, Smith Road, Sweetwater was charged with sale and delivery of schedule VI marijuana and was taken into custody by Agent B. Burley.

According to an affidavit filed by Agent Brendan DeBoer, Ninth DTF: on July 27, 2013, agents from the Ninth Drug Task Force conducted a controlled purchase of marijuana from Crez Mayotte at a gas station on Highway 72 in Loudon.

A confidential source arranged the deal and met with Mayotte and exchanged pre-recorded buy money in the amount of $40 for marijuana that has a street name of "WoWo."

The transaction was monitored remotely and the evidence was tested and was in fact marijuana.

Mayotte was accompanied by a man identified as Kristopher Pierce, who reportedly was her boyfriend at the time.

Pierce was taken into custody on February 25, 2013, and was charged with facilitation of sale and delivery of a schedule VI controlled substance.

Gamsjager

Investigator Kevin Condee, LCPD received information that Melissa Gamsjager was selling marijuana in the Lenoir City area. Via text messages, the investigator established reasonable suspicion that Gamsjager was enroute to McDonalds in Lenoir City to deliver one ounce of marijuana. A short time later, the investigator observed a white female driving a gold Kia pull into the parking lot at McDonalds. The investigator pulled in behind her and approached the vehicle and immediately detected a strong odor of marijuana emitting from the vehicle. The investigator looked over and observed a bag in the front passenger seat that contained a green leafy substance believed to be marijuana. W

While conducting an inventory of the vehicle the investigator discovered four other baggies that exceed 4 ounces along with baggies, digital scales, a ledger book with names and dollar amounts, marijuana pipe, and other assorted paraphernalia. Gamsjager was also in possession of $1672 in cash and she stated some of the money came from selling marijuana.

Melissa Mae Gamsjager, 29, of Sunnyside Road, Philadelphia, was charged with possession of schedule VI for resale and possession of drug paraphernalia. Investigator Kevin Condee, LCPD made the arrest.

no response. After about a half mile pursuit, the woman pulled over to the emergency lane.

Officer Park reported the woman, later identified as Yarbrough, was very unstable on her feet and seemed confused when asked to retrieve her license.

Yarbrough had slurred speech, her eyes were bloodshot, and she refused to submit to a blood test.

The officer concluded his report by noting he found an empty pill bottle in Yarbrough's vehicle that has been filled on February 16, 2013 for a quantity of 90. Yarbrough said she had taken her medication. The directions on the prescription said to take three pills per day, but there were 53 pills missing. Yarbrough was transported to the Loudon County Jail.

Yelverton

Robert Andrew Yelverton, 23, Steekee Road, Loudon was charged with facilitation of sale and delivery of a schedule II controlled substance.

According to an affidavit filed by Agent Jeff Vittatoe, Ninth Drug Task Force: on February 19, 2013, agents from the Ninth DTF conducted an operation involving a confidential source and an undercover agent. The source told agents Yelverton was on his way to a location to deliver oxycodone.

Agents observed Yelverton arrive at the location and then the undercover agent, posing as a drug buyer, proceeded to the location.

Yelverton reportedly passed the pills to a woman identified as Patricia Sloan Vincil, who was to pass them to the undercover. The undercover arrived and purchased two 30 milligram oxycodone pills from Vincil.

Records indicate just after the deal, Yelverton and another female believed to be Casale Allison left the area.

Yelverton was taken into custody at a location on Highway 72 near Grove Street by Deputy Rondel Branam, LCSO and was transported to the Loudon County Jail.

Licenses may be purchased at any TWRA regional office, license agents, or online at TWRA's website: www.tnwildlife.org. Licenses may be purchased at the new TWRA mobile application link <http://www.gotwra.org> or by visiting the TWRA website and scanning the QR code. Licenses may also be ordered by telephone by calling 1-888-814-8972.

Resident licenses may be purchased by: persons who possess a valid Tennessee driver's license; persons who have lived in Tennessee for 90 consecutive days with the genuine intent of making Tennessee their permanent home; military personnel on active duty in this state and their immediate families, who reside with them, regardless of resident status; students who are enrolled in a Tennessee school, college, or university for at least six months (Out-of-state driver's licenses only accepted for military and student requirements). A Social Security number is required to purchase a Tennessee hunting or fishing license.

License sales provide the primary funding for the TWRA, which does not receive any funding from the state's general fund (i.e. state sales tax).

All licenses purchased by credit card will be charged a processing and handling fee. To expedite telephone orders, the caller should have ready the name, address, physical description, Social Security number, driver's license number, TWRA ID number (if renewal), and credit card number.

Licenses are printed on a special tear-resistant, water-proof paper.

In case of a lost license, duplicate licenses can be obtained from any TWRA
