SPECIAL The Good News

by Jeff Vittatoc,

A Tribute to a Hometown Hero!

In every town across our great nation there is always one person whose name is known and has passed through the lips of practically every citizen within the town at some point, in some way; in Lenoir City that name is Jonathan Sartin, or to most people he was simply known as "Sartin".

It may be that he has arrested you or someone in your family sometime during the last three decades. It may be that he has coached your children in sports, or stood behind home plate calling baseball games for your team and maybe even also for your children after you. If you have been a victim of a crime within the city limits of Lenoir City then you have undoubtedly also met Jonathan Sartin. Every patrol officer, criminal investigator or drug agent within a hundred miles of Lenoir (see TGN pg. 4)

Charged

Kelley did remove from the victims home, on Browder Hollow Road, a ladies Fossil watch valued at $325.

Kelley committed the offense without the victims permission or knowledge with the intent to deprive the victim thereof.

Cody Arlen Kelley, 27, of Evans Lane, Lenoir City, was charged with theft under $500. Officer Allen Bean, LCPD made the arrest.

Police beat

Brian Michael Sargent, 26, of Browder Hollow Road, Lenoir City, was charged with domestic assault.

According to the report, Officer Don Lorenz, LCPD was dispatched to Browder Hollow Road regarding a past domestic assault. When the officer arrived he spoke with Brian Sargent who reported he and the victim had been in a verbal argument.

Brian told the officer the argument had not been physical. Brian told the officer he took the victim's cell phone and threw it down and broke it.

The victim had left when the officer arrived and gave a statement to other officers. The victim had two small marks on her left and right shoulder, which she claimed had been caused by Brian stabbing her with a knife. Brian denied having touched the victim at all. The victim had an abrasion on her knee, which she said was caused by Brian throwing her down.

There were two children present in the home at the time of the incident. Brian had been drinking and the officer could smell an odor of an alcoholic beverage coming from Brian. Officer Don Lorenz, LCPD made the arrest.

James Daniel Davis, 22, of Depot Street, Lenoir City, was charged with driving on revoked license.

According to the report, Deputy Rondel Branam, LCSO observed a green vehicle over the center line into oncoming traffic on Davis Ferry in Loudon. The deputy stopped the vehicle in a driveway on Mt. Zion Church Road.

A check showed Mr. Davis to have a revoked license for failure to file security after an accident. Deputy Rondel Branam, LCSO made the arrest.

Alicia Dawn Partin 22, of Steekee School Road, Loudon, was charged with violation of probation. Corporal Michael Wilson, LCSO made the arrest.

Sara Faye Lowe, 28, of Millsaps Road, Greenback,, was charged with failure to appear. Deputy Daniel Ferguson, LCSO made the arrest.

Terry Lynn Thomas, 41, of Millertown Pike, Knoxville, was charged with an attachment. Deputy N. Wilson, LCSO made the arrest.

Leonard Ray Walker, 39, of Amanda Circle, Knoxville, was charged with failure to appear on DORL. Deputy Nathan Wilson, LCSO made the arrest.

Joshua Chezell Phillips, 27, of Arlena Drive, Cleveland, was charged with violation of probation. Deputy N. Wilson, LCSO made the arrest.

David Ray Lee, 36, of Woody Lane, Harriman, was charged with violation of probation. Officer E. Lawson, LCSO made the arrest.

City has, at some point in their career, worked a case with or attended training with this detective that I am so proud to call my friend. There are some people in our lives that just seem to have always been there and we cannot imagine a time that they're not around; Jonathan Sartin is that guy.

For me, it began when I was barely an adult and my daily activities consisted of avoiding the police in Lenoir City, especially the guy they called "Sartin" who had a drug sniffing dog named "Rocky". He was all business and a hoodlem's worst nightmare. I am ashamed of the young man I was in those days and if I had been caught by Jonathan doing some of the things I was doing back then I would not have been a good candidate for a police officer in later years.

As I grew a little older and decided to pursue a career in law enforcement, I got to know Jonathan personally and developed a deep respect for the way he dealt with people and dedicated himself to the relentless pursuit of a safer community. It has never been uncommon to see him working late at night, on the weekends or during any event in Lenoir City in which he thought he might be able to help. This kind of law enforcement commitment is seldom found today and Jonathan maintained that motivation even until his last breath.

A few years ago he and I attended a week of child abduction training in Denver Colorado together, along with a couple of other officers from our area. I ashamedly was a heavy drinker in those days and encouraged Sartin to join me for drinks almost daily. I am now glad that he never succumbed to my relentless peer pressure, but instead insisted that he drive the rest of us around until well after midnight each evening to keep us safe and out of trouble. The day before we all left Colorado, Sartin drove us through the Rocky Mountain National Park where we stopped at almost every viewing area and repeatedly stood in complete awe of the beauty God created within the Rocky Mountains. It was an awesome experience and I am grateful to have spent that time with him.

About a year ago I met Jonathan to deliver some survival bracelets that I had made for him and we talked for some time about what God is doing in mine and Blondie's lives. He told me that he was proud of our decision to follow Christ and excited to see how God will use us in the future. Jonathan then shared with me about his relationship with Christ and how God had also provided for him throughout his life. Based upon that conversation and the way Sartin lived his life, I am confident of his current 10-20 (if you will).

that was crucified beside Him and recorded in Luke 23:43, "Assuredly, I say to you, today you will be with me in paradise."

II Corinthians 5:8 (NKJV) We are confident, yes, well pleased rather to be absent from the body and to be present with The Lord.

My friend Jonathan Sartin has fought the good fight in this small town for each of us, he has finished his race with dignity and character, he has kept his faith. Detective Sartin is now with Jesus Christ receiving his reward of eternal life. He is now walking on streets made of gold in the presence of our Creator! I am sad that he is gone but I rejoice in knowing that where he is, I too will be someday!

Jonathan's untimely departure from this life should serve as a reminder that none of us are promised tomorrow. Each breath we inhale is a gift from God but could also undoubtedly be our last. What better way to honor a true hero than to take this time to evaluate the condition of your own life in relation to eternal salvation through faith in Christ.

Romans 10:9-10 makes spending eternity with Jesus and Jonathan Sartin pretty simple; (9) that if you confess with your mouth The Lord Jesus and believe in your heart that God has raised Him from the dead, you will be saved. (10) For with the heart one believes unto righteousness, and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.

As a final thought, let me encourage every Christian reading today to earnestly pray for Sartin's fiancé Tina, for his brother Kieth, for his children and everyone in the Sartin family who is dealing with the loss of such a hero to our community. Pray for those who have served beside Jonathan for so many years at the Lenoir City Police Department and for those whose lives he has touched along the way. To my friend Sartin I can only say this; I am a better man for knowing you and I look forward to seeing you again one day in the presence of our Savior, Jesus Christ. Selah!

Reckless

Loudon County Medical Center on a domestic violence call. Upon arrival the officer met the victim who reported his brother Richard Langenbach had put his hands around his throat and hit him in the face four times.

This occurred due to an argument over rent money. The victim did have a swollen upper cheek with a laceration.

They had also been drinking prior to the incident. The officer then spoke with a witness who reported they had been lying in bed when Richard came into the room arguing about money. The victim was going to give him the money, Richard shoved the victim down, choked and punched him 4 times in the face. The victim then got dressed and left the residence enroute to the ER.

The officer then arrived at Browder Hollow Road and spoke with Richard. Richard reported they were arguing over rent money and the victim got mad and shoved him.

The victim threw a microwave and TV then left. Richard had a cut on his knuckle that was consistent with the injury to the victim. Officer C. Parker, LCPD made the arrest.

na Garalczyk, was found through a check to have a violation of probation out of Monroe County. The rear passenger first gave his name as James Lawson and then a check showed Mr. Lawson had lied about his date of birth and social and found to have two active warrants out of Loudon County. When the deputies went to take Lawson into custody he resisted and had to be taken to the ground where he continued to resist and had to be physically restrained and controlled.

James Isaac Lawson, 45, of Caldwell Road, Loudon, was charged with resisting arrest, criminal impersonation, resisting arrest and possession of schedule II. Deputy Chris Hutchens, LCSO made the arrest.

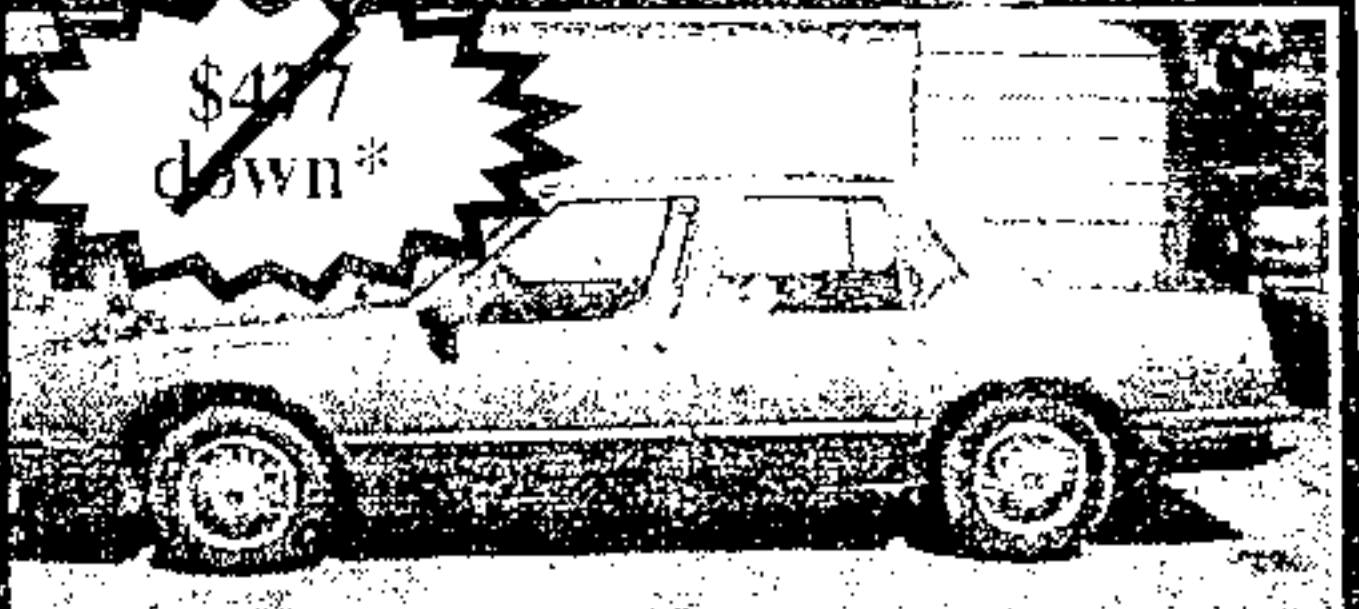

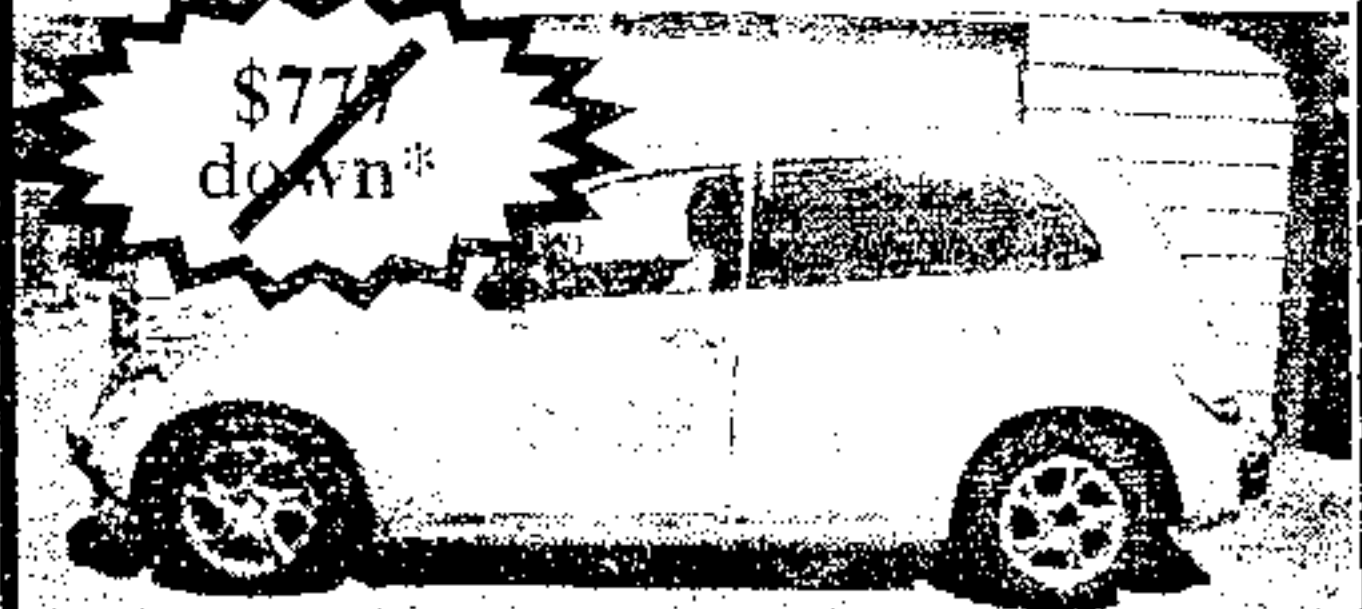

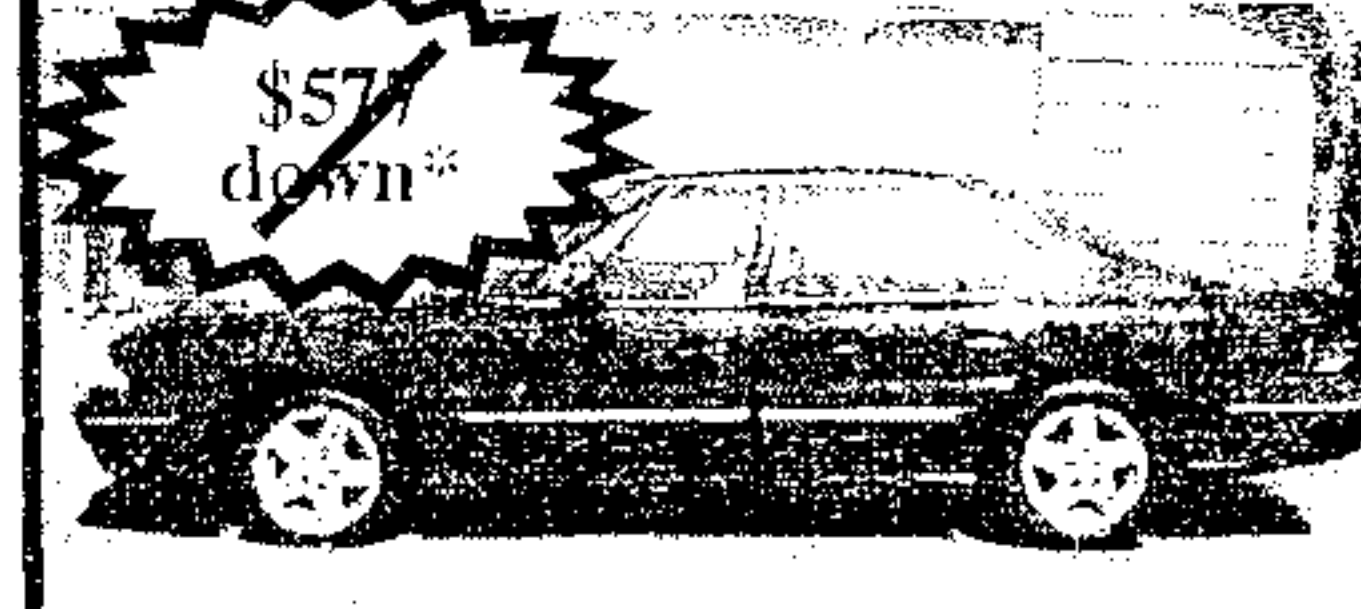

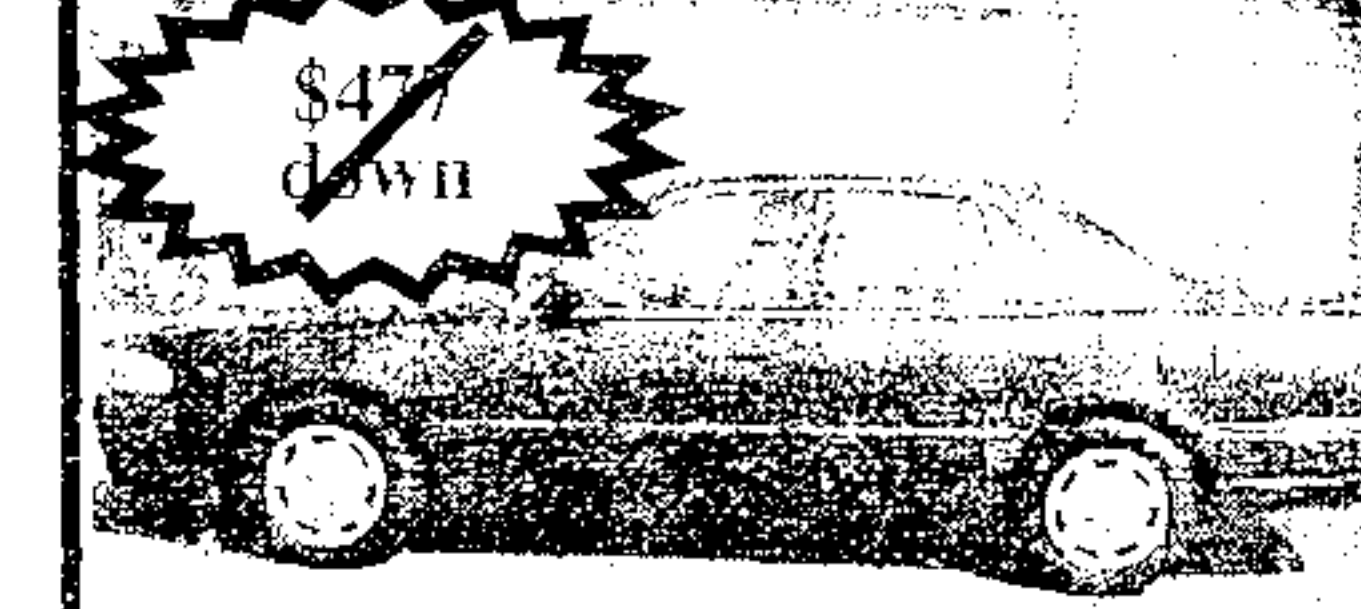

Deputy Chris Hutchens, LCSO observed a white Toyota on Fork Creek traveling 50mph in a 35mph zone. The deputy initiated a traffic stop on the vehicle in the back parking lot of the Grizzly Pig. As the deputy approached the vehicle the driver and front passenger exited the vehicle so the deputy had the back passenger exit as well. The front passenger identified as Ale-
