contact with the vehicle and followed it and observed the semi weaving and not being able to keep his lane of travel along with hitting the rumble patches on the shoulder and was stopped. Deputy Bowen also tried to get the semi to stop and it finally did and the driver stated he thought they were in a funeral procession. Mr. Morrow was the driver and he seemed lethargic and was unsteady on his feet. Mr. Morrow performed poorly on sobriety tasks and gave a BAC test at the hospital. Deputy Chris Bowen, LCSO made the arrest.

Haslam Releases Statement on HB 1191/SB 1248

Tennessee Gov. Bill Haslam released the following statement regarding HB 1191/SB 1248:

"Agriculture is the No. 1 industry in Tennessee. Farmers play a vital role in our state's economy, heritage and history. I understand their concerns about large scale attacks on their livelihoods. I also appreciate that the types of recordings this bill targets may be obtained at times under false pretenses, which I think is wrong," Haslam said.

"Our office has spent a great deal of time considering this legislation. We've had a lot of input from people on all sides of the issue. After careful consideration, I am going to veto the legislation. Some vetoes are made solely on policy grounds. Other vetoes may be the result of wanting the General Assembly to reconsider the legislation for a number of reasons. My veto here is more along the lines of the latter. I have a number of concerns.

"First, the Attorney General says the law is constitutionally suspect. Second, it appears to repeal parts of Tennessee's Shield Law without saying so. If that is the case, it should say so. Third, there are concerns from some district attorneys that the act actually makes it more difficult to prosecute animal cruelty cases, which would be an unintended consequence.

"For these reasons, I am vetoing HB1191/SB1248, and I respectfully encourage the General Assembly to reconsider this issue."
