The Good News

by Jeff Vittatoo

A New Beginning

For almost three years now, Angie and I have shared the details of our lives, and how God has changed everything about us, with thousands of folks like you. We have praised The Lord for the blessings and shared how God has brought us through various struggles that many of you also face in life. Although we rarely ever know how God has spoken to others through this process, we continue to hope and we pray that God has used our story to touch the hearts of those who read The Good News.

Today we are extremely excited to share the next step in our commitment to honor God with our lives. I have written on numerous occasions about Christ sending out His disciples to make the gospel known to others. I have shared our missionary journeys across the county and around the globe. I have asked you to pray, to give and to go, more times than I can count. I have quoted The Great Commission scripture within this article, on our flyers, on prayer cards, T-shirts and it is posted on a bumper sticker attached to our car. We believe with all of our heart that God intends for Christians to go share the gospel of Jesus Christ with the entire world both within the boundaries of our own nation and to all other nations. This is what the Bible tells us to do because people are dying every day without Jesus and spending eternity in torment. Yes, it's that important!

The Great Commission

Mathew 28:18-20 And Jesus came and spoke to them, saying, "All authority has been given to Me in heaven and on earth. (19) Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, (20) teaching them to observe all things that I have commanded you; and lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the age." Amen.

This past week, Blondie and I have committed to putting our money (and our lives) where our mouth is. We believe that God is leading us to relocate our lives to Helena, Montana, to serve with Pastor Darren Hales within a church plant in the North Valley of Helena called Big Sky Fellowship.

We have served with Pastor Hales at Big Sky Fellowship on two prior occasions for a week at a time and have seen the need for Jesus Christ to be proclaimed in that area. God placed Pastor Hales in Helena over seven years ago, where he began having small group Bible studies in his home and has led many Montanans to Christ since then. The church is growing, as is the need for disciple makers. I believe God will use Pastor

Hales to teach Angie and me how to effectively share the gospel with the people of Helena and work within the Big Sky Fellowship family to strengthen those who are new believers.

This commitment became very real to us yesterday afternoon as we both submitted our resignations to our employer effective December 1st and shared with our families that we will be attending church services that morning and then driving west to follow God's calling on our lives.

We plan to continue sharing The Good News from our home in Montana and hope that you will continue to see how God uses our lives for His glory. We are planning to incorporate a Christian outreach that will be called The Good News Missions and we invite you to pray that it brings honor and glory to Jesus Christ as He, and He alone, is worthy of our praise. Angie has created a new website to allow us the ability to share this journey with anyone who desires to see how God is moving within our lives and the lives of the folks in Helena, Montana. Our new web address is www.tgnmissions.com. Please check it out as you have time or visit us on Facebook. I've never "Facebooked" but my wife is a social media guru so keeping in touch will not be a problem.

I had planned to postpone this announcement for a few more weeks and continue our study in the Book of James. But as I prayed this morning, there were two verses of scripture that kept penetrating my thoughts so I will share them now, believing that God Himself placed them on my mind today;

Proverbs 3:5-6 (5) Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and lean not on your own understanding; (6) In all your ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct your paths.

Psalms 37:4-5 (4) Delight yourself also in the Lord, and He shall give you the desires of your heart. (5) Commit your way to the Lord, trust also in Him, and He shall bring it to pass.

I have had a desire in my heart for Montana probably since the first time I saw the movie, "A River Runs Through It". Angie and I went there on our honeymoon, months before we surrendered our lives to The Lord and sought His will for our lives. God has allowed us to grow within our church family at New Providence Baptist Church and He has allowed us to see the nations. We have seen firsthand that not everyone owns a pair of shoes, has food to eat or a warm place to sleep. God has shown us that not every city in America has a church on every corner and that not every person has actually heard the gospel of Jesus Christ.

God has been preparing our hearts for a while now and equipping us with the knowledge of His Word. He is now allowing us to use this knowledge and use His blessings to reach the lost in a place that I have always loved to begin with! How awesome is the God we serve!!!!

It is no coincidence that Angie and I met Darren Hales through a partnership established by Phil Holmes of the Loudon County Baptist Association, who just happens to be a member of New Providence Baptist Church and who I now consider my friend and brother in Christ!

Folks, God created man from the dust of the ground and breathed us into our very existence. He knows our thoughts, our desires and knows how many hairs are upon our head today. He loves us so much that He allowed His Son to die for our sins and every day that we wake up is because He alone has allowed us to. Angie and I are honored that God is allowing us to participate in what He is doing in Montana and we are committed to being Christ-like examples (Christians) to the people He places in our lives when we get there in December. We hope that you too will get involved in what God is doing in Helena! Thanks for reading and thanks for the prayers.
