Elderly Abuse

According to the reports, Lt. Detective Patrick Upton, LCSO CID was dispatched to the TA Truck Stop on Watt Road in Lenoir City to help deputies Scarbrough and Bowen to investigate a possible elderly abuse.

Upon arrival the Lt. was advised by deputies the victim, an 83 year old woman, had been transported by ambulance to Ft. Sanders Loudon

ER for possible multiple injuries. Upon further investigation deputies advised an employee of the TA truck stop had found the victim almost unresponsive inside the cab of a Uhaul. The victim had feces all over her and had dogs tied to a chain and the chain was also rubbing the victim.

Deputy Scarbrough advised the victim could not stand on her own. Upon further investigation it was learned Pamela Atkins and Charles Mathis were on their way from North Carolina to Oklahoma.

Lt. Upton went to Ft. Sanders Loudon and the victim was suffering from very low blood pressure, dehydration and had to have medical attention also due to fecal matter and her clothes stuck to her body. The victim was taken to ICU because of her condition. During an interview both Mrs. Atkins and Mr. Mathis admitted proper care was not taken to insure the victims health.

Pam Michele Atkins, 54, homeless and Charles Edward Mathis, 40, also homeless, were charged with elderly abuse.

Lt. Patrick Upton, LCSO CID made the arrest and filed the charges.

Police beat

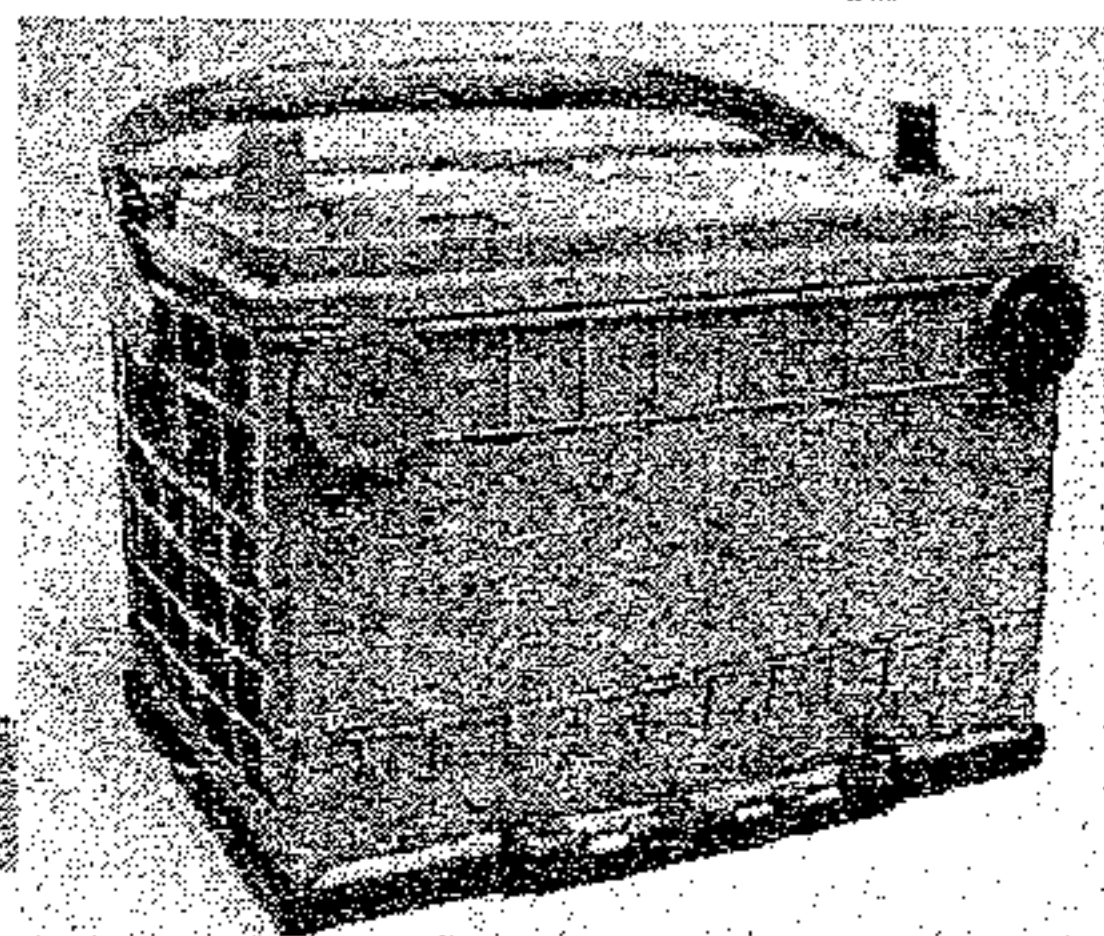

Gregory Clay Berry, 31, of Browder Hollow Road, Lenoir City, was charged with violation of probation. Officer j. Anderson, LCPD made the arrest.

Road Rage

According to the report, Officer K. Sennett, LCPD responded to a fight call. Upon arrival the officer was met by the victims along with three other witnesses who saw the incident and helped render aid to the victims. Through the officers investigation Bryant Vincent Stokes and the victims were having road rage issues in the area of KFC and Walmart. The victims then went around Stokes vehicle to try and leave the area. When the victims were pulling onto Hwy 321, Bryant Stokes made an aggressive move to pass them then immediately and purposely stopped his vehicle causing the victims to run into Stokes truck.

This caused damage to both vehicles.

Then according to witnesses and the victims Stokes got out of his vehicle yelling and forced the victims driver door open. At that time Stokes punched the male victim in the face multiple times causing injuries to him. Then Stokes continued yelling and got back in his vehicle and fled the scene. Photos of the victim and the victim's vehicle were taken.

Bryant Vincent Stokes, 48, of Matlock Bend Road, Loudon, was charged with aggravated assault and vandalism. Officer K. Sennett, LCPD made the arrest.

Police beat

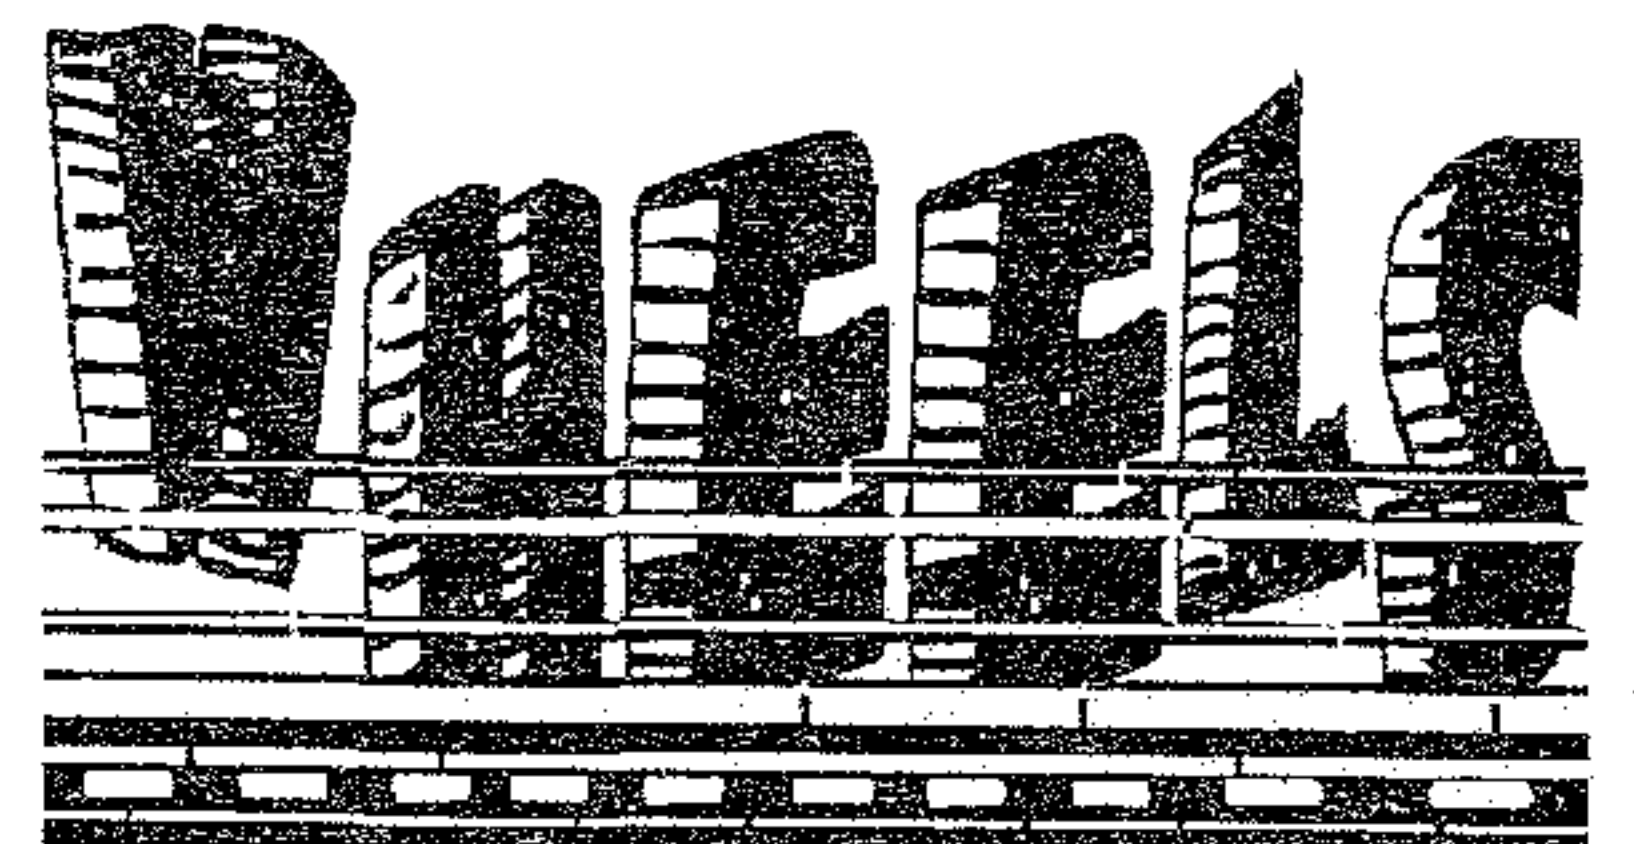

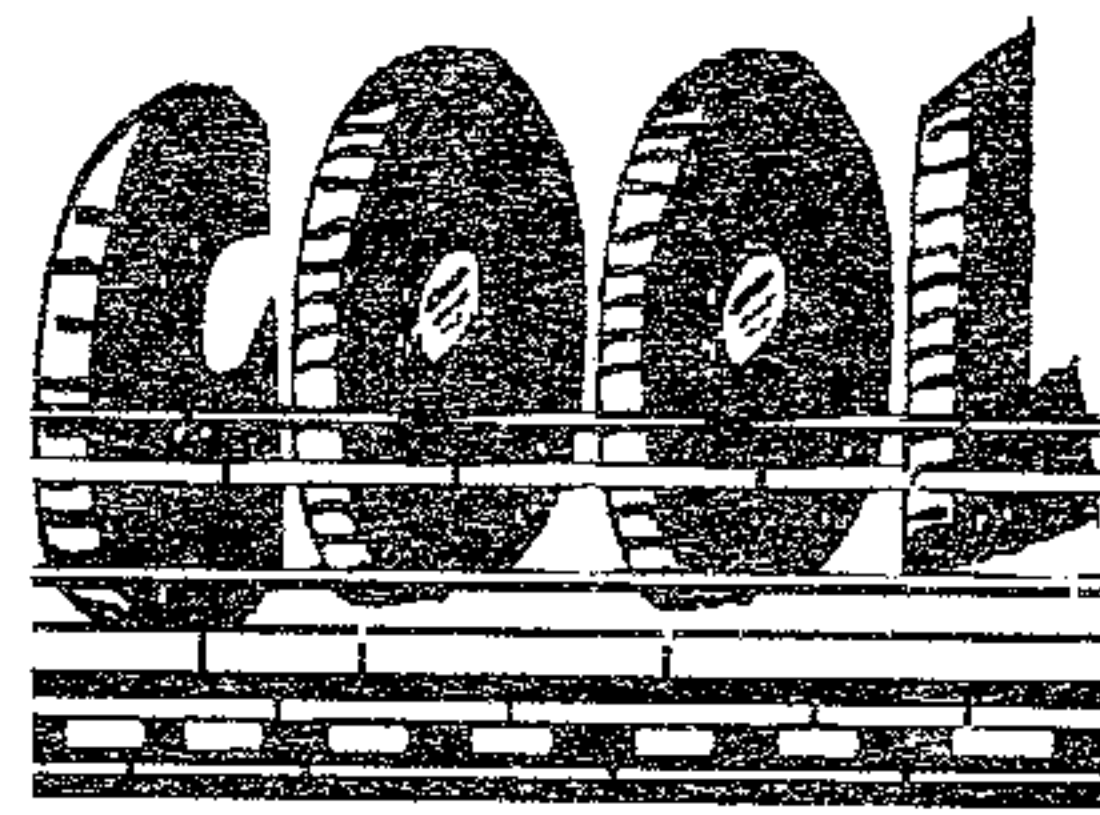

Kimberly Bush, 35, of County Road 316, Niota, was charged with driving on revoked license. According to the report, Deputy Billy Hall, LCSO stopped a black vehicle for speeding on I75. The driver, Ms. Bush, was found to have a revoked license for DUI. Deputy Billy Hall, LCSO made the arrest.

David Wayne Langley, 45, of Setterburg, Philadelphia, was charged with driving on revoked license. According to the report, Deputy Craig Brewer, LCSO stopped a vehicle on Hwy 70 that matched one that passed him speeding earlier. A check of the registration showed the tag to be registered to another vehicle. A check of Langley's license showed them to be revoked. Deputy Craig Brewer, LCSO made the arrest.
