Corruption

Westover, Maryland.

According to the unsealed indictments, the alleged conspiracy took place in the largest state in prison in Maryland, which houses more than 3,300 inmates. Inside, correctional officers, inmates, and outside facilitators were supposedly working together to smuggle in contraband including narcotics, tobacco, and cell phones.

The indictments alleged that correctional officers took payments from inmates and facilitators, or engaged in sexual relations with inmates, to traffic in heroin, cocaine, opioids, and other contraband like pornographic videos. Inside the prison, the narcotics and contraband were sold to fellow inmates while the illegal proceeds helped expand the criminal operation.

Eighteen correctional officers, 35 inmates, and 27 outside facilitators were allegedly involved in the moneymaking scheme before an FBI-led investigation with the Department of Public Safety and Correctional Services (DPSCS) dismantled the organization.

"Few things threaten our society more than public servants who betray their oath for personal gain," said Gordon Johnson, special agent in charge of the FBI's Baltimore Field Office, said on Wednesday. "It was extremely courageous of the Maryland DPSCS to allow the access required to conduct this type of investigation.

The state of Maryland and the FBI together have made this community safer."

Good Shepherd Center of Monroe County presents EmiSunshine

Madisonville native, EmiSunshine gained national attention at the age of nine when a video of her singing Jimmie Rogers "Blue Yodel No. 6" at the Sweetwater Flea Market went viral. That exposure led to an appearance on the Today Show, followed by touring engagements from coast to coast. Emi and her family band have performed on the Grand Ole Opera multiple times and have opened concerts for Willie Nelson and Jason Isbell. They will also be opening two shows for Loretta Lynn later this month. A fourth generation musician, Emi first sang in public at a friends wedding at the age of four, and now at age 12, she's in the process of finishing production on her fourth album.

This concert is a benefit for our friends at Good Shepherd Center to go towards their much needed building fund. For every dollar raised, an anonymous donor will match the total, so please help spread the word about this event.

The EmiSunshine concert will be: Thursday, October 13, 2016 Location is the Hiwassee College Buckner Memorial United Methodist Chapel, 225 Hiwassee College Drive, Madisonville, TN 37354. Doors open at 5:30 PM, Show at 6:30 PM. Tickets $12.00, Kids ages 6 and under free. Tickets may be purchased at the door, Monroe County Chamber of Commerce, Kahite and Rarity Bay Club Houses.
