programs this month, a series sponsored by the Friends of Knox County Public Library.

"This book explores the mysterious story of Jimmy Hoffa, his relationship to Frank Sheeran and details about the assassination of John Kennedy," Burchett said. "I Heard You Paint Houses is well worth the read and I am looking forward to the discussion about Hoffa and this fascinating time in our history."

I Heard You Paint Houses is a compelling account of a dark side of American history that takes its title from the first words Jimmy Hoffa spoke to Frank Sheeran—to paint a house is to kill a man. But the book is about far more than killing. It is a rich cultural history

Good Shepherd Center of Monroe County presents EmiSunshine

Madisonville native, EmiSunshine gained national attention at the age of nine when a video of her singing Jimmie Rogers "Blue Yodel No. 6" at the Sweetwater Flea Market went viral. That exposure led to an appearance on the Today Show, followed by touring engagements from coast to coast. Emi and her family band have performed on the Grand Ole Opera multiple times and have opened concerts for Willie Nelson and Jason Isbell. They will also be opening two shows for Loretta Lynn later this month. A fourth generation musician, Emi first sang in public at a friends wedding at the age of four, and now at age 12, she's in the process of finishing production on her fourth album.

This concert is a benefit for our friends at Good Shepherd Center to go towards their much needed building fund. For every dollar raised, an anonymous donor will match the total, so please help spread the word about this event.

The EmiSunshine concert will be: Thursday, October 13, 2016 Location is the Hiwassee College Buckner Memorial United Methodist Chapel, 225 Hiwassee College Drive, Madisonville, TN 37354. Doors open at 5:30 PM, Show at 6:30 PM. Tickets $12.00, Kids ages 6 and under free. Tickets may be purchased at the door, Monroe County Chamber of Commerce, Kahite and Rarity Bay Club Houses.

Ermitanio Figueroa, 20, Hwy 11 East Lenoir City, was charged with Evading Arrest, and Driving without a Valid License. Deputy Craig Brewer LCSO, was in the area of Jacks Auto Parts, and observed a white vehicle traveling on Hwy 11 going south with no headlights on. On trying to stop the vehicle the driver went off in a ditch. On Deputy stopping the vehicle then accelerated off going through the ditch then came back onto the hwy. On getting to Lee Hi Street, the driver could not make the corner and crashed into a rock. The driver took off running on foot. Deputy located the driver at his residence and took him into custody.

Construction Begins on the Tennessee State Veterans Cemetery at Parkers Crossroads

Tennessee Gov. Bill Haslam and Department of Veterans Services Commissioner Many-Bears Grinder were joined by several federal, state and local officials today as they broke ground on the Tennessee State Veterans Cemetery at Parkers Crossroads. U.S. Rep. Marsha Blackburn (R-TN), U.S. Rep.

Stephen Fincher (R-TN), State Rep. Steve McDaniel (R-Parkers Crossroads), State Sen. Dolores Gresham (R-Somerville), Parkers Crossroads Mayor Kenneth Kizer, Henderson County Mayor Dan Hughes and the Friends of the Tennessee State Veterans Cemetery at Parkers Crossroads also participated in the special ceremony.

The 132-acre cemetery will be located at 693 Wildersville Road and will serve more than 45,000 veterans and their families within 17 counties in west Tennessee.

"We are to have this dignified final resting place in west Tennessee for those who served our country and their eligible dependents," Haslam said. "This resource will serve our veterans and their families for decades to come."

Veterans ctd. from pg. 5

The National Cemetery Administration last month awarded $5,754,802.00 in federal funding for the construction of the cemetery.

"This milestone is cause for celebration for our veterans, their families and our local, state and federal partners that joined us in making this project a high priority to improve how we serve Tennesseans in rural parts of our state," Grinder said. "This hallowed ground will serve as a pristine final resting place where reverence and reflection will be fostered."

"The placement of this cemetery in west Tennessee is the realization of years of work," Blackburn said. "We celebrate the groundbreaking of this project and anticipate completion. This facility will allow families to be closer to home as they endure a time of loss."

"I count it a true honor to be part of the groundbreaking of the Tennessee State Veterans Cemetery at Parkers Crossroads," Fincher said. "These serene grounds will serve as a symbol of the ultimate sacrifice our veterans made for our security and freedom. I hope this site will bring peace to those who knew and loved a veteran, and I hope each time they visit they look back with pride on the courageous contributions these heroes made to our country. We thank God for each and every veteran and pray His blessings upon this sacred space as it becomes their final resting place."

"Parkers Crossroads is a community dedicated to history, recognizing the service of our veterans and cultivating a patriotic spirit that bonds our citizens," McDaniel said. "This state veterans cemetery will serve Tennesseans from several miles and counties away and we believe this dignified resource will be a reverent crown jewel for communities across the region."

"This historic setting will serve as a tribute to veterans of all eras, branches and backgrounds," Gresham said. "To watch this dream become a reality is truly a privilege of public service and will serve as an enduring symbol of our commitment to our fellow veterans for decades to come."

The Tennessee State Veterans Cemetery at Parkers Crossroads is expected to be completed by spring 2018.
