The Good News

by Jeff Vittatoe

Faith? Works? Both... or Neither?

Let's imagine that a lost person has spent every moment of the last seven days with you. Let's say they were with you at your home, they went with you to your work and were present during every conversation that you have participated in for the last week. If you claim to be a Christian could you honestly say, during that seven day period, that the person with you could identify the presence of the Holy Spirit in your actions?

6th Revoked

A father and son were apprehended after being stopped by THP when a hit came back on the vehicle as being registered to a suspended driver. Trooper Eric Miller made the stop.

Mark A Vance Jr., 36, of Watson Drive, Maryville, was charged with driving on suspended 6th offense, surrender of registration and VOP out of Knox County.

According to the reports, Trooper Eric Miller, THP was using his license plate reader

Tallent

According to the warrants, Derek Ethan Tallent did attempt to escape from the Loudon County Jail by climbing above a suspended ceiling in a holding cell where he was being housed pending court disposition for two counts of felony burglary.

The ceiling did collapse under his weight causing him to fall through and onto the floor. Significant damage was done to the ceiling as a result of Mr. Tallent's actions that included the ceiling frame and tiles to be destroyed and a light fixture fell from the ceiling and had to be removed.

The damage is estimated at over $500.

Derek Ethan Tallent, 29, of North Point Road, Sweetwater, was charged with attempted escape from penal institution and felony vandalism. Sgt. Detective Charles Cosner, LCSO made the arrest.

Viars

According to the report, Investigator Jeff Russell, LCSO CID responded to the jail to investigate an escape from a temporary holding cell.

When the investigator arrived he found the inmate in the cell was Jonathan Viars. Upon talking to other inmates and corrections officers it was found that Jonathan Viars had removed a ceiling tile and had climbed into the crawl space between the false ceiling and the roof.

The ceiling tile had fallen with him due to the weight on the tile causing damage to the ceiling approximately $500 worth.

Jonathon Viars, 19, of Old Hwy 95, Lenoir City, was charged with escape and vandalism.

Investigator Jeff Russell, LCSO CID made the arrest and filed the charges.

USA

in the United States of America.

The American Commissary LLC is located at 1209 East Broadway Lenoir City, Tennessee 37772 and their number is (865) 816-3519.

According to Ms. Rose Wood, owner and operator of the business we have been asked why the store is called "American Commissary". First of all, the "American" stands for so many wonderful things -- freedom, liberty, and justice for all -- the country where anyone, willing to work, could have a job and could achieve the "American Dream".

The "Commissary" is a part of the store name because it symbolizes, for us, an achievement of the American Dream. In the early 1900's, our family lived in a coal mining camp where there was only one store -- the "Commissary". Remembering from where we came, keeps us humble and thankful to be an American.

A lot of great locally made products can be found in the store already and it is filling up daily as new items arrive on a daily basis.

America is a relatively young country but has surpassed all other countries and cultures because of its key values. However, in the past few years, as we have looked around us, we have seen many of our friends and neighbors who have been unable to find and/or keep jobs because our economy has suffered greatly and our proud values have not been exploited.

To try and help, we decided to set up a store front to buy and sell USA made products. During the past few months we have put forth a significant amount of effort to try and find merchandise made in the USA -- it has been difficult to say the least. We, like you, understand that we live in a global economy, but we also know that in order to have jobs in the USA, we must find a way to buy and sell the products made by the people in the USA.

Even though one small store cannot make a significant impact on its own, it can provide a way that will allow those of you, who have a desire to help create jobs, a way to do so. As we work together we can apply our entrepreneurial skills to develop high quality products – much the same as the previous generation that made this country great.

Our mission is intended to evolve, you can help.

In the future we will concentrate and focus on a variety of monthly themes – examples include pottery, art, woodwork, Native American crafts, candles, soaps, clothing, home décor, tools. Do you have a favorite?

If you make a product that you want to sell, you can help us by letting us help you. We could help you sell more products and maybe even allow you to hire someone to help you produce even more products.

If you have family, friends, or neighbors who make a product that they wish to sell, you can encourage them to come to the store and let us help them by buying or selling the products that they produce.

When you have gifts to buy for family or friends, consider buying USA products from the store.

If you are aware of a USA manufactured product that you believe would be a good seller, please send us the information.

The opening of the store was on July 1, 2013, and we will open with the minimum amount of merchandise. As we hear from you and find additional products made in the USA, our inventory of merchandise will increase. We are counting on “word of mouth” advertising to help us get started – in buying and selling USA made products. We will plan a Grand Opening in the fall.

In God we trust that together we can enjoy the American Dream.

What if they were only evaluating your words? Have you said or done anything in the past week that might have helped that person consider trusting in Jesus?

I am convinced that many Christians reading today would be embarrassed if they really had to answer those questions. I sometimes look back at my day before going to bed at night and ask myself if I made a difference for Christ that day. There are days when I felt like I walked with Jesus and looked for opportunities to share the gospel with others, but unfortunately there are days that I can't recall one action or one sentence that was meant to glorify our Savior.

In today's text, James is telling Christians that evidence of our faith is found in our actions and that claiming to have faith but not acting through faith makes our faith worthless, possibly even non-existent. In other words, if you say you are a Christian, but nothing in your life or actions resembles Christ, you may not be a Christian at all!

James 2:14-26 (NKJV) (14) What does it profit, my brethren, if someone says he has faith but does not have works? Can faith save him? (15) If a brother or sister is naked or destitute of daily food, (16) and one of you says to them, "Depart in peace, be warm and filled," but you do not give them the things which are needed for the body, what does it profit? (17) Thus also faith by itself, if it does not have works, is dead. (18) But someone will say, "You have faith, and I have works." Show me your faith without your works, and I will show you my faith by my works. (19) You believe that there is one God. You do well. Even the demons believe- and tremble! (20) But do you want to know, O foolish man, that faith without works is dead? (21) Was not Abraham our father justified by works when he offered Isaac his son on the alter? (See Genesis 22:1-19) (22) Do you see that faith was working together with his works, and by works faith was made perfect? (23) And the scripture was fulfilled which says, "Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness." And he was called the friend of God. (24) You see then that a man is justified by works, and not by faith only. (25)

Likewise, was not Rahab the harlot also justified by works when she received the messengers and sent them out another way? (See Joshua 2:12-21) (26) For as the body without the Spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also.

Let me clarify one point; contrary to the beliefs of some "religious" groups around us, I do not believe that one can get to heaven by simply being a good person. Regardless of how nice you are, or how many people you help along the way, God's word tells us plainly that Jesus Christ is the Way, the Truth and the Life, and that NO man can come to the Father except through Him (John 14:6). Jesus also said in John 3:3, "unless one is born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God."

I do believe that when we invite Jesus into our heart and life that He saves us. If, at some point after that, our faith is not reflected in our actions, it means one of two things; we have either allowed sin into our lives and need to repent and get back on "Team Jesus", or we have never really surrendered our lives to Him at all!

If your faith is not evident in your works, in which category do you fall? Regardless of which applies to you, the answer to either situation is still the same; call on Jesus! Ask Him to forgive you and make you whole. Romans 10:13 says that, "whosoever will call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved."

If the faith of every Christian in our community was reflected in the words and deeds of each Christian, then our communities could begin to see change that has an eternal impact! It is our own fault that Christianity is on the decline in America and that "coexisting" is quickly becoming the norm.

Blondie and I have decided that Jesus matters to us! We want you - to see Him - in us! How much room have you given Jesus in your life? What if a lost person is watching you this next week? Unless you are locked in your bathroom or in solitary confinement somewhere..... they will be!

Visit us at www.the-goodnews-dailyedition.com or call (865) 304-6779 if you want to hear more Good News! Isaiah said, "Here I am Lord, send me." God is seeking to send His people to do His work.... How will you respond?
