Evading

rest, and Possession of stolen property.

According to the report, on 8/9/13 Officer Buckner was dispatched to HWY 321 N on two shoplifters, and one of the two was trying to pay with clonazepam and then left the store and went behind the building.

Upon arrival Officer Buckner, made contact with the female suspect first, the Officer then spotted the male subject at the end of the building chugging a beer which was stolen. Officer Buckner told the female to stay where she was.

Officer Buckner then made contact with the male which proceeded to run on foot The Officer chased after him and he was later tased by Deputy Burley on Northside Dr.

Officer Buckner then came back to locate the female which he was unable to, until he was advised by a resident at the Inn of Lenoir that the female was hiding under a breeze way behind a trash can and underneath a piece of wood.

Once Officer Buckner took the female into custody she was found with multiple misc. items of candy and a cigarette pack that contained 5 clonazepam. Officer T. Buckner LCPD made the arrests.
