three days.

Blondie and I are very excited this morning and have been looking forward to visiting Joyabaj for some time. My time this morning is very short and I may not see Internet service for several more days, but I wanted to at least share a request for all Christian brothers and sisters who read these words today:

First of all, please pray that we will be faithful to God and keep continuous watch for the opportunities that He places before us as we serve in this impoverished area. Please pray that God will prepare their hearts to hear the wonderful gospel of Jesus Christ and that the Holy Spirit will be felt through the voices of those who will translate for us this week.

While our goal today is to serve through a medical clinic, our mission is to carry Christ to them and allow God to accomplish His perfect will through our lives. We are commanded to make disciples of all nations (Mathew 28:18-20) and the group of medical professionals and Christian believers traveling with us are committed to just that!

Pray for us and for the folks we will see this week and I will continue to pray for all who read The Good News today!
