A Mission for Christ

I am writing today from a 28 passenger New Providence Baptist Church van headed North bound on I-75 towards Knightstown, Indiana. A total of twenty-two men from our church are sacrificing their time and labor to travel to Indiana this weekend and replace a Church of Knightstown, as well as do some other small jobs within the Eastern Indiana Baptist Association.

This is the first mission trip that I have been on since being asked to assume the position of Global Missions Coordinator on the First Baptist (see TGN pg. 4)

she had been sexually assaulted by a male subject located on Gay Street in Loudon. The callers, who was able to get out of the apartment and back into her own apartment, advised the male subject was also assaulting his wife. The caller also advised 911 the male subject warned if the police were called, he would kill his wife. Upon arrival officers discovered a female subject, later identified as the sexual assault victim, distraught in the upstairs area. Officers then attempted to make contact with the individuals located inside the other apartment. When the officers received no response from within the apartment and fearing the female inside was in imminent danger, officers kicked the door in and made entry.

Once inside the apartment and intoxicated male identified as Jess Ferguson. Officers also located a female, the victim of the domestic assault, hiding in a closet. It was discovered

Jess became angry when his verbal and physical attempts to have sexual relations with both women at the same time were denied. Jess then ripped his wife's shirt apart in an attempt to expose her breasts. As the other female party fled the apartment, it is reported Jess then advised if the police were called he would kill his wife. Jess then attempted to strike the victim of the domestic numerous times with his hands, which resulted in her hiding and shielding herself from him in a closet.

In another warrant for sexual assault, Jess Ferguson committed the offense of sexual assault after he touched the victim in her private areas on top of her clothing. This was all done in an attempt to get the victim to have sexual relations with he and hte other victim. Jess also tried to rip the victims shirt off and at one point attempted to pull her pants down. Ferguson was very intoxicated at the time according to both victims.

Jess E. Ferguson, 31, of Gay Street, Loudon, was charged with assault by domestic violence and sexual assault. Officer Sam Harrison and Detective Brian Jenkins, LPD made the arrest and filed the charges.

dinator for New Providence Baptist Church. I am both excited and very nervous as I learn the responsibilities and duties that are associated with planning, organizing, and being somewhat responsible for others on a mission for Jesus Christ outside of Loudon County. (Not to mention many of our guys will be working twenty feet off the ground.... No pressure huh?)

I am proud to be a member of a church that is committed to making the gospel known to all nations and even more proud that our pastor has the confidence in my growing walk with Christ and my desire to serve that he has placed me in somewhat of a leadership role as it relates to missions. What an amazing opportunity to serve in my church, participate in missions and learn about other aspects of disciple making as God prepares Blondie and me for future service in the context and location of His divine choosing! If you can't tell, I am pretty stoked!!

Why Indiana someone might ask? Why not help the people in our community instead of going other places? Legitimate question I suppose and I have a simple answer.... We do that too!

I am proud to be part of a faith family that hosts hundreds of young adults each year in a program called Kingdom Project, where numerous teams stay at our church and go out each day into our community to assist the elderly and less fortunate with home repairs and basic maintenance. We have numerous youth, and adults as well, serving the needs of others each year with Christians from all over the country through another program called World Changers. I also love seeing all of the children who attend our Vacation Bible School each year. Most years we see children make the decision to invite Jesus Christ into their hearts and lives, which is (or should be) the sole purpose of vacation Bible school.

This year we have a team of teachers going to assist some of the poverty stricken and poorly equipped school teachers in Guatemala and a team of medical professionals going there a few weeks later to offer basic medical care to the folks who live in those small rural villages with no insurance, no money and very little hope. Along with the resources and services that local Christians from within our church family are taking to these remote places, the hope that is found in Jesus Christ is the real reason behind every trip.

This weekend the men on this bus with me are absolutely going to tear off and replace a roof on a church that is probably 400 miles away. We will most likely do some painting and several other small projects, but make no mistake.... we are going to Indiana to share the gospel, hope and excitement that is found in Jesus Christ. We are going to encourage the members of that church and motivate them to do the same for others in that community. We have invited the men of over 12 churches in the Eastern Indiana Baptist Association and plan to invite other men from within the community to attend a men's rally on Friday night. We will be providing free see TGN etd. pg. 5 hamburgers and hot dogs and giving away Bibles just before the gospel of Jesus Christ is shared by our dynamic Pastor, Mark Caldwell.

I am not a spokesperson for New Providence Baptist Church but I am, as all Christians should be, a spokesperson for Jesus. I have read the Book of Acts and I understand that Jesus told His disciples that they (also meaning we) are to be His witnesses to Jerusalem, to all Judea, to Samaria and to the ends of the earth (Acts 1:8).

I understand that to mean that we tell folks in Loudon County, throughout the state of Tennessee, across our nation (including Indiana) and around the world that Jesus loves them. We tell them how Christ suffered and died and then rose from the grave conquering death and proving that He is the Son of the One True God. We are to tell them that Jesus has made a way for us all to spend eternity with Him in heaven if we just believe in Him, trust in Him and confess that we are hopeless in our sin without Him.

I have found that when I travel to another context to encourage others that I am really the one who comes home encouraged. I am learning that the more I serve Christ, the more He blesses my life and changes the desires of my heart. If you are considering going to church for the first time or a member of a church that is just not seeking to make a real difference in our world for Christ, I encourage you to come visit us at New Providence Baptist sometime. God is changing lives in our church family and using our members to reach the nations. Come be part of what God is doing and experience the peace, joy and excitement of disciple making accomplished as Jesus told us to do it.

Thanks for reading today and feel free to share your thoughts, your testimony or any prayer request or need that Blondie and I can assist with or pray for. I can be reached at jeffvittatoe@yahoo.com or at (865) 304-6779.

and works gloves on his hands and with a black backpack standing on the second level of the building. The deputy commanded the subject to show the deputy his hands and he finally complied and dropped the bag and climbed down from the second floor and the deputy asked what he was doing there.

The man was identified as Jon Glen Wright and he stated he was just walking and he had walked from across the water in Monroe County. Mr. Wright was patted down for safety and the deputy discovered several tools in his pockets. Mr. Wrights stated he always walked with tools in his pockets.

A search of the backpack and Mr. Wright produced double sided tape, bolt cutters, screwdrivers, pliers and a short piece of copper that matched other copper items matching the building items stolen. During a pat down more copper was found.

Jon Glen Wright, 40, of Eladi Trail, Vonore, was charged with criminal trespassing, theft under $500 and possession of burglary tools. Deputy Chris Hutchens, LCSO made the arrest.

Police beat

Casimiro Saldana Deleon, 56, of Viking Road, Oak Ridge, was charged with driving on suspended. According to the report, Deputy John Bearden, LCSO was dispatched to an attempted kidnapping that occurred on Chrisman Road in Lenoir

City. While getting the description of the possible vehicle that was involved the deputy came across a vehicle that matched the description on Hwy 11 and stopped it. It was determined the vehicle was not involved in the matter, however, Mr. Deleon was found to have a suspended license. Deputy John Bearden, LCSO made the arrest.
