Theft

Officer Holloway, LCPD was dispatched to Wal-mart for a male Shoplifter.

Upon arrival Officer Holloway identified the subject as Darrell Williams. Wal-mart loss prevention observed Mr. Williams place a surround sound system, two ladders and a pressure washer into a store buggy and then exited the store past all points of sale with the buggy and merchandise without paying for those items in an attempt to deprive Wal-mart of the sale and merchandise. Mr. Darrell Williams was charged with theft. Officer T. Holloway LCPD made the arrest.

Assault x2

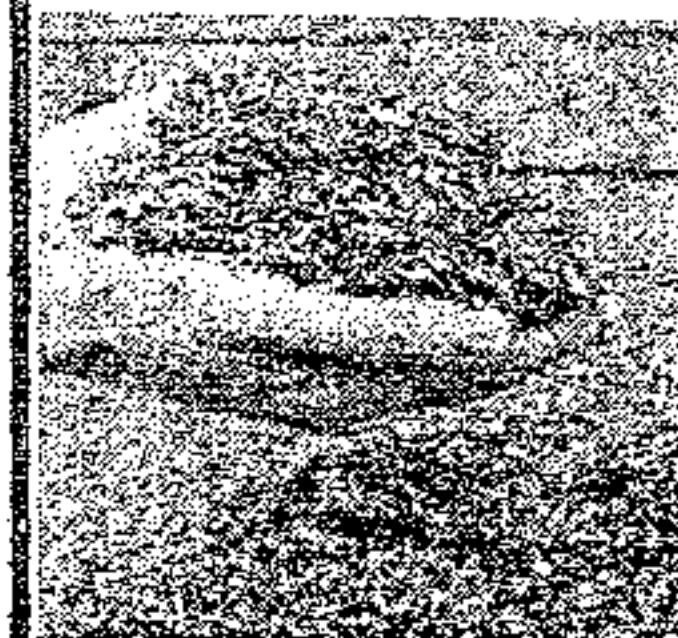

Aggravated Assault x2. According to the report, Deputy Dixon was dispatched to Brooks Rd. to a domestic. Upon Deputy arrival the suspect Boyd Atkins had left the residence in a white vehicle. Deputy Dixon identified the victims and the female victim stated that Mr. Atkins met her outside and demanded to show him she still had money he had given her yesterday and that he wanted her and her son's cell phone. The victim stated that she gave her cell phone to Mr. Atkins and she stated that Mr. Atkins grabbed her by the arm and started into the house. The male victim stated he was going to call the police. The female stated Mr. Atkins started yelling and shoving furniture and calling her son names. The female victim told her son to leave and go to his Grand Mothers house. Mr. Atkins would not let the male victim leave and took his cell phone. The female victim further reported the male victim ran to the bathroom and locked the door, and Mr. Atkins beat on the door until he busted it open.

The victim further reported they went back into the living room and Mr. Atkins took a gun out of the safe and pointed at her and her son. Mr. Atkins then told the female victim to get naked and get in the bed. The female victim stated that her mother and two other males came to the residence and Mr. Atkins got in an argument with them. Mr. Atkins let the victims go then left the residence.

Update

A McGhee Square woman who was also found to be in violation of her probation has been charged along with her attorney, Kent Booher in connection with the sexual exploitation of a minor.

Loudon County attorney and public defender Kent Booher is charged with three counts of statutory rape, and one count each of solicitation of a minor and especially aggravated sexual exploitation of a minor following his arrest Wednesday. Kent Booher, 58, was arrested at his home in Harriman after indictments were issued by a Loudon County grand jury. Booher is being held in the Loudon County Jail on a $29,000 bond.

Malina Akin, 36 Kelly Lane Lenoir City, was charged with ESP. Aggravated Sexual Exploitation of a minor. According to report on 8/14/13 Malina was arrested on a Criminal Court Capias for Especially Aggravated Sexual Exploitation of a minor. Inv. M. Stanley LCSO made the arrest. Malina Nanette Akin, is being held in the Loudon County Jail on a $10,000 bond. She is also accused of violating parole.

The indictment accuses Booher and Akin of using a minor to participate in the production of material that includes sexual activity or simulated sexual activity. Booher is charged with three counts involving the alleged rape of a girl under the age of 16. He is also accused of using electronic communication to solicit the engagement of sex with the teen.

According to the Tennessee Bar Association, Booher's practice includes criminal and juvenile law. Booher received a public censure last year by the Board of Professional Responsibility of the Supreme Court of Tennessee after being accused of failing to properly represent a client.

The board said Booher "failed to act with reasonable diligence in an estate matter, failed to maintain reasonable communication with his client, and failed to expedite litigation."

a possible drunk driver in a black Ford Fusion that was driving all over the roadway traveling towards Monroe Co. Deputy located the black vehicle and observed said vehicle cross completely over the right side fog line several times, and before the Deputy could make a traffic stop on the vehicle, the vehicle in question ran off into the emergency lane 10 times.

The deputy activated his lights and siren and vehicle stopped on HWY 411 at Black Rd. The Deputy exited his patrol unit and had to scream at the driver for she was backing up toward patrol car. Driver of the vehicle stopped and put the vehicle in park. Deputy made contact with the driver, identified as Rhondalyn Dunlap, she had extremely slurred and delayed speech and smell of an alcoholic beverage coming from her person. Deputy asked Ms. Dunlap if she had drank any alcohol or taken any medication this date, and she replied yes that she took her prescription clonazepam and that she had been fired from her job.

The Deputy asked Ms. Dunlap to perform field sobriety tests, she replied she would try. Ms. Dunlap could not perform any field sobriety test given and at that time Deputy advised Ms. Dunlap she was under arrest for DUI and was read the implied consent law and she refused a chemical test. The deputy found an empty bottle of clonazepam in the center console. Enroute to the Loudon Co. Jail Ms. Dunlap became very violent, kicking and screaming and trying to kick the rear window out of the patrol car and actually broke the rear dome light out with her feet. Ms.

Dunlap also threatened to kill the Deputy if she went back to Federal Prison. Deputy B. Rayfield LCSO made the arrest.
