Event

Stephen Lane reported he observed Ms. Hurst with Mrs. Burns selecting then concealing various merchandise in Ms. Hurst's purse. The two then exited the store, past all points of sale without paying for the item. Loss prevention agents detained the two women. Upon investigation, it was further found that Ms. Hurst and Ms. Burns had previously been given a no trespass order from Walmart and both females were taken into custody.

During a search of Ms. Hurst's property in her purse, a metallic clasp bag was found that contained a blue container which contained five oval light green pills identified a Alprazolam 1mg, along with 2 white oblong pills identified as a schedule III narcotic containing hydrocodone. Also in the blue container was a small baggie containing a brown, putty like substance believed to be heroin.

Carmella Burns

Christina Marie Hurst, 35, of Mentor Road, Louisville, was charged with theft under $500, trespassing, possession of schedule I, possession of schedule III and possession of schedule IV.

Carmella Jo Burns, 49, of Toomey Lane, Madisonville, was charged with theft under $500 and trespassing. Officer E. Lawson LCPD made the arrest.

Jessica Peyton Pe-
trizzo, 19, of Browder
Hollow Road, Lenoir
City, was charged with domestic assault. According to the report,

Officer E. Lawson, LCPD responded to a domestic assault in progress.

According to the complainant, Jessica was fighting with the victim. Upon arrival Officer Brandon Gentry had already made
contact with the victim and spoke with the complainant.

After Officer Lawson
spoke with the parties
it was determined Jessica was the primary aggressor.

It was reported Ms.
Petruzzo accidentally had thrown noodles and accidentally thrown pans and accidentally
ripped the victims shirt off.

The officer reported
she had previously responded to the same residence on April 25th

evening after behaving belligerently and essentially terrorizing the household, but there was no assault and she left that night.

Officer E. Lawson,
LCPD made the arrest.
